"I think every widow should know about Debentures"

"Most widows are looking for a safe, short term investment that pays good interest. I found I could buy debentures for as little as $100.00 for terms of 1 to 5 years. For a 5-year term, debentures pay me 4 1/2% interest which is automatically deposited into my Huron & Erie savings account."

CARD OF THANKS

To those who sent me cards, letters and other good wishes while confined in Hospital, I extend my heartfelt appreciation. Also to the staff and Nurses of St. Joseph's Hospital, Toronto for their many acts of kindness. — Herbert Copeland

BIRTH

MITCHELL—To Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mitchell, of Jarvis, on Sunday, October 23rd, 1955, a son (Dennis John) at Beckwith Private Hospital, Hagersville.

Hagersville High School Notes

— By Kathryn Vokes —
 Our Halloween Party succeeded in drawing a large crowd on Friday night and this coupled with the capable leadership of Barb Abbott and Bob Henderson in conducting games and dancing proved to be the essential of a successful party. Miss Milred Krouse and Keith Nauman did swell jobs on the decorations and refreshments respectively. Mrs. Huthorne who kindly consented to be the judge, chose the following as the winners of the prizes: Best Comic Boy and Girl, Jimmy Parkinson, Sylvia Stallwood; Best Representative, Boy and Girl, G. Vaughn, Louise Corman; Best Couple, Joan Yager and Myrl Wagar. Make an effort. Apply the Jarvis record, phone 37, Jarvis, Ont.

Our girls again defeated the Caledonia team in a Volleyball game last Thursday with a score of 40 to 23. There seemed to be some sort of "bug" among them that encouraged them to attain such a high score. Anyway their coach and P.T. teacher is proud of them and justifiably so.

There was some unusual excitement in school Monday morning which resulted in everyone looking for a look in the mirror. The cause was Mr. Dick, the photographer from Brantford, who was taking individual pictures in gym of all the students. After all those last minute peaks, there ought to be some good pictures to present Mom and Dad with soon.

Elections for the Girls' Athletic Committee last week resulted in the following people being chosen: President, Barb Abbott; Vice President, Alice Hill and Janet Macpherson; Secretary, Shirley Hill; Treasurer, Shirley Hill; Class Representatives were also chosen as follows: Grade 12, Arlene Hill, Joyce Hoover, Grade 11, Bob Abbott and Alice Hill; Grade 10, Janet Macpherson and Carol Hill; Grade 9, Betty Ann Burt; Grade 8, Mary Smith; Grade 7, Edna Prohman.

After much discussion the school also chose their Athletic Society as follows: President, Keith Nauman; Secretary, Ralph Evans; Treasurer, Grade 13 Representative, Michael 11, Don Hill; Grade 12, Ed Hill; Grade 11, Don Hill; Grade 10, Ed Hill; Grade 9, Bob Gibson; Grade 8, Bob Gibson.

The Past Noble Grands Club had a surprise visit last Wednesday evening for the grand bowl led by Alex 80th birthday. Cards were played during the evening, then Sister Flora Dorey, President, read a letter of appreciation and best wishes to the club. President, Sister Nellie Stallwood presented Sister Mary with a lovely Rebekeah pin as a token of esteem. Noble Grand Sister Gertrude Smith on behalf of the Rebekeah Lodge presented her with a beautiful red rose. Sister Martha thanked us all for the thoughtful gifts of paying tribute to her birthday and for the gifts. A delightful lunch was served.

HOWLS FROM THE CUBLETS

The regular meeting of the Jarvis Pack was held in the Lair of the Town Hall. Fifteen Cubs were present for the grand bowl led by Alex 80th birthday. Cards were played during the evening, then Sister Flora Dorey, President, read a letter of appreciation and best wishes to the club. President, Sister Nellie Stallwood presented Sister Mary with a lovely Rebekeah pin as a token of esteem. Noble Grand Sister Gertrude Smith on behalf of the Rebekeah Lodge presented her with a beautiful red rose. Sister Martha thanked us all for the thoughtful gifts of paying tribute to her birthday and for the gifts. A delightful lunch was served.

Cuba Attention! Cubs will attend their respective Churches in uniform, and immediately after High School, all Cubs will assemble at the Town Hall, Jarvis, at 7:30 P.M. to form up for the Parade to the Cemetery, to make an act of Remembrance.

It is reported that the annual Scouters Banquet for Scout Master Assistants, Aides and Associates, and every member of the Group Council will be held at the Masonic Hall, Hagersville, on Monday, November 14th, at 7:00 P.M.

Childish Contests
 Contests between a small group of Alberts mayors determining a winner in events ranging from seat-cutting to leading a pigskin, have reached a point causing irritation to thousands of civic-minded Alberts.
