

ANNE HIRST Your Family Counselor

"Dear Anne Hirst: My mother says I'm going to pieces living like this. My husband and I are in our teens. We have a young baby and, since we married two years ago, we've lived with his parents. I didn't mind at first, but now I don't want to live with them. I don't want to get out on my own, but I don't want to live with them. I don't want to get out on my own, but I don't want to live with them. I don't want to get out on my own, but I don't want to live with them."

"He is an only child, and has a high temper; he thinks he should have everything he wants, any way he can get it. We fight all the time — about his family (they all drink constantly) and about money. He spends money like a madman, and for bills and food; when I need clothes he says go and buy them, but he doesn't say with what."

"He goes where he pleases with men friends (single ones, at that) and leaves me at home. He made me give up all my friends, and won't have anything to do with my family. I have to visit my mother when he isn't home; he thinks she should take care of our little girl — and most by she does."

"I think if we moved out, he

TV Slippers - Jiffy

666

by Laura Wheeler

Just two main pattern pieces to cut out, stitch up — whip up a pair of toe-toasters in an evening! Use quilted scraps — bind with colorful cotton, velvet, wool.

Pattern 666: pattern pieces for Size Small, Medium, Large, Extra Large included.

Send THIRTY-FIVE CENTS in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern to Box 1, 123 Eighteenth St., New Toronto, Ont. Print plainly PAT-TER-NUMBER, your NAME and ADDRESS.

EXCITING VALUE! Ten, yes, TEN popular, new designs to print right in the Laura Wheeler Needlecraft Book. Plus many more patterns to send for — ideas for gifts, bazaar money-makers, fashions! Send 25 cents for your copy!

Bachelor-to-husband is an abrupt and frightening change. But when a young man becomes a husband and a father, grows mature deliberately to deserve titles. . . . For years, Anne Hirst has succeeded in helping young couples toward harmonious living. Write her at Box 1, 123 Eighteenth St., New Toronto, Ont.

4728

by Anne Hirst

Easy! Diagram proves how swiftly you can whip up this smart slim skirt. THIRTY: One yard 54-inch fabric for Misses' Waist Sizes 24, 25, 26, 28, 30. Have one in basic black or brown wool with white sweaters and blouse! Make another to match a bright wool jersey blouse — you have the newest fashion — coordinated separates. Send for Pattern 4728!

This pattern easy to use, simple to sew, is tested for fit. Has complete illustrated instructions. Send THIRTY-FIVE CENTS (35¢) in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern. Print plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER.

Send order to Box 1, 123 Eighteenth St., New Toronto, Ont.

Joyful Treeful — Children and Christmas toys are pretty much the same in Berlin, Germany, as in Canada. And the goodies are just as good, this German youngster proves, when the complex sweets under a tree in a department store exhibit.

would change. My mother doesn't agree; she says he will keep on hurting me because he thinks he can get away with it. She says I should leave him. But we do love each other. Anne Hirst, and we love our child. What shall I do? I am —

VERY MUCH CONFUSED"

"I suggest you and the baby go to your mother for a while. I fear that nothing but your absence can awaken your husband to the truth — that he has a family now, and that he wants to keep with them. He will have to be a man and not a playboy."

"Marriage does not mean merely the possession of a wife and a child. It means taking on responsibilities that change a young man's purpose in life. He is no longer a free agent; he is the head of a family who depend upon him not only for security, but for love and kindness and unfailing loyalty. The freedom and adventure of his bachelor days are past; for them he must substitute a husband's protective concern for his wife's welfare and contentment, and a parent's guidance and constructive planning for his child's future."

"All this will be news to this husband of yours. He has some hard and painful thinking to do, which is not going to be easy for one of his nature. Whether he can do it at all depends upon his admission that his marriage is at stake. Perhaps beneath his light-hearted approach to life there lies the moral argument that he needs."

"The time for strength has passed. Action is the only course that will impress him. I think you should take it, temporarily, and let him find out what his marriage really means to him. After all, he does love you. How much, he will have his chance to prove."

"Dear Anne Hirst: My wife and I have been married for five years. Last year I married a man I thought was wonderful — and in a few months' time I learned he was only after my money."

"I have at last got rid of him — and saved part of my inheritance. It is better to stay lonely than to be betrayed as I was."

LEARNED LATE"

Newspapers brim with tales of impetuous youths who defraud trusting women. They find out what a woman is worth, and persuade her to let them invest her money. If she refuses, they will marry her.

