

My Thanks to the People of BRANT-HALDIMAND

I wish to extend my sincere thanks to all of you in the riding of Brant-Haldimand who have given me such splendid support at the polls.

I would also like to express my deepest appreciation to all those who worked so unselfishly and tirelessly for me during the weeks preceding election day.

In response to the confidence you have shown in me by electing me as your representative in Ottawa, I reaffirm my pledge to work unceasingly in the interests of all the people of Brant-Haldimand.

Sincerely yours,
John A. Charlton

Now that the ballots have been counted it is time to turn our attention to more pleasant things. Not that the counting of the ballots was necessarily unpleasant. In fact it can be assumed that more people were pleased by the counting of the ballots than were surprised. Our friends tell us, however, that it is just about time we quit talking about George Drew and come around to the popular view of the leader of the opposition. We're afraid we can't help thinking George Drew possesses all the qualifications necessary to lead a government in Canada. We will admit, however, he apparently hasn't the qualifications necessary to make people believe he is a reasonably good fellow. Our respected Prime Minister is just the reverse with respect to the latter qualification. Anyone who could dislike the Prime Minister would possibly hate his own reflection in a mirror. The whole thing seems to have had an influence in the voting on Monday. We hasten to assure our readers we feel reasonably safe with things as they are for the next four or five years.

The unfortunate thing about elections is that someone has to be the loser. The Liberal candidate in Brant-Haldimand put up a real fight for the second time in his career but lost out. He and George Drew would like to know how to sympathize with one another. John Charlton, the winning candidate, knows what it is to run a close election. In 1949 he had a margin of only 24 votes in Brant-Haldimand. His majority this time was 1,100 votes.

For as the election is over, except for one thing. We have to pay a poll tax. It has to be paid personally to Otto King in Simcoe. Otto has been kind to us over the years and

A. A. WILL SAY "I DO"

A new life is shaping up for our former sports writer by the name of Allan Auld. He always prided himself on being one of those self-made men quite non-susceptible to the whims of the opposite sex. "Women," he would say, "bah!" "No woman will ever get her fingers on me, or my money." Yes, such statements as that were typical of the utterances made by the benighted of the second concession, Walpole.

It is, of course, quite obvious to everyone else that A. A. had up until this time been just living in a dream world. Just like some of the politically minded folks we know up for practice in shorts, didn't phase him in the least and likely as not the shorts attired player would get benched for admiring her own legs instead of paying attention to the game on his eyes when it came to girls. A. A. had his feet on the ground. Why, before Hilda, he wouldn't so much as be seen at a Lions Club Ladies Night with a partner.

It's funny how things can change. And with such suddenness. The date has been set for September 5th. On that date A. A. will say "I Do" several times and, regardless of what he may be secretly thinking HE WILL. After that date a good man again will be lost to the Jarvis Jills, whatever he knows it or not. He must frequently wake up with a start these nights and think of the things he used to say about women. Who knows he might even change his position as well. We'll venture this guess that he will not be so determined in future that his political opposites wear horns.

P.S.—Les Mitchell, Morg, Williamson and Jack Cooke are hanging on the ropes.

Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Packman left for Quebec City on Monday evening where they plan to meet their daughter and son-in-law when they arrive by ship from England. On the return trip they will spend a few days in Northern Ontario before returning to Jarvis the middle of next week. Their son-in-law has accepted a position on the faculty of Trinity College, Port Hope.

Bert Lemon and Mrs. Lemon of N.Y. Mr. Lemon called on Mrs. James Priest and son and Mrs. Bud Priest and family on Sunday.

The rain Sunday afternoon and carry evening forced the cancellation of the scheduled Band Concert in the park last Sunday night. The Hagersville Citizens' Band had been engaged for this event.

On Sunday evening, August 23rd, a treat is in store for local citizens when the famous Hinds Kooch Grotto Band, from Hamilton, will play a concert in the Park. The Lions Club President, L. G. Holmes, has worked hard to complete arrangements for this concert and it is hoped a good crowd will attend. The concert is at 8:00 p.m. and the doors of the opportunity of hearing one of the outstanding bands in the Dominion of Canada.

CHRIST CHURCH C.V.S.

A large number of members and friends were on hand for the closing session of the Christ Church, Natick and Community Vacation School. The service was held in the Parish Hall on Friday at 8:30 P.M. when the younger set displayed their week's work and gave a short program. The Junior Group led by Mrs. R. Weaver and Miss L. Miller rendered a few of their vacation songs. The Seniors dramatized a couple of songs and Molly Jackson, Carolyn Field, L. Weaver, W. Lindsay, M. Richardson and a Rooster were featured in "She'll be Coming Around the Mountain." While Elsie Hedges, C. Dennis and M. Summers took leading roles in "Soldier Won't You Marry Me." Also taking part in two short skits were Gerald Swarts, C. Field, Jim Meade and Betty Meade.

WOMEN TODAY...
They do most of the family buying, much of family banking. They find the bank a safe, handy place to keep money; they like to pay larger bills by cheque. Going to the bank is often as much a part of the shopping day as a trip to the local store.

THE BANKS SERVING YOUR COMMUNITY

On the Farm Arou!

Did you attend the chicken barbecue last week? If you didn't get there you missed one of the most parties ever to have been held at the Rural Youth Centre. Everyone has been unanimous in saying that the chicken was delicious. The committee is being congratulated on the splendid organization and the dispatch with which well over 600 people were fed and everyone getting a hot chicken.

There have been so many inquiries regarding the sauce that was used during the cooking process that the recipe is being given here for the information of everyone. For ten people you would require the following: Water, 1/2 pint; vinegar, 1 pint; butter, 1/2 pound; and salt, 1 ounce. Any multiple of this recipe can be used.

Church Notes

ANGELIC CHURCH NOTES

At Norfolk County Park St. Paul's Church School enjoyed a splendid Parish Picnic. The day was made to order and the swimming conditions were excellent. The ball division of the picnic was somewhat slightly rusty. The Saints took on the Sinners in a good three inning game and the teams were composed of members of the church. The Saints had the edge on the play and were sparked by fleet foot McDonald to a 11 to 6 victory over the Sinners, captured by J. fumble thumb Cooke.

A large number of parishioners and friends were present for the picnic festivity and the afternoon program. Naturally the races were number one item of interest on the day's card. Results were as follows: Freestyle - David Dove, Tom Lethbridge and all younger members shared in the Candy Scramble and Penny Ambrose.

Boys, Girls, 6, 7, 8, 9 - Running Race - Marlene Moore, Loretta Moore, Kiki Show - Mari-Belle Cassidy - Marlene Moore; Boot and Shoe - Mari-Belle Cassidy, Marlene Moore.

Boys, Girls, 10 - 13 - Running Race - Buddy Moore, Martha Richardson, Kiki Show - Martha Richardson, Leona Stone; Boot and Shoe - Marlene Richardson, Leona Stone.
