Pen, Scissors and Pastepot

We hasten to acknowledge Sam Morris' solicitude concerning our health and our regret that we missed the old Pot last week. There's always something in the pot if we can just get it out. He will appreciate that is a real problem with us. Being assailed from all sides on the western front in an effort to send us into political oblivion naturally stokes the fires. But right now we are more interested in watching the Port Dover Lions Club go to bat for artificial ice in Port Dover. We think Port Dover will be far better off with artificial ice than they would be by severing political connections with Haldimand. Incidentally we have no doubt that the Port Dover Lions will accomplish their objective and will once again demonstrate to their town, and any other community that cares to look in, just how valuable such an organization really is.

Now that the Yankees have won their fourth world series in a row our health has shown a decided improvement. Not that we were sick in the first place, but because there is no longer any reason to stay home and see and hear the greatest sport spectacle in the world. As a matter of fact we were probably as dependent as any bum in Brooklyn on Tuesday night.

It hardly seems possible that Jarvis had an intermediate baseball team back around 1929 or 1930. We are reminded of it by a picture in the old album that reveals the faces of some mighty interesting characters (to us). It was taken after Jarvis had won a particularly tough game against Hagersville. This was the

NANTICOKE W.A. MEETING

The Nanticoke United Church Women's Association met on Tuesday October 7th. Mrs. Kenneth Vokes, the President, presided. The devotional was given by Mrs. Knox and Mrs. Russell Miller. Preliminary arrangements were made for the annual Fowl Supper for Tuesday, November 4th. Further details will be made later.

The meeting closed with Rev. Knox pronouncing the Benediction. Team: Don Kindree, Howard Aron, Cliff Walker, Chuck Horley. Dick Tyrell, Laird Miller (that's us) Willis Walker, Bus Whitehead and Mel Leach. Oh yes, Stacey Burwash is in the picture because Jarvis didn't have a baseball team for several decades that he didn't figure in. It leaves us kind of sad to realize that we are the only one left in that picture still residing in Jarvis.

The old album shows still another picture of a little later date, probably around 1934. This team was the Provincial championship really meant something. Here they are: Gordon Elight, Stan Mitchell, Jack Horne, Mel Peacock, Lloyd Kargos, Connie O'Mahony, Bill Bowman, Bert Peacock and Bob Johnson. Of this team Stan Mitchell and Connie O'Mahony are the only two left. Times sure change.

Andy O'Brien in the week-end magazine has a rating on the value of a few hockey players in the National League. The top three, Richard Howe and Lindsay are valued at $100,000 and next comes Red Kelly at $75,000. We're going to write a letter to the editor. Red should be worth $100,000 too.

WATKINS WAY

As the pasture season draws to a close, pastures thin out and lose much of their feeding value. As a result, your dairy herd may go into the barn with depleted reserves of minerals and vitamins — unable to hold up high milk production through the winter.

Balance your dairy rations the Watkins Way to help replace these missing nutrients. Watkins Stock Mineral Feed and Watkins Vitamin Supplement furnish your herd with calcium, phosphorus and trace minerals. Five Vitamins A, B, C, D, E and K.

It will pay you to learn more about the Watkins Way of dairy feeding. Phone me for an evening appointment.
