

We see by The Jarvis Record that Paraghar Oliver will speak at Jarvis on March 18th. It is reasonable to suppose that without the facilities offered by the new Jarvis Community Hall we would not have been able to attract the official leader of the Opposition for a major political address. No doubt our friend Sam Morris would have had Mr. Oliver speak at Port Dover if the proper facilities had been available.

Incidentally, we commend the Editor of the Simcoe Reformer for his written appraisal of the fine qualities of the Minister of Highways for Ontario. We would recommend to the Port Dover Maple Leaf that reprinting editorials of this sort from the Reformer would better convey truth and understanding than the tedious reprints from the Brantford Expositor.

John Atkins Minister of Opinion says that if Mr. Harris will give us an honest dollar, that is a dollar.

The hostess and her committee served a delicious refreshment at the close of the meeting.

The Couples Club will meet at the that will be worth as much when we spend it as it was when we received it. It will be remembered as a Minister of Finance who understood his duty and did it.

We record the passing this week of D. C. Allen with more than a touch of sadness. Reflecting on the more active period of his life we recall his abilities as a merchant in the Village. His store was always a place of industry.

Everyone liked to shop there. The reason was that he imparted a spirit of cheerfulness and a sense of being alive. In his store was a merchant in the Village. His store was always a place of industry.