It is not easy for a lonely woman to doubt an attentive and charming man; they are so grateful to have someone looking after them. Too late they learn they have been robbed. How lucky you are to have saved part of your income, at least. . . . Thank you for your warning."

4728

by Anne Hirst

Easy! Diagram proves how swiftly you can whip up this smart slim skirt. THIRTY: One yard 54-inch fabric for Misses' Waist Sizes 24, 25, 26, 28, 30. Have one in basic black or brown wool with white sweaters and blouse! Make another to match a bright wool jersey blouse — you have the newest fashion — coordinated separates. Send for Pattern 4728!

This pattern easy to use, simple to sew, is tested for fit. Has complete illustrated instructions. Send THIRTY-FIVE CENTS (35¢) in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern. Print plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER.

Send order to Box 1, 123 Eighteenth St., New Toronto, Ont.

Joyful Treeful — Children and Christmas toys are pretty much the same in Berlin, Germany, as in Canada. And the goodies are just as good, this German youngster proves, when the complex sweets under a tree in a department store exhibit.

Switch To Witch — It takes an hour to transform blonde Claramae Turner into a witch. Claramae must make the switch for every performance of the New York City Opera production of "Hansel and Gretel."

CHRONICLES OF GINGER FARM

by Gwendolyn D. Clarke

Now, at long last, it can be told! As of October 23, 1953, Partner and I became grandparents. Daughter being the mother of a baby boy. His name is David John. Among them all there was one that I would call pretty — and that wasn't our grandson!

The hospital was terribly busy and short of help, which meant that I had to wait 45 minutes past the regular visiting hours before mother and son were discharged from the hospital yesterday — so now a new era in family life begins for us all.

Previous to his birth there was the usual speculation as to the baby's sex. Des and I both wanted a son so much that everything was certain it would be a daughter. But Partner, if you please, was hoping it would be a little girl!

However, you know how it is, boy or girl, it doesn't really matter just so long as the mother and baby are all right. David weighed 7 pounds at birth and was in the body and not overly fat but that I imagine will soon be remedied if he gets along as well as most other babies do these days.

Of course, I had to pay a visit to the hospital as soon as it was permitted and I was allowed to see our grandson through the

Well, to get in my two-hour visit at the hospital I had to catch an 8 o'clock train in the morning, returning 6:40 at night, so I put in that day out, always on ping, telephoning, riding on streetcars and roaming around in the Reference Library, which I had never visited before. I came away green with envy for the opportunities my city friends have that are not available to me. What I like is the number of people who could visit such places as the Library, the Museum, the Archives, just don't bother to go at all.

However, not all the interesting places are in the city. Friday Partner and I were near Hespeler, visiting at a farm. While the men were discussing cattle, crops and the woolen mills and blanket factory, I took five pounds of old woolens along with me, paid $4.00 in cash and received in exchange a full-size wool blanket. Maybe not in the same class as one particular make of satin-bound blanket, very popular as a wedding gift, but a very nice blanket just the same. I also had the satisfaction of knowing material being utilized that would otherwise have gone into the rag fortune to get a lot of moths in

4728

by Anne Hirst

Easy! Diagram proves how swiftly you can whip up this smart slim skirt. THIRTY: One yard 54-inch fabric for Misses' Waist Sizes 24, 25, 26, 28, 30. Have one in basic black or brown wool with white sweaters and blouse! Make another to match a bright wool jersey blouse — you have the newest fashion — coordinated separates. Send for Pattern 4728!

This pattern easy to use, simple to sew, is tested for fit. Has complete illustrated instructions. Send THIRTY-FIVE CENTS (35¢) in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern. Print plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER.

Send order to Box 1, 123 Eighteenth St., New Toronto, Ont.

Joyful Treeful — Children and Christmas toys are pretty much the same in Berlin, Germany, as in Canada. And the goodies are just as good, this German youngster proves, when the complex sweets under a tree in a department store exhibit.

Switch To Witch — It takes an hour to transform blonde Claramae Turner into a witch. Claramae must make the switch for every performance of the New York City Opera production of "Hansel and Gretel."

CHRONICLES OF GINGER FARM

by Gwendolyn D. Clarke

Now, at long last, it can be told! As of October 23, 1953, Partner and I became grandparents. Daughter being the mother of a baby boy. His name is David John. Among them all there was one that I would call pretty — and that wasn't our grandson!

