Judge Kinnear Addresses New Canadian Citizens

Ed. Note - The foregoing is a text of the address given by Her Honour Judge Helen Kinnear to the New Canadian citizens receiving citizenship certificates at Hallidmand Court on Monday. It is reproduced herewith in full. "Ladies and gentlemen, citizenship certificates are being granted today to a large number of new citizens. I cannot help wondering if all our new citizens appreciate that the honour is not just something handed out for the asking. I cannot help wondering what proportion of our new citizens are going to give up something for nothing. It is a favorite question of mine to ask applicants why they choose to be Canadian and the replies are many and varied. Here are some of them. 'Because I can say what I think without having a policeman in my country you can never hope to get more than two or three acres'; 'Because Canada is a young country and I want to try my luck here'; 'Because you can travel all over this country without asking a policeman about our government and a duty is free to all'; 'Because all are treated alike in your courts'; 'Because you can go to Church here without being afraid and occasionally get a good sermon'; 'Because I would like to get the answer 'because you votes mean something here' or 'because you have free elections here'. Whatever the answer turns out to be, however poorly expressed, it is clear that each applicant wishes to become a Canadian because he or she thinks that Canada has something to offer him. That is quite true. We offer you security, free choice of employment, free education, the right to justice, freedom to worship as you please. Every office in the gift of the people is open to you. There is no honour that you may not aspire to and, if you have no desire to teach, officiate, or be a politician, you may still choose men or women to represent you who must come back to you to account for the way they have done. He who has extended all the privileges of citizenship to you today, privilege which means a great deal to us were born here, though we may have been brought here by ship. They are much about them. They are an outright gift to you as I have said. I ask that you do not look at the citizenship certificate which you have in your hands as a mere piece of paper. It is a certificate that you are a Canadian citizen and are entitled to all the rights, powers and privileges and duties which a natural born Canadian is entitled to. You are subject to all obligations, duties and liabilities which a natural born Canadian is subject to. You have entered into a contract with the people of Canada that you will assume the obligations, duties and liabilities which a natural born Canadian is subject to in return for all the benefits of citizenship. That is doubly pressed on you by the oath of allegiance which each of you took before you. The outstanding thing the oath asks clear is that as a nation we are one people. We are therefore required to take your oath in the most solemn way possible for us, by affirming the Bible in your hands and making your promises in open Court before God. What do you promise? First, you promised that you would be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, her heirs and successors according to law. Her Majesty is a symbol of us of everything that is good. She is Queen of Canada but she is more than that. This province in which you live was settled mainly by men and women from England and Ireland and Scotland. They came here because it was part of the British Empire and because they expected to find security there under the British flag. That flag is called the Union Jack because it was made by combining the flags of those three sovereign countries, England, Ireland and Scotland, each flag a religious symbol, a cross, the cross of St. George for England, the cross of St. Patrick for Ireland and the cross of St. Andrew for Scotland. In time, those countries became the centre of a great empire, the flag of the Empire was always the Union Jack. As Canada has developed, it has become completely independent as a nation but it still glories in its British connection and still begs to be called a British subject. The British flag, now called the Canadian flag, is a symbol of the British Commonwealth and Empire. I proudly claim that I have been a Canadian citizen for a long time. I was born in India and a young man and a young woman from India and a young woman from India and a young woman from India. I remember that you will all have a happy future in Canada, the land of our adoption. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bellock and Mrs. Edwin Johnston at York.

Father And Son Banquet

The Cub and Scouts of Jarvis took their fathers by the hand and led them to the Community Hall on Friday April 1st where their 1955 Father and Son Banquet was ready waiting for them. The Rev. K. W. Bruntson presided over a very enjoyable supper. The program following was opened by the Chairman Bob Lysch in introducing the members of the Group Committee and Cub and Scout Leaders. Scoutmaster Keith McDonald, first a word of thanks to the ladies who worked hard in preparing and serving the supper and then stressed the need of co-operation among the parents at home, also asked for assistance with the C-B Pack of Jarvis. The guest speaker, Mr. Gibson, Regional Commissioner of South Western Ontario, then gave a talk on Scouting and the 1955 World Jamboree which was enjoyed by all. Mr. Montague, President of the Jarvis Lions Club, who are the sponsors of the Scout Group in Jarvis, then stressed the success of the Pack and Troop under the able guidance of Scoutmaster McDonald, and the chance of becoming one, if not the best group in Southern Ontario. After a brief demonstration in the art of magic by S.M.K. McDonald and A.S.M. Ron Willis a very enjoyable film on the 1955 Jamboree was shown. The evening then was brought to a close by singing "God Save the Queen."

New Citizens Take Oath of Allegiance

The Oath of Allegiance was administered to 31 New Citizens at an impressive ceremony at County Court House in Ontario on Monday morning. The Court House was well filled with spectators including a large number of students. The oaths of renunciation and allegiance were administered by the Clerk of the Court, Judge Kinnear. Greeting certificates were also presented by representatives of "Daughters of the Empire" and the "C.B. Pack of Jarvis". Judge Kinnear's address to the new Canadians was most impressive and the full text is reproduced in another column. Immediately after Court opened Judge Kinnear presented a portrait of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, a Union Jack and Red Ensign to the County of Jarvis. He also presented a copy of the Oath of Allegiance to the County Council members present at the ceremony and the citizens of the County expressed his appreciation to Judge Kinnear for the fine gift. Judge Kinnear also took the opportunity of paying tribute to Crown Attorney Harrison Arrell, Q.C., on the Fortieth Anniversary of his appointment to that office. Her brothers, predeceased him, all of whom have resided in this district during their entire lives. On March 7th he and his wife, the former Edith Louisa McCarter, celebrated their twenty-sixth wedding anniversary. Gillespie, Rev. W. H. Hare of London and Rev. W. H. Fuller of Toronto. The Rev. W. H. Hare, Rev. W. H. Hare of London and Rev. W. H.
