The land has been drying up beautifully the past few days and barring some unpredictable April weather...

Lady Eaton says Toronto is one of the dirtiest cities to be found anywhere. No doubt she has good grounds for her statement.

Canadians did pretty well over the Easter week end. Thirty-two managed to get bumped off from other than natural causes.

Among major national campaign planks outlined at the convention however, was a demand for national health insurance.

Although it endorsed a resolution favoring the sale of colored margarine in Ontario, the convention asked for a public inquiry into the problem of competing edible oils and dairy products.

They say there is no honour in public life. Judging by the comments made in recent weeks concerning Earl Catherwood, M.P., we would say that is not so.

HOLSTEIN AUCTION HAILED AS INDICATING UPSWING IN PRICES

The highest average at a disposal sale of Holsteins in Canada since 1950 was realized when the Roman-olter of S. E. Roman, King was sold at Oakville on March 31st.

Buyers from Argentina, Colombia, Mexico and U.S.A. bid against the large crowd of local breeders present with six head going to Henry Martin of Martin Bros., Buenos Aires, three to Guillermo Villa Modella, Colombia, two to Garcia Valseca, Mexico and three to the U.S.A.

Something unique in a Canadian sale ring was the selling of the two top bulls. These were the two-year-old, Rockwood Revelation and the Senior Yearling, Houshokomo, Re Echo Champion, the latter a son of the Canadian Champion milk producer, Rockwood Revelation and the two Grand Champions at the Royal Winter Fair last fall.

Both bulls were brought into the ring by the winning bidder was permitted to bid against the top bidder, Buenos Aires was the top bidder at $9,000, choosing Revelation. Platter Champion, Fergus, was runner-up in the original bidding, also for $8,000. The buyer was W. F. Young, Terrace Park, Titusville, Pa., represented by A. Z. Kelly.

Henry Martin was out of an excellent daughter of his top sire, the highest price for a Holstein female in Canada since the fall of 1951. His purchase was the fourteen-month-old heifer, Cavalier Rag Apple Male.

The runner-up was Fergus, Farm, Jannestown, N.J. Martin also paid $1,000 for a yearling, the Grand Champion Wood Rocker, Fone, Grand Champion at the Royal for the past two years.

There is still time to do some brush control work through the use of chemicals, although the season is fairly well advanced.

The increase this month was not nearly as great as it was in January but the total for the two months of 1953 stands at 466,407 lbs. or 152,666 more than during the same period a year ago.

For the province the improved cultural methods, the proper use of fertilizer and the effective control of pests.

By the time this column is being read many of the townships of Haldimand will have commenced their warble fly campaign.

It is known that at least two of the township officials were being tuned up at the end of March and they were both expected to be in action on April 1st.

Residents of each municipality should become fully acquainted with the procedure being followed in the township and if there is any information required they should get in touch with the warble fly inspector for the township.

Creamey butter production in Haldimand was greater by over 46,000 lbs. in February of this year than it was during the same month of 1952.
