

TABLE TALKS

Although the old-fashioned two-crust pie is hard to beat, the "open-faced" kind has one great advantage. It has "eye-appeal" in addition to its other attractions, and the number of different fillings you can put into an already-baked shell is almost endless. Here are a few fine fillings which I'm sure your folks will smack their lips over.

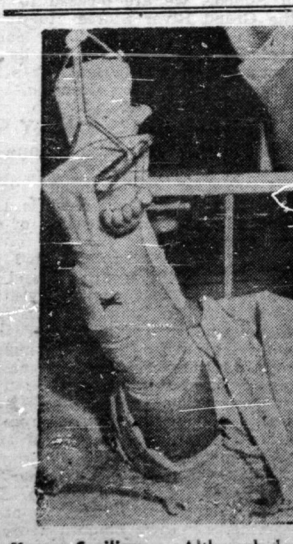

DOUBLE LEMON PIE
1 Cup Sugar
2 Tablespoons Flour
1/2 Teaspoon Salt
1 Egg Yolk
1 Cup Scalded Cream
1 Package Unflavored Gelatin
1/2 Cup Cold Water
1/2 Cup Lemon Juice
1/2 Teaspoon Vanilla
2 Egg Whites
1 Baked 9-Inch Pastry Shell
Combine sugar, flour, salt and egg yolk. Add to scalded cream in top of double boiler. Cook until thick, stirring well. Dissolve gelatin in cold water. Add to hot mixture. Cook. When mixture jells, add lemon juice, rind and vanilla. Beat egg whites until stiff. Fold into filling. Pie into pastry shell. Chill.

3/4 Cup Sugar
3/4 Teaspoons Cornstarch
1/2 Teaspoon Salt
1 Cup Water
Juice of 1 Lemon
Grated Rind of 1 Lemon
1 Egg Yolk
2 Tablespoons Butter
Combine all ingredients except egg and butter. Cook and stir until thick. Pour a little over beaten egg yolk. Return to hot mixture. Cook 5 minutes. Add butter. Cool and spread over filling.

APRICOT-GRANGE MARMALADE PIE
3 Cups Cooked, Unsweetened Dried Apricots (or Canned Apricots)
1 Cup Orange Marmalade
1/4 Cup Apricot Juice
1 Teaspoon Quick-Cooking Tapioca
1/2 Teaspoon Salt
Pastry for 9-Inch Pie
Drain apricots. Combine marmalade, juice, tapioca and salt.

"Cashah" Cutie - Modelling a pair of black padded pushers and bra, designed in North African style. Jean Bell also displays the smart sleeveless jacket and hat at a fashion show.

Keeps Smiling - Although her legs have been kept in traction splints since Jan. 12, eight-month-old Jerri Ellen Burkhid keeps a cheerful smile or her face. A fall broke her left leg above the knee, but both legs are raised to keep her from turning.

Coffee-Raisin Pilau Is a Delicious Dessert

BY DOROTHY MADDOX
Did you ever have pilau? It is a concoction of rice, spice and a varying number of other ingredients that range from meat and fish to fruits and nuts. Try the following dessert pilau. Your family will love it.
COFFEE-RAISIN PILAU
(Yield: 8 servings)
One package pre-cooked rice, regular strength coffee, 1/2 cup golden raisins, 1/2 cup chopped walnuts, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/2 cup brown sugar firmly packed, 1 cup heavy cream, whipped. Prepare pre-cooked rice according to package directions, using coffee instead of water. Stir in remaining ingredients except cream. Mix well. Cool. Fold in whipped cream, reserving enough for garnishing. Spoon into shallow glasses. Top with remaining whipped cream and chopped walnut nuts. Everybody likes upside-down gingerbread. Try it with pineapple or pears.
PINEAPPLE-UPSIDE-DOWN GINGERBREAD
(Yield: 8 servings)
Topping: Two tablespoons butter or margarine, 1/4 cup molasses, 1/4 cup sugar, 4 slices canned pineapple, 8 marshmallow cherries. Melt butter or margarine in an 8 x 2 x 2-inch pan. Blend in molasses and sugar; heat just to boiling point. Over this arrange pineapple and cherries; set aside until gingerbread batter is mixed.
GINGERBREAD BATTER
One and one-half cups sifted enriched flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon double-acting baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon ginger, 1/2 cup molasses, 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/4 teaspoon cloves, 1/4 cup shortening, 1/4 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon soda, 1/2 cup molasses, 1 egg, 1/2 cup sour milk. Sift flour, salt, baking powder, nutmeg, cloves and soda. Add molasses, egg and sour milk. Cream together shortening, sugar and soda. Add molasses. Stir in 1/2 cup of the flour mixture. Beat in egg. Add remaining flour in the above recipe.

