DEFER DECISION

P.C.'S CELEBRATE VICTORY AT CALEDONIA

Trustees finally decided to leave this question in abeyance until such time as it could be discussed with an architect.

On the motion of Trustees Cecil Johnson, (Caledonia), and Stanley Mitchell, (Jarvis), the building committee was authorized to contact architects, and to present a report at the next meeting of the board on the question of an appointment.

P.C.'S CELEBRATE VICTORY AT CALEDONIA

Workers for the Progressive Conservative party in Brant-Haldimand celebrated the victory of their candidate, John A. Charlton, at the Caledonia Arena on Monday night. Representatives from all sections of the 100-mile long riding were on hand to cheer the newly elected M.P., when he arrived from his Paris headquarters after the returns had definitely indicated his victory.

Carried by a mobile platform he and Mrs. Charlton were drawn around the arena as his supporters cheered. Speaking briefly he thank hed his supporters for his election. "Without your loyal support" he said, "victory would not have been possible." Mrs. Charlton, a native of Haldimand County, spoke briefly and said she knew her husband would be faithful to the trust placed in him on Monday. Others speaking briefly included Earl Catherwood, Hagers ville, James N. Allan, M.L.A., Dunnville, A. L. Miller, President of the Haldimand Progressive Conservative Association, Garnet Brown, President of the Brant Progressive Conservative Association, James Howell, Brant Campaign Manager for Mr. High School. He reported the drain causing flooding in the gymnasium at the Caledonia installed to prevent any repetition of this trouble.
