Worshiping Thought Tender Farewell To Minister

There were large congregations at both the morning and evening services at Knox Church on Sunday morning, July 22nd, when the Rev. W. H. Fuller was given a tender farewell to his ministerial duties. The congregation was composed of many of the most faithful members of the church, and the service was a most impressive one. The Rev. Mr. Fuller has been serving the church for many years, and his departure is a great loss to the community. The congregation was deeply moved by the service, and the Rev. Mr. Fuller was given a most fitting and tender farewell. The service was held at Knox Church, and the Rev. Mr. Fuller was accompanied by his family. Complete Hall Foundation; Canvassers Making Rounds

The building committee for the new Community Hall reports that the foundation has been poured and a few days is being allowed to lapse in order to give the foundation time to properly set before proceeding with the building. The committee will leave the church at 2:00 P.M. for Norfolk County Park on Friday, August 6th. The canvass will be completed within two weeks, according to the plans of the finance committee.

Will Reclaim British Market Says Charlton

The Progressive Conservative Party is pledged to take immediate steps to restore and expand world markets for Agriculture and other primary products of the Dominion, the P.C. candidate for the Brantford riding, when addressing the annual meeting of the Progressive Conservative Association, on Monday night. "Our program will include bold and constructive steps to break the dollar-strait-jacket and regain our vital British and Commonwealth markets," said Mr. Charlton.
