NORFOLK HOCKEY LEAGUE

GARNET 6 — DELHI 2

Being a team of only nine men, Delhi Rockets dropped a 6 to 2 decision to Garnet in last Thursday evening's game at Port Dover Arena. However in going to they came up with a better display than in their previous encounter at Delhi. W. A. Gray, playing coach played the full 60 minutes alternating between a defence position and forward line. Garnet scored twice in the first period. A. Phillips from B. Mayer at 3:28 and Howard Howe from Ronnie Jenkins at 19 minutes. The penalty in the period went to J. Nixon and Pettit, the Delhi goalie at 8:22 for high sticking and to Morse for tripping at 8:53. In the second, Garnet outscored the Rockets 2 to 1 on goals by Anderson from Jenkins and Howe at 6:36. O. Phillips from Anderson at 11:27 and Benson from Virag at 16:03. Penalties in this period went to Howe and Benson at 11:27 for fighting and Morse for interference at 16:22. In the third, Garnet again outscored the Rockets 2 to 1. Benko opened the scoring at 7:27 from DeVos but goals by Gore Miller, unassisted at 9:21 and Jenkins from G. Miller at 10:28 swayed the game. Only penalty of the period went to Murphy for boarding at 8:44. The win increased Garnet's hopes of making the playoffs in the Norfolk League, as Waterford and Garnet are battling neck and neck for a playoff spot. The lineups were: Garnet - Goal, Pedro; Defence, Bob Miller and Bob Nixon; Centre, Jenkins; Wings, J. Nixon and A. Phillips; Subs, G. Miller, O. Phillips, P. Mayer, H. Nixon, B. Heika, J. Phillips, R. Anderson, H. Howe and M. Walker. Delhi - Goal, Pettit; Defence, Gray and Murphy; Centre, Boy; Wings, Virag and De Vos; Subs, Benson, Morse, Benson; Referee, Art MacCarr and Jim Mullin.

The same evening in Delhi, Waterford won a four point game from Canoco by an 11 to 7 score to take a three point lead over Garnet for the last playoff spot.

Sunday afternoon in Delhi, Windham downed the Rockets by a 3 to 2 score in a fast game. The win gave Windham first place in the league, and on Monday night they increased their lead by downing Canoco 6 to 2.

It has often been said that the Canadian Legion is its own worst publicity Agent. Bad news travels fast and far; good news has to be pushed. However, it is not of our ward in spreading news of its service men and because of the shortage of that false impressions are not devastating. The correct way to form an opinion is come and see for yourself - obtain your knowledge first-hand.
