KNOX CHURCH NOTES

On Friday, October 14th at 8 P.M. the United Presbyterian Service of the congregations of Chalmers, Walpole and Knox Church, Jarvis, will be held in Knox Church. All are urged to make a special effort to attend this service of Prayer.

The Kirk-Sessions are asked to note they will convene at 7:45 P.M. All Elders are asked to be present.

We've been championing George Drew in these columns for a long time. Some of our readers have even accused us of being biased. There is absolutely no truth in this accusation as everyone knows we can see the good in every politician. Our pulse was quickened this week when we came across an article by Elmore Philpott, M.P. in the Vancouver Sun, wherein he had some pretty complimentary things to say about George Drew. If such statements came from people like Sam Morris would be quick to shout "propaganda". But from Elmore Philpott, of all people, maybe some of George's critics will pay heed. Here are a few excerpts from the article:

"George suddenly crystallized a national feeling not just of respect but also of a sort of belated affection for Mr. Drew. The public rather suddenly remembered that there was a man who had rendered long and faithful service to Canada but who had received very little public expression of public gratitude."

"We're lucky to have such a fine National Leader as George Drew who I believe, would make a good Prime Minister if and when the people of Canada want a change."

Well, we're glad to note that the feeling we have always held for George is at last rubbing off on others. Sam Morris would do well to spit on his finger and discover which direction the wind is blowing.

The nation's number one "red" face these days should be the character up in Fiesheron who set himself up as the chief censor of the reading material in the Fiesheron Public Library. Apparently the Public Library meeting he called for the purpose of bringing the populace up to a state of righteous indignation failed to have the desired effect. Affairs would be in a fine state had he been able to achieve his purpose. What right does this character think he possesses wherein he would deprive the individual of the right to expression?

The Gallipoli School for the Young People of the Presbytery commences this Thursday night in Jarvis with the second meeting in Jarvis on October 20th. All young people interested in leadership and fellowship are invited.

W.A. The W.A. meeting last Thursday was well attended. Mrs. Stallwood presided. The basic freedom of thinking for himself?

Even if Roy Edwards fails to make the St. Catharines Teepees, he has had the satisfaction of giving them a shut out in an exhibition game. Although we have nothing definite on his future, the odds would appear to be that he will be spending the winter in St. Catharines.

The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Blayney and a solo cup of tea was served by the Simcoe Ladies.

Questions on the verses were asked in prayer.

Mrs. Tyrrell led in prayer and hymn 358 was sung. Mrs. Walter Hym. Wm. Gray and Mrs. Ivan Lothhouse read many interesting facts about the school's medical services and evangelism from the new booklet "No Wishing". Lunch was served by the hostess and committee and a social time was enjoyed.