Pour over apricots and mix. Pour into unbaked pie shell. Top with lattice. Bake in hot oven (425°F.) 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 350°F. and bake 20 minutes.

TUTTI-FRUTTI PIE
1 Cup Grapefruit Sections
1/2 Cup Orange Sections
1/2 Cup Drained Crushed Pine-Apple
1 Medium Banana, Sliced
1/2 Cup Marshmallow Cherries, Halved
2 Tablespoons Butter
1/2 Cup Sugar
3 Tablespoons Quick-Cooking Tapioca
1/4 Teaspoon Salt
Pastry for 9-Inch Pie
Combine all ingredients except pastry and butter. Pour into unbaked pie shell. Dot with butter. Top with pastry. Bake in hot oven (425°F.) 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 350°F. Bake 40 minutes.

ORANGE-RAISIN PIE
2 Cups Seedless Raisins
3 Tablespoons Lemon Juice
1/2 Cup Sugar
1/2 Cup Water
2 Tablespoons Butter
3 Tablespoons Flour
1/4 Teaspoon Salt
1 1/2 Cups Orange Sections
Pastry for 2-Crust Pie
Mix raisins, lemon juice, sugar and water in a sauce-pan. Simmer slowly for 15 minutes, or until raisins are plump. Melt butter. Add flour and salt, heating until smooth. Gradually add some of the hot juice from the raisin mixture to the flour, stirring until smooth. Pour into-raisin mixture, and cook until thickened. Add orange sections. Pour into pastry-lined 8-inch pie pan. Top with pastry and brush with milk. Bake in a hot oven (425°F.) 10 minutes. Reduce temperature to 350 degrees F. and bake 25 to 30 minutes.

WHAT HAPPENED AT JERICHO
People might have been told "to go to Jericho" when there was, in fact, no other place for British and American archaeologists now excavating in Jericho have proved that it is a town at least 6,000 years old. No other town in the world can claim 6,000 years of continuous existence. Moreover, the walls of Jericho were not all blasted down by the noise of Joshua and his men. There were several walls round Jericho and it is one of the walls that has now been uncovered to provide the evidence of 6,000 years of age. Most of this wall was made from stone slabs, but some preshaped bricks were used. So man learnt to make bricks before even pottery was invented.

Denmark consists of the peninsula of Jutland as well as 500 islands, most of which are kept apart by bridges, the bigger one at any rate. A bridge between two islands is the only one lacking for the present. Denmark is low-lying - from approximately four feet below sea level to 570 feet above it. It makes up for being low by being beautiful. At any rate, it is a pleasant country to look at. Denmark has a smile for everybody who likes to see a smile, just as some other countries about with laughter or look sad or even positively gloomy. An English writer once declared that Denmark resembled a red cow in an enormous green field. Add that it is a gay cow and a pleasant field and the remark is true enough. But there are also broad streams and blue lakes about the country, idyllic fjords, beaches where water laps the white sand, unexpected cliffs that you can fall over if you lean too far; there are stretches of moorland so flat that you stop believing the world is round, dunes with masses of sand all most indistinguishable from a sample of African desert, damp rich marshes, woods with pale green beeches and picnic baskets, and "Bakke's" picnic-covered hills and dale. Dotted about amongst it all are thousands of gardens, surrounding thousands of small white farms, and ancient parks surrounding ancient castles. There are hundreds of gay, queer, amusing towns, where gay, queer, amusing people go to see amusing things. There are hundreds of twenty different kinds of Danish. There is a watrall in Jutland. It is four feet high. There are rocks too - but there are all kept on the island of Bornholm. A visitor from Florida once said that Copenhagen had two winners, a white one and a green one. The statement is a bit unjust - From "We Dines and You" by Mogens Lind, illustrated by Helmut Hering. The National Travel Association of Denmark, 1952.

