ERIE
 On Friday night, July 31st, a large number of members and adherents of the Church, Walpole, met in the church hall to honour Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Hyland who are leaving to take work in Toronto.
 William Laidlaw, clerk of the church, acted as chairman. Following an interesting program of songs and musical numbers, Mr. Hyland and Mrs. Hyland were called forward and the sentiments of the congregation while Mr. Sanford Fleming presided with a purse of money.

On behalf of the ladies organization of the Church Mrs. Fuller was presented with a cup and saucer and a basket of fruit. Mrs. Campbell, President of W.M.S. made a short address and Mrs. Biggar and Mrs. McBurney made the presentations. Both Mr. and Mrs. Fuller made fitting replies, thanking the members of the congregation for their kindness and cooperation shown them during their ministry here.

 During the evening Rev. Mr. McMillan of Caledonia, brought greetings from Hamilton Presbytery. Mr. O. Almas, Superintendent of the Church School spoke very highly of the work done by Mr. Fuller in that organization.
 In the building of the Church hall he showed untiring zeal and it was largely through his efforts that the fund for the perpetual upkeep of the cemetery was founded. They have made a host of friends here by whom they will be greatly missed.
 Mr. Fuller has accepted a position as editor of the Presbyterian Sunday School publications in Toronto and will take up his new duties on September 1st. Our best wishes go with him in his new work.

At the close of the social evening the ladies of the congregation served refreshments.