The hospital was terribly busy and short of help, which meant that I had to wait 45 minutes past the regular visiting hours before mother and son were discharged from the hospital yesterday — so now a new era in family life begins for us all.

Previous to his birth there was the usual speculation as to the baby's sex. Des and I both wanted a son so much that everything was certain it would be a daughter. But Partner, if you please, was hoping it would be a little girl!

However, you know how it is, boy or girl, it doesn't really matter just so long as the mother and baby are all right. David weighed 7 pounds at birth and was in the body and not overly fat but that I imagine will soon be remedied if he gets along as well as most other babies do these days.

Of course, I had to pay a visit to the hospital as soon as it was permitted and I was allowed to see our grandson through the

Well, to get in my two-hour visit at the hospital I had to catch an 8 o'clock train in the morning, returning 6:40 at night, so I put in that day out, always on ping, telephoning, riding on streetcars and roaming around in the Reference Library, which I had never visited before. I came away green with envy for the opportunities my city friends have that are not available to me. What I like is the number of people who could visit such places as the Library, the Museum, the Archives, just don't bother to go at all.

However, not all the interesting places are in the city. Friday Partner and I were near Hespeler, visiting at a farm. While the men were discussing cattle, crops and the woolen mills and blanket factory, I took five pounds of old woolens along with me, paid $4.00 in cash and received in exchange a full-size wool blanket. Maybe not in the same class as one particular make of satin-bound blanket, very popular as a wedding gift, but a very nice blanket just the same. I also had the satisfaction of knowing material being utilized that would otherwise have gone into the rag fortune to get a lot of moths in

4728

by Anne Hirst

Easy! Diagram proves how swiftly you can whip up this smart slim skirt. THIRTY: One yard 54-inch fabric for Misses' Waist Sizes 24, 25, 26, 28, 30. Have one in basic black or brown wool with white sweaters and blouse! Make another to match a bright wool jersey blouse — you have the newest fashion — coordinated separates. Send for Pattern 4728!

This pattern easy to use, simple to sew, is tested for fit. Has complete illustrated instructions. Send THIRTY-FIVE CENTS (35¢) in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern. Print plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER.

Send order to Box 1, 123 Eighteenth St., New Toronto, Ont.

Joyful Treeful — Children and Christmas toys are pretty much the same in Berlin, Germany, as in Canada. And the goodies are just as good, this German youngster proves, when the complex sweets under a tree in a department store exhibit.

Switch To Witch — It takes an hour to transform blonde Claramae Turner into a witch. Claramae must make the switch for every performance of the New York City Opera production of "Hansel and Gretel."

CHRONICLES OF GINGER FARM

by Gwendolyn D. Clarke

Now, at long last, it can be told! As of October 23, 1953, Partner and I became grandparents. Daughter being the mother of a baby boy. His name is David John. Among them all there was one that I would call pretty — and that wasn't our grandson!

The hospital was terribly busy and short of help, which meant that I had to wait 45 minutes past the regular visiting hours before mother and son were discharged from the hospital yesterday — so now a new era in family life begins for us all.

Previous to his birth there was the usual speculation as to the baby's sex. Des and I both wanted a son so much that everything was certain it would be a daughter. But Partner, if you please, was hoping it would be a little girl!

However, you know how it is, boy or girl, it doesn't really matter just so long as the mother and baby are all right. David weighed 7 pounds at birth and was in the body and not overly fat but that I imagine will soon be remedied if he gets along as well as most other babies do these days.

Of course, I had to pay a visit to the hospital as soon as it was permitted and I was allowed to see our grandson through the

Well, to get in my two-hour visit at the hospital I had to catch an 8 o'clock train in the morning, returning 6:40 at night, so I put in that day out, always on ping, telephoning, riding on streetcars and roaming around in the Reference Library, which I had never visited before. I came away green with envy for the opportunities my city friends have that are not available to me. What I like is the number of people who could visit such places as the Library, the Museum, the Archives, just don't bother to go at all.

