At Laymen's Spring Banquet

A record crowd attended the Spring meeting of the Haldimand Deanery Leyment's Association at the Jarvis Community Hail on Tuesday night. Arthur Roth, President of the Association, presided at the meeting and the speaker was W. B. C. Burgoyne, of St. Catharines. The St. Paul's Church Women's Club catered for the banquet under the convenorship of Mrs. Florence Miller.

The visiting Laymen were welcomed to Jarvis for the Spring Banquet by David Banks, Past President of the Association.

The attendance of 162, according to Secretary Harvey Bassindale, off Cheapside, was a record in the history of the 'Association with Calcionia having the largest representation with twenty-four. The Clersy too was well represented with the following being introduced by Rev. K. Richardson, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Jarvis: Archdeacon Blagrawe of Dunnville and Rectors Kiddell, off Caledonia, Manusell, of Hagersville, Mayes, of Cavuga and Jones of Port Maitland.

The speaker, W. B. C. Burgoyne is Publisher of the St. Catharines Standard, and President of Radio Station (L. X.T.B., St. Catharines Standard, and President of Radio Station (L.