Authors' Aliases
Novelist Agatha Christie has completed fifteen years of publishing books under another name-de-pen, Mary Westmacott. Miss Westmacott came into being for the author's straight novel; Agatha Christie has always been the writer of detective stories. And few of her millions of readers know the author's real name. It is Malvern, for she is the wife of Professor Mallowan, the archaeologist. Authors-often use pen-names because they are shy. Joseph Conrad's real name was Joseph C. Korzeniowski; George Eliot was a woman-Mary Ann Evans. Some real names are used in novels. Agatha Christie has written many articles over the signature of "Jacob Tomson". A certain "Mrs. Horace Manners" who wrote learned articles turned out to be Alperon Charles Brown. "Zephaniah" the author of Alice in Wonderland, Lewis Carroll, was an Oxford Don and Bangkok's Buddha - Watching serenely over the Thailand capital is Bangkok's famous Buddha, well known to the city's teeming population as "Wat Indoro Whorn". An icon of its height can be estimated by examining the tiny human figures in the foreground.

Danish People Can Smile At Themselves
Denmark consists of the peninsula of Jutland as well as 500 islands, most of which are kept apart by bridges, the bigger one at any rate. A bridge between two islands is the only one lacking for the present. Denmark is low-lying - from approximately four feet below sea level to 570 feet above it. It makes up for being low by being beautiful. At any rate, it is a pleasant country to look at. Denmark has a smile for everybody who likes to see a smile, just as some other countries about with laughter or look sad or even positively gloomy. An English writer once declared that Denmark resembled a red cow in an enormous green field. Add that it is a gay cow and a pleasant field and the remark is true enough. But there are also broad streams and blue lakes about the country, idyllic fjords, beaches where water laps the white sand, unexpected cliffs that you can fall over if you lean too far; there are stretches of moorland so flat that you stop believing the world is round, dunes with masses of sand all most indistinguishable from a sample of African desert, damp rich marshes, woods with pale green beeches and picnic baskets, and "Bakke's" picnic-covered hills and dale. Dotted about amongst it all are thousands of gardens, surrounding thousands of small white farms, and ancient parks surrounding ancient castles. There are hundreds of gay, queer, amusing towns, where gay, queer, amusing people go to see amusing things. There are hundreds of twenty different kinds of Danish. There is a watrall in Jutland. It is four feet high. There are rocks too - but there are all kept on the island of Bornholm. A visitor from Florida once said that Copenhagen had two winners, a white one and a green one. The statement is a bit unjust - From "We Dines and You" by Mogens Lind, illustrated by Helmut Hering. The National Travel Association of Denmark, 1952.

Amunition for Hue War - Workers supervise final production of influenza vaccine. To meet the demand for vaccine caused by the nationwide influenza epidemic, more of the vaccine has been packaged and shipped in ten days than is usually processed in a year.

How Desert Plants Search For Water

The great art of how desert plants and animals search for water is the plants' appearance. It has been most obviously shown by it. Most of the birds and animals that live in the desert have no outward signs that they are in a land of little rain, and that they are searching for water. The great art of how desert plants and animals search for water is the plants' appearance. It has been most obviously shown by it. Most of the birds and animals that live in the desert have no outward signs that they are in a land of little rain, and that they are searching for water. The great art of how desert plants and animals search for water is the plants' appearance. It has been most obviously shown by it. Most of the birds and animals that live in the desert have no outward signs that they are in a land of little rain, and that they are searching for water.

Changed His Mind
A famous British surgeon once found a slowly-dying girl reading a newspaper serial in which the heroine suffers from the same disease she had. He hurried to the author and asked her to alter the ending so that the heroine lives. The author willingly agreed to change his story, and the serial's heroine and patient both lived. That is only one example of the power of suggestion. Some doctors believe that suggestion is the cause of many human ailments. A patient believes himself to be ill, and makes himself ill simply by worrying. Many people believe that ozone prevents sleep, due to the presence of a drug named caffeine. Doctors at a London hospital decided to find out how much sleep was prevented by the drug and how much by suggestion. A selected group of patients were given coffee one night, and the next night, at the same hour, they were given milk. All the patients reported that they went to sleep quicker and slept more soundly on the second night. They were never told that the milk had been mixed with three times as much caffeine as was in the coffee.

Humility For Mahatma
Socialist Leader Clement Attlee removes his hat and shoes in reverence before laying a wreath on the tomb of Mahatma Gandhi in New Delhi, Attlee was en route to the Asian Socialist Conference at Rangoon.

British Bobby - There aren't enough of them because there isn't enough housing.

British Bobby - There aren't enough of them because there isn't enough housing.

