Sunday Sport Denounced By Knox Church Minister

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

Pressing on Sunday from the text "Stand ye in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls" (Jeremiah 6: 16) Rev. W. Gillespie, B. A., Minister of Knox and Chalmers Presbyterian Churches, said it was essential that people to-day travel the Old Path to the Sanctuary. Jerusalem had realized that it was neglecting the Sanctuary and had been travelling in paths that took them away from God. "That," said Mr. Gillespie, "is the besetting sin of our land and age."

He continued, "the pathway to the Sanctuary is not a well-trodden as the road to Port Dover in the summer time. I have become accustomed, as it turned out, to the sound of the radio, to hearing sporting events being broadcast on Sunday. From a radio station in the U.S.A. the other week I heard this rather startling announcement: 'For the convenience of our out-of-town customers, our store will be open all day Sunday!'

But I thought these were perhaps some of the symptoms of a general state of city life - religious indifference. However, I was soon to learn that this cancerous cure was being spread in regard for the law of God was not confined to the cities. On the occasion of a famous football game between Jarvis and Mount Hope, I send in the "Jarvis Record" that the O.S.A. had decided that should no result be reached in this game, then it was to be replayed at Port Dover on Sunday.

"Canada is the most wonderful country in the world," said a petitioner for Canadian citizenship recently at a Citizenship Court. Judged on materialistic basis, the statement could be quite true. But judged by the way in which the Lord's Day is observed, or rather not observed, neither Canada nor the U.S.A. can be called wonderful.

You cannot break the law of gravity. By stepping off a high building, you may defy the law of gravity, but you will find that it will break you. The nation or individual who defies the Fourth Commandment will find that it will break him. You cannot defy God and not suffer for it.

We are told that Jesus was found in His Father's House on the Sabbath Day. It was His custom. A custom that we have something to do regularly? Someone may say that it is only a habit, but at least he must admit that it is a good habit.

For our own good, for the good of our country, may be the prayer that for our feet are found regularly walking in the 'Old Path to the Sanctuary'.

Board Recommend Central Public School in North Area

Faced with the problem of inadequate accommodation for the pupils of the North Waipole School area, the Board has recommended that a new central school be built to replace the existing eight schools in the area. The Council of the Township of Waipole has been asked to add its approval to the plan which, if proceeding with in the near future, would make the new facilities available for use at the opening of the fall term in 1956. In the meantime crowded facilities in some of the existing schools could be alleviated by transporting pupils to other schools in the area. The Waipole Township Council will consider the recommendation of the North Waipole Area Board at their meeting tomorrow.

The Chairman of the Board, Mr. Willis Harrow, who has been a member of the Board since the area was established eight years ago, sees the building of a Central School as the only solution to the problem. The matter was brought to a head at the opening of the present term when the school was overcrowded with 254 children. Other members of the Board are Roy Martin, Henry Hessler, William Williamson, and Thos. Stark.

When preliminary plans were undertaken to replace this school, further investigation revealed that other schools in the area would require additional within a year or two in order to accommodate children ready to start by that time. The present eight schools are over-crowded. A survey of the area shows 232 children of pre-school age who will be starting to school within the next four to five years. Of the number now attending 152 are in grade 4 or under. This would indicate that the minimum school attendance within the next five years would increase to 284, which it would be impossible to accommodate in the present school buildings.

The Board first discussed the matter with the Council on November 17th when it was decided to visit the North Wasingham Area School at Langton. An inspection tour was arranged by the Board and last Saturday more than one hundred rate-payers in the area visited the Langton School. From all reports the visitors were impressed with what they saw.

Mr. Donald Young, Inspector of Public Schools in Hamilton County has made some unofficial estimates on costs which would indicate a rate-payers of the area. Basing the costs on $20,000 per classroom, which is the maximum on which grants can be secured, an eight room school would cost around $160,000. To order to handle defers for this amount, plus annual transportation costs of pupils, would add slightly more than five mills to the school rate. This would work out to less than Twenty-five dollars increase for the average farm.

Provided the Council indicates approval of the Board's recommendation, then the work of having plans prepared, a site located, and having the plan approved by the Minister of Education, will be undertaken. Only after these things are approved can the deputation be issued. Another factor that could cause a temporary delay is the fact that the present council will not be in office when the matter which it is brought to a head. The question is one that deserves the earnest consideration of the rate-payers of the area. It is a problem that will have to be met in some manner in the not-too-distant future.