However, not all the interesting places are in the city. Friday Partner and I were near Hespeler, visiting at a farm. While the men were discussing cattle, crops and the woolen mills and blanket factory, I took five pounds of old woolens along with me, paid $4.00 in cash and received in exchange a full-size wool blanket. Maybe not in the same class as one particular make of satin-bound blanket, very popular as a wedding gift, but a very nice blanket just the same. I also had the satisfaction of knowing material being utilized that would otherwise have gone into the rag fortune to get a lot of moths in

4728

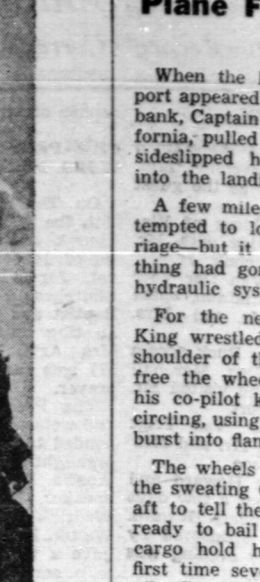

by Anne Hirst

Easy! Diagram proves how swiftly you can whip up this smart slim skirt. THIRTY: One yard 54-inch fabric for Misses' Waist Sizes 24, 25, 26, 28, 30. Have one in basic black or brown wool with white sweaters and blouse! Make another to match a bright wool jersey blouse — you have the newest fashion — coordinated separates. Send for Pattern 4728!

This pattern easy to use, simple to sew, is tested for fit. Has complete illustrated instructions. Send THIRTY-FIVE CENTS (35¢) in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern. Print plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER.

Send order to Box 1, 123 Eighteenth St., New Toronto, Ont.

Joyful Treeful — Children and Christmas toys are pretty much the same in Berlin, Germany, as in Canada. And the goodies are just as good, this German youngster proves, when the complex sweets under a tree in a department store exhibit.

Switch To Witch — It takes an hour to transform blonde Claramae Turner into a witch. Claramae must make the switch for every performance of the New York City Opera production of "Hansel and Gretel."

CHRONICLES OF GINGER FARM

by Gwendolyn D. Clarke

Now, at long last, it can be told! As of October 23, 1953, Partner and I became grandparents. Daughter being the mother of a baby boy. His name is David John. Among them all there was one that I would call pretty — and that wasn't our grandson!

The hospital was terribly busy and short of help, which meant that I had to wait 45 minutes past the regular visiting hours before mother and son were discharged from the hospital yesterday — so now a new era in family life begins for us all.

Previous to his birth there was the usual speculation as to the baby's sex. Des and I both wanted a son so much that everything was certain it would be a daughter. But Partner, if you please, was hoping it would be a little girl!

However, you know how it is, boy or girl, it doesn't really matter just so long as the mother and baby are all right. David weighed 7 pounds at birth and was in the body and not overly fat but that I imagine will soon be remedied if he gets along as well as most other babies do these days.

Of course, I had to pay a visit to the hospital as soon as it was permitted and I was allowed to see our grandson through the

Well, to get in my two-hour visit at the hospital I had to catch an 8 o'clock train in the morning, returning 6:40 at night, so I put in that day out, always on ping, telephoning, riding on streetcars and roaming around in the Reference Library, which I had never visited before. I came away green with envy for the opportunities my city friends have that are not available to me. What I like is the number of people who could visit such places as the Library, the Museum, the Archives, just don't bother to go at all.

However, not all the interesting places are in the city. Friday Partner and I were near Hespeler, visiting at a farm. While the men were discussing cattle, crops and the woolen mills and blanket factory, I took five pounds of old woolens along with me, paid $4.00 in cash and received in exchange a full-size wool blanket. Maybe not in the same class as one particular make of satin-bound blanket, very popular as a wedding gift, but a very nice blanket just the same. I also had the satisfaction of knowing material being utilized that would otherwise have gone into the rag fortune to get a lot of moths in

4728

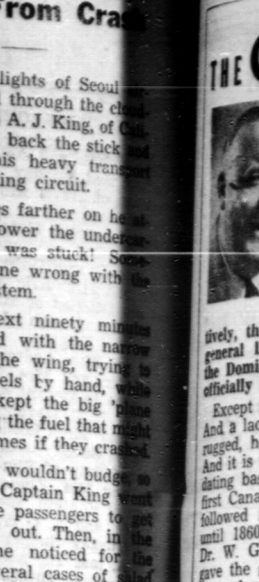

by Anne Hirst

Easy! Diagram proves how swiftly you can whip up this smart slim skirt. THIRTY: One yard 54-inch fabric for Misses' Waist Sizes 24, 25, 26, 28, 30. Have one in basic black or brown wool with white sweaters and blouse! Make another to match a bright wool jersey blouse — you have the newest fashion — coordinated separates. Send for Pattern 4728!

