Hon. James IV. Allan, the newly appointed Minister of Highways, was given a tremendous ovation, when he addressed the annual meeting of the Allan progressive Conservative Haldimand Progressive Conservative Association was the first opportunity his supporters have had since this appointment to register their pleasure in the recognition he has received in the Government. Mr. Allan's remarks were brief but he conveyed to the meeting his appreciation of the responsibilities attached to his new office and he said his hope was that he might be able to discharge those responsibilities attached to his new office and he said his hope was that he might be able to discharge those responsibilities attached to his new office and he said his hope was that he might be able to discharge those responsibilities attached to his new office and he said his hope was that he might be able to discharge those responsibilities attached to his new office and he said his hope was that he might be able to discharge those responsibilities in a manner that would bring pride to the organization that had worked for his delection. The meeting was one of unusual addition to Mr. Allan, the member for Brant-Haldimand Progressive Conservative the member conservative and John Charlton, M.P. was also present. Final plans for the special meeting on Tuesday evening, February 1st for the visit of Mrs. Meta Priestley, President of the Rebekah Assembly of Ontario and the official visit of Mrs. Myrtle Winger, District Deputy President were made at the regular meeting of Silver Star Rebekah Lodge on Tuesday evening. Silver Star Lodge will also exemplify the Initiation Degree at this meeting. As it is to be a combined meeting with Cayuga, Echo Rebekah Lodge will also assist during the meeting. Mrs. Marjorie Mitchell, N.G. and Mrs Norah Fleming, V.G. presided for the business of the lodge. There were three officers absent. Twentyone members were present supporting the pink side and nivetom for the service with prayer. The exceilent attention given by the boys during the ceremony speaks very highly of the control and influence that the new Leaders are excrising in the operation of the group. The investiture was attended by almost fifty interested parents which was very gratifying to the leaders and the group committee members indicating a real interest and support in the Boy Scout Movement.
