ART AND CRAFT OF TAXATION

By Lewis Milligan

LISTENING to the news-cast from Ottawa about the Budget, the only item that struck me with surprise was the removal of the tax on fountain pens, including the ball-pointed.

Such was and is my ignorance about taxes. In detail, and I am not alone in my simplicity. Few people give any thought to taxes, except income tax and that only once a year.

Looking up an American authority on taxation, I learn that "Taxation is the usual means of providing the revenue of a government. An enforced levy to meet an emergency is distinguished from taxation, as not a permanent tax. This latter, however, is no longer true for many of the enforced war-time levies have automatically slid into our tax system long after the emergency has passed.

QUOTE FROM YESTERDAY
If all the world were playing holidays, To sport would be as tedious as to work.

HATS OFF TO JARVIS
(Editorial in Grand River Sachem, Caledonia)

WE FOLLOWED with interest the successful campaign in Jarvis to raise funds for a new Community Hall. The last figures we saw amounted to just under $2,000, which was within $10,000 of total cost including furnishings.

COMMUNITY CHEST
(Caledonia Sachem)

THIS IS THE TIME of year when there is great over-lapping of charitable appeals. The Red Cross, Crippled Children and Cancer Fund are all soliciting donations at this time.

There is no reason to believe that Caledonia is different than other municipalities. We strongly believe that if the Community Chest were introduced in Caledonia that much more money would be collected than is at present.

NO MORE ALARMS

By Lewis Milligan

WHEN THE OLD-FASHIONED battery-powered wooden telephones first went into Canadian farm homes, the rural fire alarm soon became almost as familiar as turning a crank to call the operator or the habit of "rubbering in."

The summons was generally an unusually long series of rings, perhaps eight "short" rings, repeated after a pause. This brought every subscriber within earshot running to the phone.

After that, practically every able-bodied man for miles around headed for the fire scene. Buckboards or Model T's loaded with buckets, shovels, bags of sand, and, if possible, some form of pump and hose, sped to the flaming house or barn.

Delegates to the annual meeting of the Oxford County Federation of Agriculture in Woodstock said operators on their up-to-date rural lines are forbidden to report any information about fires or to give any of the special rings that once electrified the countryside.

Calling All Poets

By Lewis Milligan

"Come one, Come All Come join our call In this corner write Your views, And Oh boy Oh, Will this make news!

THE STARS
The stars are a beautiful sight. When we look at them in the night. They look like they hang in the sky. Though we can't see any light.

THE NIGHT
We had our first ride on the new T.T.C. subway this week. We covered the entire route from Union Station to Reginton Avenue and return.

THE TEA PARTY
I had a little tea party. The following night at three. It was very small. Just three girls in all. Just I, myself, and me.

THE SPRING
Spring is here, winter's gone. Birds are singing on the lawn. Two-see-wee, merrily, Happy spring now are we. For spring is here once more.