This pattern easy to use, simple to sew, is tested for fit. Has complete illustrated instructions. Send THIRTY-FIVE CENTS (35¢) in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern. Print plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER.

Send order to Box 1, 123 Eighteenth St., New Toronto, Ont.

Joyful Treeful — Children and Christmas toys are pretty much the same in Berlin, Germany, as in Canada. And the goodies are just as good, this German youngster proves, when the complex sweets under a tree in a department store exhibit.

Switch To Witch — It takes an hour to transform blonde Claramae Turner into a witch. Claramae must make the switch for every performance of the New York City Opera production of "Hansel and Gretel."

CHRONICLES OF GINGER FARM

by Gwendolyn D. Clarke

Now, at long last, it can be told! As of October 23, 1953, Partner and I became grandparents. Daughter being the mother of a baby boy. His name is David John. Among them all there was one that I would call pretty — and that wasn't our grandson!

The hospital was terribly busy and short of help, which meant that I had to wait 45 minutes past the regular visiting hours before mother and son were discharged from the hospital yesterday — so now a new era in family life begins for us all.

Previous to his birth there was the usual speculation as to the baby's sex. Des and I both wanted a son so much that everything was certain it would be a daughter. But Partner, if you please, was hoping it would be a little girl!

However, you know how it is, boy or girl, it doesn't really matter just so long as the mother and baby are all right. David weighed 7 pounds at birth and was in the body and not overly fat but that I imagine will soon be remedied if he gets along as well as most other babies do these days.

Of course, I had to pay a visit to the hospital as soon as it was permitted and I was allowed to see our grandson through the

Well, to get in my two-hour visit at the hospital I had to catch an 8 o'clock train in the morning, returning 6:40 at night, so I put in that day out, always on ping, telephoning, riding on streetcars and roaming around in the Reference Library, which I had never visited before. I came away green with envy for the opportunities my city friends have that are not available to me. What I like is the number of people who could visit such places as the Library, the Museum, the Archives, just don't bother to go at all.

However, not all the interesting places are in the city. Friday Partner and I were near Hespeler, visiting at a farm. While the men were discussing cattle, crops and the woolen mills and blanket factory, I took five pounds of old woolens along with me, paid $4.00 in cash and received in exchange a full-size wool blanket. Maybe not in the same class as one particular make of satin-bound blanket, very popular as a wedding gift, but a very nice blanket just the same. I also had the satisfaction of knowing material being utilized that would otherwise have gone into the rag fortune to get a lot of moths in

4728

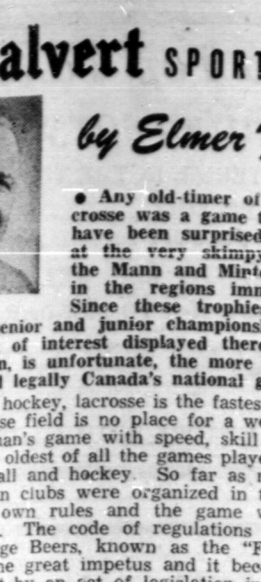

by Anne Hirst

Easy! Diagram proves how swiftly you can whip up this smart slim skirt. THIRTY: One yard 54-inch fabric for Misses' Waist Sizes 24, 25, 26, 28, 30. Have one in basic black or brown wool with white sweaters and blouse! Make another to match a bright wool jersey blouse — you have the newest fashion — coordinated separates. Send for Pattern 4728!

This pattern easy to use, simple to sew, is tested for fit. Has complete illustrated instructions. Send THIRTY-FIVE CENTS (35¢) in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern. Print plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER.

Send order to Box 1, 123 Eighteenth St., New Toronto, Ont.

Joyful Treeful — Children and Christmas toys are pretty much the same in Berlin, Germany, as in Canada. And the goodies are just as good, this German youngster proves, when the complex sweets under a tree in a department store exhibit.

Switch To Witch — It takes an hour to transform blonde Claramae Turner into a witch. Claramae must make the switch for every performance of the New York City Opera production of "Hansel and Gretel."

CHRONICLES OF GINGER FARM

by Gwendolyn D. Clarke

Now, at long last, it can be told! As of October 23, 1953, Partner and I became grandparents. Daughter being the mother of a baby boy. His name is David John. Among them all there was one that I would call pretty — and that wasn't our grandson!

The hospital was terribly busy and short of help, which meant that I had to wait 45 minutes past the regular visiting hours before mother and son were discharged from the hospital yesterday — so now a new era in family life begins for us all.

