GENEROUS ASSISTANTS
Almost 250 Menonites from the Enniskillen district arrived in the storm-stricken area near London to help farmers repair buildings damaged by the big storm last Friday. Four busloads of Menonites moved into the district after Tom Patrick, Progressive Conservative member of the legislature for Middlesex North, phoned Enniskillen and asked for assistance.

The Menonites, who do not ask to be repaid, promised to return each day until the work is finished. "We do this all the time," said one man. "Every year we have a barn-burning. Once when a barn was burned down 500 Menonites were there next morning to build a new one. We went into the bush and cut trees, took them to a mill and made lumber, and in two weeks we had built a big new barn again. We should always help one another like that."

Deputy County Treasurer Drops Auditing Posts

Deputy County Treasurer L. B. Holmes is resigning from several municipal auditing positions he has held over the past several years in the west part of Haldimand County. His resignation from these positions was made necessary with his acceptance of the position of Deputy County Treasurer.

As a municipal auditor his knowledge of the auditing process has been of great value to the various municipalities in the County. He has also acted as an auditor for the Township of Wainfleet, Ontario, and the Municipality of Jarvis, Ontario. He has also acted as an auditor for the various school boards in the County.

DAVE BANKS Reports On Convention

The Jarvis Lions Club listened to a comprehensive report by Lion Dave Banks at their initial fall meeting on Monday night at St. Paul's Church Parish Hall, where the members were served a delicious dinner by the Young Women's Club of the Church.

Lion Dave was the Jarvis Club delegate to the International Convention at Chicago last June and accompanied by his wife, made the journey to the second largest metropolis in the United States by automobile. His description of the experiences encountered during the week-long convention proved extremely interesting to the club members.

Like previous delegates he found difficulty in getting to the center of things but he had one advantage here in that he was the owner of a set of binoculars. This naturally enabled him to get better focus on the more important phases of the convention which, naturally, enabled him to give a better report. A vote of thanks was extended to Lion Dave by Lion Albert Pond.

Guests at the meeting which was presided over by Lion President Lloyd Holmes were Rev. R. Richardson, Kenneth Parkinson and Neale Hoover. A welcome was extended to these visitors.

The treasurer's report was given by Lion Joe Reynolds, in the absence of Lion Treasurer Stan Mitchell. Lion Dave Banks reported for the Health and Welfare Committee and presented a successful report on the concert held in the park during the summer months, as well as the Donkey Ball game.

This was the first meeting for the new officers for the 1953-54 season and the new fall roster. Lion Art Blight almost proved to the member ship his ability to protect the finances of the club by his report on the collection he made against that.

Lion George Walker moved a vote of thanks to the ladies responsible for the excellent dinner and his remarks were acknowledged by Mrs. Dave Banks.

Special congratulations were extended to Mrs. Norma Ridley, who received her Provincial Honor of the completion of 12 club units were: Lois Dugan and Molly Lucken of the Cayuga Club; Marilyn Culliver and Holly Stabler of the Koller Club; Ellen Doughty, Dorlene McKenzie and Marian Matlock of the Variety Club.
