TO THE EDITOR
PORT DOVER, MAPLE LEAF

Dear Sam:

I hope you will pardon our delay in answering your communications of the past two or three weeks. You will appreciate, we know, that we have just a plain old printing office down here in Jarvis and must, of necessity, do our editorial writing with a typewriter propped up against a type case. You will remember Sam, operating under the same circumstances before, property hit Norfolk and you were able to establish yourself along the same lines as George McCullough. Now, regardless of what you might think Sam, we are not making this comparison amid any torrential crocodile tears. It is just that we are sorry that you are being carried away by a period of temporary prosperity.

My, my, how can you suggest that perhaps we are tainted by political prejudice. As an editor you must agree that it is indicative of good citizenship for everyone to take an active part in the preservation of our democratic system of government (editors included). Our activities in this respect have always been out in the open and if we do say so ourselves, we have backed some pretty good candidates for political honours. Take our present M.L.A. for example. We thought he would make one of the best qualified representatives you could find for Haldimand-Norfolk and, you will agree, that contention was pretty well borne out by the voters of the riding. Nor have we heard too much complaint since November 22, except from a couple of Norfolk Journals. Of course there couldn't be any political connection in the plaintive beatings from the Norfolk Editorial sanctuaries because, as you say yourself, you wouldn't know anything about the political angle.

We hope you will refer to our editorial entitled "There's Gold in Them Thar Hills." We find it hard to understand how you can be so naive as to suggest that evidence indicates Gold was there before the turn of the century. You know just as well as we do Sam, that the only gold in the hills of Norfolk was transferred there from Haldimand County with the advent of the tobacco industry. We thought we made that clear to you before. As a matter of fact, they are still hauling it from the farms of Haldimand every day throughout the length and breadth of Norfolk. Until Haldimand puts an embargo on this valuable material we suppose Norfolk will remain heavily in the good fortune of transforming the sand dunes to produce prosperity crops. Don't forget though Sam, what a tempering effect the U.S. embargo had on the livestock industry. It could happen in this instance you know. In your last issue we think you are to be commended in admonishing the County Council for putting the County back in the deplorable business to the tune of $450,000.00. That is a tidy sum in anybody's language. Down here in Haldimand we appreciate what that amount of money means. But for a County of such vast expanse as Norfolk, with its diversified industrial importance, tobacco industry, as well as orchards and general farming, pistol point of the mystery land purchase scheme, and home of the world's largest fresh water fishing fleet, etc. etc. we fail to understand how you can be comfortable amid such a torrential flow of crocodile tears in your plush editorial sanctum expressing concern over a debt of such diminutive proportions in relation to your wealth. We can only draw the conclusion that you must contemplate those thoughts while gazing at the moon.

As a man that flow in through the star and crescent. We too find we do our best at thinking in down to earth surroundings.

Well Sam, guess we'll put the lid back on the pot for this week.

Yours truly,
THE LESSER-LIGHT

Will YOU be BUYING OR SELLING when egg prices are UP next fall?

Will you be buying eggs next fall, when egg prices are up again, or will you have eggs to sell? Top-priced October is only a trifle over 4 months away - but with these well-started 3-to-4-week-old pullets of the fast-growing, early-laying, big-egg Bray stock you can have eggs to sell by then.

These started pullets are particularly low-priced if you take them "Shipper's choice" - and remember, they save you 3 to 4 weeks feed and time, gain you 3 to 4 weeks of the top fall egg prices. Come - or phone.

LOOK: New Low Started Pullet Prices

(Our choice of breed or cross)

3 WEEKS, $25.90 per 100      4 WEEKS, $30.90 per 100

If you are particularly interested in some one breed or cross, ask for "customer's choice" price..... a little higher, but still mighty reasonable. Day-olds available, too.