British Bobby - There aren't enough of them because there isn't enough housing.

THE FARM FRONT

By John Russell
Two years ago, Associate Editor Dick Davis, visiting Sweden, ran across two scientists there who were producing giant rabbits by treating sperm with chemicals. Farm Journal has kept track of this research ever since and now presents a progress report, dealing with eggs. A mischievous bear, laying away at an experimental station in Sweden, may go down as the most famous hog in history. "Bert" (the name means boar) to get water, one may course send rods deep into the ground. One may see the water lifting their oddly lush manly blossoms above the bon-dry powder-dust which is not so remarkable in the above-surface site as in the slopes of the gleaming sand dunes in White Sulphur Springs, Mo. Bert is the first hog ever to lift their oddly lush manly blossoms above the bon-dry powder-dust which is not so remarkable in the above-surface site as in the slopes of the gleaming sand dunes in White Sulphur Springs, Mo. Bert is the first hog ever to lift their oddly lush manly blossoms above the bon-dry powder-dust which is not so remarkable in the above-surface site as in the slopes of the gleaming sand dunes in White Sulphur Springs, Mo.

Changed His Mind
A famous British surgeon once found a slowly-dying girl reading a newspaper serial in which the heroine suffers from the same disease she had. He hurried to the author and asked her to alter the ending so that the heroine lives. The author willingly agreed to change his story, and the serial's heroine and patient both lived. That is only one example of the power of suggestion. Some doctors believe that suggestion is the cause of many human ailments. A patient believes himself to be ill, and makes himself ill simply by worrying. Many people believe that ozone prevents sleep, due to the presence of a drug named caffeine. Doctors at a London hospital decided to find out how much sleep was prevented by the drug and how much by suggestion. A selected group of patients were given coffee one night, and the next night, at the same hour, they were given milk. All the patients reported that they went to sleep quicker and slept more soundly on the second night. They were never told that the milk had been mixed with three times as much caffeine as was in the coffee.

Humility For Mahatma
Socialist Leader Clement Attlee removes his hat and shoes in reverence before laying a wreath on the tomb of Mahatma Gandhi in New Delhi, Attlee was en route to the Asian Socialist Conference at Rangoon.

British Bobby - There aren't enough of them because there isn't enough housing.

British Bobby - There aren't enough of them because there isn't enough housing.

British Bobby - There aren't enough of them because there isn't enough housing.

Lack of Nails, Lumber, Boats Hits Crime

By TOM A. CULLEN
NEA Special Correspondent
London-(NEA)—Largely for want of some nails—and some lumber to put between them—Britain is slowly losing her battle against lawlessness. A shortage of nails, lumber and other building materials has led to an acute lack of housing. Experts claim the housing problem is a big factor in England's growing crime rate. "I can't get enough men," he complains. "Indeed, I even lose a lot of men I already have. All because there are no homes for themselves and their families."

Changed His Mind
A famous British surgeon once found a slowly-dying girl reading a newspaper serial in which the heroine suffers from the same disease she had. He hurried to the author and asked her to alter the ending so that the heroine lives. The author willingly agreed to change his story, and the serial's heroine and patient both lived. That is only one example of the power of suggestion. Some doctors believe that suggestion is the cause of many human ailments. A patient believes himself to be ill, and makes himself ill simply by worrying. Many people believe that ozone prevents sleep, due to the presence of a drug named caffeine. Doctors at a London hospital decided to find out how much sleep was prevented by the drug and how much by suggestion. A selected group of patients were given coffee one night, and the next night, at the same hour, they were given milk. All the patients reported that they went to sleep quicker and slept more soundly on the second night. They were never told that the milk had been mixed with three times as much caffeine as was in the coffee.

Humility For Mahatma
Socialist Leader Clement Attlee removes his hat and shoes in reverence before laying a wreath on the tomb of Mahatma Gandhi in New Delhi, Attlee was en route to the Asian Socialist Conference at Rangoon.

British Bobby - There aren't enough of them because there isn't enough housing.

British Bobby - There aren't enough of them because there isn't enough housing.

British Bobby - There aren't enough of them because there isn't enough housing.

