The reasoning is that such a move would improve the competitive position of Canadian goods in the world market and, at the same time, act as a partial shield to domestic industries hard-pressed by foreign competitors in the home market.

William Snowden Elected Holstein Club President

And seriously, what's funny about 1955? There's a gag here somewhere and in the din of New Year's Eve elebrations, Canada's top comedy team are trying hard to find it. But any minute their pose of profundity is going to disintegrate into an old-fashioned whoopee as the clock strikes twelve. Wayne and Shuster star in their own show on the CBC Trans-Canada network every Thursday night, and on television every fourth week.

New Post Office

For Waterford

Simcoe, Feb. 1.— The sum of $175, 000 for a new federal building in Waterford was included in estimates, tabled in the House of Commons. Postal and customs offices will be housed in the building. No site has been picked for the Waterford project, R. E. Anderson, M.P. for Norfolk, said. Also, the schedule for the building is not known.

Provision for the funds in the estimates does not necessarily mean that the building will be constructed this year. In the case of Simcoe and Port Dover post offices, the money was revoted in the estimates does not necessarily mean that the building will be constructed this year for the constructed this year in the eastimates the building will be constructed this year for the constructed this year for the funds in the estimates the year after initial funds were set aside. The need for expanded postal facilities in Waterford is acute at the present time. Crowded conditions could influence the Department of Public Works to make an early start on the building.

Delhi was the first Norfolk center to get a new post office. Port Dover's was opened last year and Simcoe's new structure will be in use this year, possibly in the spring.
