It's As I See It

John A. Charlton, M.P. for Brant-Haldimand

The Clerk of the Commons who is the third ranking member in precedence in our Civil Service, has one of the most important jobs in our parliamentary system; a two-fold job guiding and helping the Speaker through the intricacies of the House and keeping a complete record of transactions of the Parliament; on the other acting as the senior executive of a sizeable business operation which employs some 100 people and spends a good many million dollars a year.
Leon J. Raymond, the present Clerk of the Commons, is a man of great new member, for it is in his hands that one goes immediately to the sign the register of members. From that day on, every official action you make, introducing a bill, putting a question on the order paper, or a myriad other things, is noted down by him and entered in the record. He is the keeper of the House at a long table just below the speaker, where he keeps what is termed a scroll, on which is entered the business of the House as it is dealt with.

BROKEN HOME RESTORED; COUNTY SAVED $40,651.88

The case of nine year old Ramon S.

was brought to the Society's attention when the child collapsed in a country rural school in February of this year and was found to be ill, undernourished and infested with parasitic life.

Four smaller brothers and sisters shared the same plight it was discovered. Neither of the parents was employed and both spent long periods of time in the hospital. The children's father was a haphazardly looked for.

On entering the home with the sick child enough immediate evidence of neglect and danger to the five children was discovered to transfer to the care and custody of the Society.

However, after a year and a half of first hand acquaintance with the family, the parents proved amendable to direction and enlightenment and were slowly made aware of their responsibilities.

The plan for the worship service was Helen Janet Doughty. Crafts and tapes created the evening.

Miss Janet Crawford visited with relatives in London during the later part of last week.

The C.G.I.T. held their regular meeting on October 12th, 1954 at 7.00 P.M. in the Wesley United Sunday School Rooms. The meeting opened with games followed by the Secretary, J. J. Peresky, who read the minutes of the last meeting. The roll call was answered by twenty-four persons. We decided that we would change the time to 7.15 P.M. instead of 7.00 P.M.
