

TABLE TALKS

It seems as though every year eating outdoors becomes more popular — not only at regular picnics but in back gardens and patios as well. According to Eleanor Richy Johnson, writing about such matters in The Christian Science Monitor, a "cook-and-serve-in-the-skillet" main dish is one of the easiest to serve to your outdoor gathering. Here are some such dishes which may be served over rice, noodles, spaghetti, meat or on buns.

CURRIED LAMB

- 2 pounds lamb shoulder or neck
- 4 tablespoons flour
- 1 cup butter
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 4 large onions, sliced
- 2 small apples, cored, pared and chopped
- 4 tablespoons curry powder
- 4 tablespoons brown sugar
- 4 tablespoons raisins
- 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
- 2 lemons, sliced
- 4 tablespoons shredded coconut

Cut meat in 2-3 inch squares. Dredge with flour. Melt butter in large saucepan. Add meat, garlic and onions, and brown lightly, stirring constantly. Add apples and curry powder and cook 5 minutes more. Add 2 cups water and all remaining ingredients. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer 1 hour, or until meat is tender. Serve six. Note: Add almost any leftover vegetable during last 10 minutes of cooking, if desired.

If you have leftover chicken, here is a dish for it with an Oriental flavor. Serve it over crisp noodles. To prepare these, place a small amount of fine, uncooked noodles in a flat-bottomed wire basket and fry in deep hot fat (365° F.) until golden brown (about 2 minutes). Four ounces of noodles will be needed. Drain and sprinkle with salt.

- ### CHICKEN CANTON
- 1/2 pound bacon
 - 1/2 cup chopped celery
 - 1/4 cup chopped onion
 - 1/4 cup silvered almonds
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1 cup chopped, cooked chicken
 - 1 tablespoon cornstarch
 - 1/2 cups pineapple juice and

IN COOL CUSTODY — Guard Richard Thomas gives himself up to "Old Man Snow," who keeps cool despite the 90-plus degree sometimes recorded in Los Angeles. Snowman, sponsored by the Water Resources Authority, is kept under constant refrigeration. He reminds Angelinos who visit the Museum of Science and Industry of the importance of winter weather in the mountains to their water supply.

One ten-year-old girl who found a pocket-book on a Denver bus questioned very severely seated there in efforts to find the owner. There was no claimant, so she opened it, found the owner's address, and wrote him at once. She got her gold pin.

An urchin who found a wallet in a gutter traced the owner after two days. He, too, qualified for a gold pin.

Every year the holders of gold pins gather for a banquet in one of Denver's plushiest hotels. They are fed royally and are addressed by famous personalities who congratulate them on their honesty.

TOM'S NOT FORGOTTEN — Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn still float down dreamy rivers as small boys relive their legendary adventures. Ready to shove off for a good, old-fashioned session of rafting on Peachtree Creek are, from left: Luke Curn, 8; Jimmy Geisler, 6, and brother Bill, 10. The boys' pet boat is serving as pilot.

How Can I?

Q. How can I remove ink stains from mahogany?

A. Put 4 or 5 drops of turpentine in a teaspoonful of water. Dip a feather into this solution and touch it to the stain. As soon as ink disappears rub immediately with a cold wet cloth to leave a white spot.

Q. How can I give a mirror a thorough cleaning?

A. Rub with thin, cold starch over the glass, or a thin wash of powdered whiting and water. Allow it to dry and then rub off gently with tissue paper or a soft cloth.

Q. How can I keep an onion from collapsing?

A. An onion will not collapse if a pinch of powdered sugar and a pinch of corn starch are beaten in with the yolk of the egg.

Q. How can I prevent staining of custards?

A. If custards are baked in too hot an oven they will curdle. This will also be the result if too much sugar is used in the recipe. Bake in a moderate oven, about 160° F., for 30 minutes. Do not stir the custard while it is cooking.

Q. How can I easily remove corks from mulligan bottles?

A. The cork of a mulligan bottle can be removed without the least difficulty if the time wanted if it is rubbed with a little lard.

Q. How can I remove oil stains from linoleum?

A. Sponge freely with a solution of ammonia and water. Then wash in warm soapsuds. This should be done as soon as possible.

Q. How can I make a tin that will hold paper or cloth?

A. By dissolving 1 tablespoon of sodium acetate in 2 1/2 tablespoons of boiling water. Boil a few minutes and then add a little sugar which will still hold.