W.I. Play Was Well Received

The Jarvis Women's Institute Play "The Goose Hangs High" was well received by large audiences last Thursday and Friday nights at the Jarvis Community Hall. The cast of fourteen creditably acquitted themselves in one of the most difficult dramatic presentations ever attempted by a local cast.

The theme of the story had to do with the problem of financing the higher education of a family of three children, the patriotic devotion of the mother and father; the conviction of others that the children were irresponsible and finally the children proving they were not entirely self-indulgent towards their parents.

Robert Lynch and Mary Marr, in the role of the parents, played their parts exceptionally well, and the children, played by Keith Lynch, Laurel Brown and Jack Cooke could not have done better. All other members of the cast were equally deserving of commendation for their efforts.

In appreciation of the work of Mrs. Evelyn Brown who directed the play, the cast presented her with a lovely bouquet. The performance was given on Friday night. The appreciation of the cast was expressed by the Jarvis Women's Institute. Many acts of consideration during the many practices held in preparation for the play.

The stage settings were done by Genevieve Lundy, Marjorie Mitchell and the Jarvis Women's Institute. Tickets on a quilt were sold on both nights of the play and the winning ticket was held by Mrs. Bruce Robinson. The C.G.I. girls also found a good sale for their home-made Christmas cards.

Others taking part in the play in addition to those mentioned above were: James Andrews, Leonard Church, Ethel Leathing, Margaret Andrew, Nellie Miller, Jack Marr, Lesley Hoover, Doris Miller and William Clark.

L. Mehlenbacher Contest Winner

L. E. Mehlenbacher, Cayuga, was the winner of the 60-bushel wheat contest sponsored by Maple Leaf Milling Co., the Ontario Soil and Crop Improvement Association and the Ontario Department of Agriculture at the Royal Winter Fair.

In this contest the three entries were the highest in yield and field score, from each of 18 counties, are eligible to compete for provincial championship. The contest is the first place in a class of 46 of these county winners.

Participating in this class on the basis of appearance, weight and milling quality. The winning entry was the contest consideration of the rate-payers of the area. It is a problem that will have to be met in some manner in the not-too-distant future.

Feels Love For Canada Reason For Citizenship

Judge Helen Kinnear, presiding over the Citizenship Court in Hamilton last Thursday, referred to the trials and tribulations of her own life as she examined petitioners for Canadian Naturalization. Addressing the petitioner she said:

"In this city one cannot help but be struck by the fact that so many applicants are Stateside comers from behind the Iron Curtain, and would be without a country if we did not allow them to become Canadians."

Her Honour felt that such applicants should be given the most sympathetic consideration and refused citizenship only on clear grounds. There are many reasons why applicants had come to Canada in preference to other fine countries. She recalled one petitioner giving her the perfect answer - "because Canada is the most wonderful country in the world."

"When applicants feel that way about Canada, we have nothing to fear about making them citizens of the land we love," she added.

Some 54 persons were presented with their citizenship certificates, and Her Honour urged them to take an interest in the affairs of their country and to exercise their rights to vote.

ties in the house. The cost of putting in a pressure system in the house is far compared with the return it will give you in relieving much of the drudgery. It should be an easy matter to fix up a sink and drain to further add to the comfort and enjoyment of the home.

If you intend using fertilizer on your spring grain during the next growing season you really should have your soil tested and this can be done over the winter season. Take your soil sample in the right way, before the last freeze-up and get it into the soil laboratory so that the staff can make the proper analysis and get the report back to you in plenty of time for you to order the fertilizer of the kind you need. Soil boxes and full instructions can be obtained from your agricultural representative.

BRIEF NOTES FOR THE BUSY FARMER

By Haldimand Harry — Suggested prices for grain have recently been set for the season of 1955. It may seem a bit early but in reality now is the time to make preparations for the next coming season. Seed supplies are likely to be limited. It is the duty of the unsatisfactory harvest conditions that prevailed in many parts of the province.

We are told that we have something to do regularly? Someone may say that it is only a habit, but at least he must admit that it is a good habit.

For our own good, for the good of our country, may be the prayer that for our feet are found regularly walking in the 'Old Path to the Sanctuary'.