Previous to his birth there was the usual speculation as to the baby's sex. Des and I both wanted a son so much that everything was certain it would be a daughter. But Partner, if you please, was hoping it would be a little girl!

However, you know how it is, boy or girl, it doesn't really matter just so long as the mother and baby are all right. David weighed 7 pounds at birth and was in the body and not overly fat but that I imagine will soon be remedied if he gets along as well as most other babies do these days.

Of course, I had to pay a visit to the hospital as soon as it was permitted and I was allowed to see our grandson through the

Well, to get in my two-hour visit at the hospital I had to catch an 8 o'clock train in the morning, returning 6:40 at night, so I put in that day out, always on ping, telephoning, riding on streetcars and roaming around in the Reference Library, which I had never visited before. I came away green with envy for the opportunities my city friends have that are not available to me. What I like is the number of people who could visit such places as the Library, the Museum, the Archives, just don't bother to go at all.

However, not all the interesting places are in the city. Friday Partner and I were near Hespeler, visiting at a farm. While the men were discussing cattle, crops and the woolen mills and blanket factory, I took five pounds of old woolens along with me, paid $4.00 in cash and received in exchange a full-size wool blanket. Maybe not in the same class as one particular make of satin-bound blanket, very popular as a wedding gift, but a very nice blanket just the same. I also had the satisfaction of knowing material being utilized that would otherwise have gone into the rag fortune to get a lot of moths in

4728

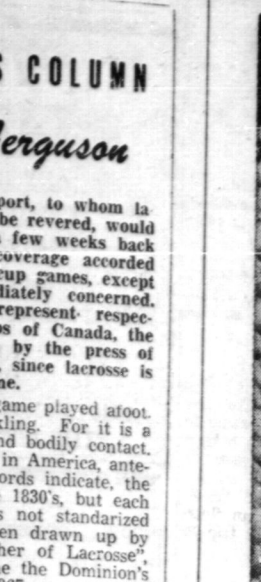

by Anne Hirst

Easy! Diagram proves how swiftly you can whip up this smart slim skirt. THIRTY: One yard 54-inch fabric for Misses' Waist Sizes 24, 25, 26, 28, 30. Have one in basic black or brown wool with white sweaters and blouse! Make another to match a bright wool jersey blouse — you have the newest fashion — coordinated separates. Send for Pattern 4728!

This pattern easy to use, simple to sew, is tested for fit. Has complete illustrated instructions. Send THIRTY-FIVE CENTS (35¢) in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern. Print plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER.

Send order to Box 1, 123 Eighteenth St., New Toronto, Ont.

Joyful Treeful — Children and Christmas toys are pretty much the same in Berlin, Germany, as in Canada. And the goodies are just as good, this German youngster proves, when the complex sweets under a tree in a department store exhibit.

Switch To Witch — It takes an hour to transform blonde Claramae Turner into a witch. Claramae must make the switch for every performance of the New York City Opera production of "Hansel and Gretel."

CHRONICLES OF GINGER FARM

by Gwendolyn D. Clarke

Now, at long last, it can be told! As of October 23, 1953, Partner and I became grandparents. Daughter being the mother of a baby boy. His name is David John. Among them all there was one that I would call pretty — and that wasn't our grandson!

The hospital was terribly busy and short of help, which meant that I had to wait 45 minutes past the regular visiting hours before mother and son were discharged from the hospital yesterday — so now a new era in family life begins for us all.

Previous to his birth there was the usual speculation as to the baby's sex. Des and I both wanted a son so much that everything was certain it would be a daughter. But Partner, if you please, was hoping it would be a little girl!

However, you know how it is, boy or girl, it doesn't really matter just so long as the mother and baby are all right. David weighed 7 pounds at birth and was in the body and not overly fat but that I imagine will soon be remedied if he gets along as well as most other babies do these days.

Of course, I had to pay a visit to the hospital as soon as it was permitted and I was allowed to see our grandson through the

Well, to get in my two-hour visit at the hospital I had to catch an 8 o'clock train in the morning, returning 6:40 at night, so I put in that day out, always on ping, telephoning, riding on streetcars and roaming around in the Reference Library, which I had never visited before. I came away green with envy for the opportunities my city friends have that are not available to me. What I like is the number of people who could visit such places as the Library, the Museum, the Archives, just don't bother to go at all.