

Pen, Scissors and Pastepot

We don't suppose it is any of our business, but we have a notion there are a lot of people who found it difficult to find anything funny about the ploughing match between Toronto's Mayor and Ottawa's Mayor. Up until that time we found it possible to accord both of these individuals the respect their office should command but after such foolishness we wonder just how silly some people can get. Chief Magistrate of all people!

We are looking forward to seeing the first issue of the new magazine being published by the Daily News. The magazine will be devoted entirely to the interests of the great Tobacco Industry. While it will be a product of the News-Record Presses under the direction of the Glendinning Bros., the editor will be J. K. Jack Horse, who is also news editor of the weekly Daily paper. Watching the steady growth and improvement of the News-
