4-H CALF CLUBS MEET
 The September meeting of the Halldam Holstein and Mixed Dairy Calf Clubs was held on the farm of Ern Topp, Canfield, on September 14th at 8.00 P.M.
 Two classes of Holstein cattle were judged, a class of mature dry cows and a class of mature dry cows. H. Ivan Bell, assistant Agricultural Representative gave the official placing on both classes.
 A clipping demonstration was given by Ivan Lofthouse and Jack Lang. This enabled the new members to actually see which parts of the calf are clipped for the show. Following this Bill Oster demonstrated some points on showmanship.
 Pre-Achievement Day will be held on Saturday, September 25th and both clubs will show their calves at the Caledonia Fair on Friday, October 1st.
 The clubs separated for individual business meetings following which refreshments were served.

Monday night, September 20th, Jarvis moves forward toward the Provincial championship. Agincourt defeated tonight by a one run margin. They look like a strong squad. Can they be eliminated in two straight? Wednesday night will tell as the teams meet in Agincourt for the second game. Right now we're figuring how to get the results for this week's issue and at the same time get our regular eight hours sleep. Well, the choice will have to be made. We'll go without the sleep.

SANDUSKY W.I. SEPTEMBER MEETING
