whole flock. In most cases the temperature should be kept at around 100 degrees two inches above the floor at the outside of the hover. In very cold weather this may be increased and during milder spells this can be reduced somewhat. The best method of determining the right degree is to watch the chicks. If they are well distributed the temperature is likely to be about right. If on the other hand they have a tendency to bunch there is something wrong and it may be the temperature. , especially turkeys which mo

The same source gives the information that the output of oleomargarine in 1952 was substantially the same as it was the previous year although stocks on hand were about half a million pounds higher than a year ago. In that connection, however, it is noted that during November last, (the last month for which we have a break-down) the domestic disappearance of butter was at the rate of 190 lbs. per capita as compared with 2.22 lbs per capita in November, 1950.

Warble fly control is a topic being widely discussed in the county of Haldimand these days. A whole stries of meetings has been planned and it will be in the interests of wery cattle owner to attend one or more of these in order to be familiar with the plan that is being undertak n. Petitions are being circulated for signature and if two-thirds of the cattle owners of a municipality sign in favour then the council will pass a by-law requiring all cattle within the municipality to be treated for warble fly

Victoria Day Celebration

• JOHN C. KING •

The passing of John C. King, on March 26th, re-noved a valued citizen of Port Dover. The funeral testified to the high esteem in which he was held in his home town and, important things in life. The Church, The Masonic Lodge, The Board of Education, The Horticultural Society, The Red

Cross, The Boy Scouts and others. These were institutions and organizations that had the unswerving support throughout his lifetime. His day to day activities were also aligned with service to the public. He was Clerk-Treasurer of Woodhouse

Township, Secretary and Treasurer of the Hydro and Waterworks Department, Secretary of the Board of Education and President of the Norfolk Historical Society. Few men have been so affiliated with the really worthwhile things.

the Editor of this paper and many others in the Jarvis community. His kind are rare, yet the deep sorrow and affection evidenced on his death surely indicates that there is a reward for a life well lived.

His friendly personality, his devotion to duty and to humanity will stand as a memorial to John C. King for many, many years. His life will be an inspiring example to succeed-

ST. FAULS WOMENS CLUB
SERVE SALAD SUPPER

A very successful Easter Salad Supper was sponsored by the Young Womens Club of St. Paul's Church on Monday evening, April 6th in the Parish Hall. The hall was gaily decorated for the occasion with spring flowers and plants. The tables were centered with moss and small flowers arranged into the centerpieces.

The guests were served cafeteria style and had an excellent choice of turkey, ham, several salads and ples. The President of the organization is Mrs. David Banks with Mrs. Glen Reicheld and Mrs. Robert Lysch, the conveners assisted by the entire club membership. Also helping were the senior girls of the Sunday School.

During the evening the Rev. H. F. Thomasson, of Welland, the Diocesar Organist of the Diocese of Niagara, presided at the church organ and for severel hours played a delightful varied program of organ selections.
