Pen, Scissors and Paste Pot

Our readers are apt to get a fairly decent paper this week, inasmuch as the editor is out of town for a few days. We hope, therefore, there will be no objection to just using the scissors this week and giving you the following gem, for which we take no credit whatsoever:

Pen, Scissors and Paste Pot... He learns that most of the other fellows are as ambitious as he is, that they have brains as good or better, and that hard work, not cleverness is the secret of success. He learns to sympathize with the youngster coming into the business because he remembers how he himself was when he first started out.

Our Queen is Crowned

The day on which our beloved Queen Elizabeth II is to be crowned should be one of great rejoicing for all her loyal subjects. On this June 2nd, 1953, we should feel particularly proud of the privilege of living under such a gracious Sovereign and of belonging to this great and unique family of nations, The British Commonwealth.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Leslie M. Frost, Prime Minister of Ontario.