Q. How can I make an ash tray?

A. Mix 1 quart of boiled linseed oil, 1 quart of turpentine, 1 pint of whiting, and 1 pound of table salt.

Enough Was Plenty

Kid Broad was a tough little fighter who was famous for his ability to take punishment. He was often knocked down by an opponent, but there was no one who could keep him down. Whenever he hit the canvas, the Kid would give himself a sort of pep talk, audible to many sitting ringside. "Come on, Kid," he would say. "Get up! You mustn't get yourself knocked out. Take a beating if you have to, but don't get knocked out. Your father back in Cleveland wouldn't like it!" And with those words, Kid Broad would stagger to his feet and go on with the fight.

One day, however, the Kid was matched with Aurelio Herrera, reputed to be the hardest hitter in the lightweight division. The first blow of the fight was a terrific smash to the jaw landed by the Mexican and Kid Broad went down. Badly shaken, he groped on all fours and began to mumble his usual pep talk to himself. "Come on, Kid, get up. Your father in Cleveland wouldn't like it if you lost this fight!"

Kid Broad staggered to his feet and walked into another terrific blow. Again he went down. And again he talked himself up to his feet.

The Kid took a terrible beating through the first four rounds of the fight. The fans marveled at his staying power. In the fifth round, the Mexican landed the hardest blow of the fight. Down went the Kid. Weakly he rolled and raised himself to one knee, mumbling through bloody lips, "Get up, Kid, get up." As the fans held their breath, the Kid said to himself, "This is the last time I'm going to get up. But just as it seemed that he was going to make it again, he fopped back to the canvas, put a hand under his head like a pillow, and shouted angrily, "To heck with the old man in Cleveland! This crazy guy will kill me if I get up again!"

COAL MINE EMPLOYEES

13,278 of the 19,050 persons employed at coal mines last year worked underground. The 4,772 surface employees worked an average of 237 man-days during the year, while underground workers averaged 191 man-days.

BREAD: Average factory selling price was at an all-time high of 10.6 cents a pound in 1952, nearly five cents more than in 1945, over double the 1939 price.

THE FARM FRONT

Poison ivy is one of the common nuisance weeds in Canada which each year causes considerable discomfort for those unwary enough to come in contact with it. However, it can be controlled fairly easily by one of the modern chemical weed killers.

When sharpening is done by hand, the usual procedure is as follows: (1) for hand-pushed machines, remove and change to opposite sides, the drive wheels, pinion gears and the pawls so that the knife reel will run in the opposite direction by rotating one of the drive wheels. If the lawn mower is power-driven, simply set the machine up on blocks and operate it with the engine as usual but at slow speed. (2) Adjust the knife-bar so that it just touches all the reel blades and hence their length. (3) Apply an abrasive to the reel and knife-bar which may be a valve-grinding compound, a fine grade of carborundum, emery powder mixed with sufficient lubricating oil to make a thin paste or a dry mixture of fine emery or dust and soap. The latter has the following advantages: It can be poured on the knife-bar as the reel revolves; it does not stick to the reel blades and hence remains in contact with the knife edges longer. (4) Adjust the knife-bar to the reel so that all the reel blades touch it lightly throughout their length.

(5) Clean off the blades with a fine quality paper and adjust with kerosene or solvent after sharpening. (6) Finally, test the cutting edges with a piece of quality paper and adjust the knife-bar again if necessary.

The rotary scythe type depends on speed and very sharp cutting edges for satisfactory mowing. When the knives are dull the tops of grass leaves are bruised, torn, or just bent over rather than cut cleanly and soon turn white and detract from the general appearance of the lawn. To sharpen, remove the blades and grind the cutting edges to the original angle until sharp.

GRETTA GREEN AND RUNAWAY MARRIAGES

The marriages that made Gretta Green famous the world over were ended just ninety-nine years ago when the law was changed to make it necessary for both parties to a marriage in Scotland to have spent the previous three weeks in the country.

Before that anyone could marry in Scotland without notice of any more formality than exchanging vows before witnesses. All the business of the smithy and the anvil was bogus in the sense that it was legally unnecessary. It was an accident that the smith became associated with Gretta Green marriages. The local smith found acting as a professional witness profitable and turned it into a job.

Gretta Green began to boom seven days in case of a wedding event, like a summer title fight there the weather to consider. The contract nowadays reads: "The bride and groom to be married on the day of the weather to be considered." "But the only thing we could do," he says, "is give every body their money back."

And that's the theater TV picture now. Give it a few years and it may change the whole entertainment picture.

HE CHUCKS WOOD — In favor of ice cream. Pet of Mrs. W. H. Fleming, "Woody" will grow up any given quantity of the chilly weather he'll meet next spring as tradition's best-known weather prophet.