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

ACROSS
1. Unit of weight
2. Name of a bird
3. Not so much
4. Name of a city
5. Name of a river
6. Name of a flower
7. Name of a fruit
8. Name of a vegetable
9. Name of a mineral
10. Name of a metal
11. Name of a planet
12. Name of a constellation
13. Name of a zodiac sign
14. Name of a month
15. Name of a season
16. Name of a holiday
17. Name of a festival
18. Name of a game
19. Name of a sport
20. Name of a profession
21. Name of a trade
22. Name of an occupation
23. Name of a craft
24. Name of a skill
25. Name of a hobby
26. Name of a pastime
27. Name of a recreation
28. Name of an amusement
29. Name of an entertainment
30. Name of a diversion
31. Name of a pastime
32. Name of a recreation
33. Name of an amusement
34. Name of an entertainment
35. Name of a diversion

DOWN
1. Name of a city
2. Name of a river
3. Name of a flower
4. Name of a fruit
5. Name of a vegetable
6. Name of a mineral
7. Name of a metal
8. Name of a planet
9. Name of a constellation
10. Name of a zodiac sign
11. Name of a month
12. Name of a season
13. Name of a holiday
14. Name of a festival
15. Name of a game
16. Name of a sport
17. Name of a profession
18. Name of a trade
19. Name of an occupation
20. Name of a craft
21. Name of a skill
22. Name of a hobby
23. Name of a pastime
24. Name of a recreation
25. Name of an amusement
26. Name of an entertainment
27. Name of a diversion
28. Name of a pastime
29. Name of a recreation
30. Name of an amusement
31. Name of an entertainment
32. Name of a diversion
33. Name of a pastime
34. Name of a recreation
35. Name of an amusement

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page

Wants To Take Your Birthday Away

By Arthur Pointer
Is your birthday on March 31st, May 31st, August 31st, or December 31st? If so, Elizabeth Achelis wants to take it away. She is the founder of the World Calendar Association of New York, which believes that its new calendar will come into operation on New Year's Day, 1971, by order of the United Nations. And if it does, four birthdays will disappear. For years industries and governments have been worried about our calendar, with its red-letters days falling on a different day of the week every day. It has meant that some workers have fifty-one pay days, and in others fifty-three. The Inland Revenue, the railways, the Board of Trade, and similar organizations dealing with figures of daily trade, find their annual statistics sea-sawing because the number of Saturdays and Sundays varies from year to year. The new calendar would bring order out of chaos. Every year would start on a Sunday and end on a Saturday, as would each quarter. In each quarter the first month would consist of 31 days, and the other two of 30 each. This system leaves year rather

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page

Bringin' Up Bridget

Buffalo Zoo attendants brought out a black and white giraffe on her feet after finding the full-grown giraffe sprawled on her cage floor morning. Curator Joseph Abbott, at right, makes a final adjustment of the rope. Due to their bone structure, giraffes are unable to rise.

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page

JITTER

WHEN YOU FEEL YOURSELF GETTING NERVOUS, TRY THESE TIPS TO RELAX:
1. Take deep breaths.
2. Count to ten.
3. Think of something pleasant.
4. Listen to soft music.
5. Drink a glass of water.
6. Go for a walk.
7. Talk to a friend.
8. Do some light exercise.
9. Avoid caffeine and alcohol.
10. Get enough sleep.

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Rev. R. Barclay Warren, D.D.
Gaining or Losing the Kingdom
Matthew 21:33-43
Memory Selection: Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom. Luke 12:32
The kingdom of God has been described as the "reign" of God, "the kingdom of right relationship," and "the regime in which love reigns." Jesus teaches about the kingdom almost wholly in pictures. There are three pictures in today's lesson though only one is in the printed portion. It is the old story of a vineyard. The men to whom the vineyard had been let are indicated with some of greed at the time of harvest. The servants sent to receive the owner's portion are beaten, stoned or slain. Then comes the owner's son. Surely they will respect him. But no; recognizing that he is heir, they catch him, lead him out of the vineyard and slay him. They think they will have the inheritance. But the Owner has another thought. This wicked husband-and-son are slain and the vineyard is let to others. Jesus makes the application to the Jewish leaders. God's kingdom will be taken from the Gentiles, many of whom gladly received the message. They are gathering back to the land promised to their father Abraham. Some are turning to the Messiah. Israel is a tiny country, but none is so important. Watch for God's dealings with this people. Not all the Gentiles are receiving the kingdom. Many are sneering at God's commands and promises. Disaster will result. Do not deceive; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. The spirit shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap everlasting life. Gal. 6:7, 8.

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page

Answers elsewhere on this page