

Pen, Scissors and Pastepot

It was the gathering of the clan in Hamilton last week-end for the people engaged in the Weekly News-per business. There were the usual business sessions rounded out with some excellent entertainment. It seems only a short time ago that we attended our first Weekly Newspaper convention but, in fact, it was almost twenty years ago. A lot can happen in twenty years. The complexion of affairs of this kind can change completely. The officers of the Association now were mostly teen-aged boys attending the convention with their parents twenty years ago. Now they have succeeded their fathers as editors of their home town papers and are carrying on the family tradition.

There were, however, some of the old-timers in our class on hand. And too, there were many familiar faces missing who have written 50 to a great profession. Strangely enough, the organization seems to be stronger than ever with the new generation at the helm.

We met for the first time the "Neighbourly News" announcer, Don Fairbourne. Don succeeded the late Andy Clarke who, we thought would never be satisfactorily replaced. Strangely enough, if our information is correct, Don has a higher listening rating than our old friend Andy. Meeting Don last week-end greatly strengthened our belief that this is a possibility. He is not only a handsome fellow but extremely likable. He reminded us of a feud we had with him several months back and one. We were greatly embarrassed to think we ever had said anything critical about this great friend of the weeklies. From now on we are going to tune in every Sunday morning over C.B.L. to hear what he has to say. If there are any of our readers who don't listen to "Neighbourly News" every Sunday morning at 10 A.M. we would recommend they do so.

Naticook missed out on another. All within a few miles of Jarvis. It is "most" getting to the point where a stranger might enquire of a sports organization "What Provincial Championship did you win this year?"

To get down to cases there is no reason why Simcoe and Jarvis should both have a Provincial Championship Ladies Softball Team. Jarvis just can't beat the Simcoe team any day of the week, yet the Simcoe Ladies have been crowned champions on a supposedly higher classification rating than the Jarvis Jill. We don't know who got softball in the mess it is in, although we do recall that O. King was President of the O.A.S.A. at one time. This must have happened at a later date.

Congratulations to the Jarvis Jill who, by virtue of their win over A.Y.T. on Monday night, can claim the Ontario Rural Ladies Softball Championship. Having performed this feat beyond question, they are worthy champions.

Despite the fact that we know the following observation will be in disagreement with the views of others we cannot help but state it. There are far too many championships at stake in the Provincial Sport field, especially baseball and softball. Del. claims a couple of Provincial championships this year. Simcoe has two or three. Garnet is aiming at with him several months back and one. Gore is aiming at one. Jarvis has one.
