Zesty Steak Sauce, Pickle Recipe Call For Some Sampling

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

steak with baked potatoes, a tossed green salad and a large loaf of onion-cheese bread and you'll have a feast—whether you broiled your steak outdoors over charcoal or in the kitchen range. Lemon Barbecue Sauce

One-third cup fresh lemon juice, 1 cup (8-ounce can) tomate sauce, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon mustard, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, 2 tablespoons honey, dah Tabasco, ¼ cup salad oil, 2 lemons, thinly sliced. Combine all ingredients and pour over steak for several hours before broiling. Pour off sauce, saving it for later; broil steaks as desired. Baste with sauce occasionally and serve any

Two large heads (51/2 pounds) cauliflower (approximately 4 pounds, trimmed), 12 (1 pound medium) onions, 2 tablespoons salt, 3/4 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon ground turmeric, 2 teaspoons whole mustard seed, 1 teaspoon whole celery seed, 1 small dried whole red pepper, ½ teaspoon whole cloves, 1½ cups white vinegar, 1½ cups water.

Remove leaves from cauliflower. Wash and tear into flowerettes. Scald onions, peel and slice. Mix with cauliflower and salt. Let stand overnight. Drain. Rinse in cold water. Taste; if too salty, soak one hour in cold water. Drain. Combine sugar, turmeric, mustard seed, celery seed and red pepper in an 8-quart preserving kettle. Tie whole cloves in a bag and add. Stir in vinegar and water. Boil 5 minutes. Add a "something-special" to serve to your family and guests.

Boil ONLY until crisp-tender, 5 to 10 minutes Pack, hot, into sterilized jars. Fill jars with boiling liquid.

TABLE TALKS PEANUT BUTTER

If your children ask for peanut butter sandwiches every day, you may want to vary their fare while still giving them peanut butter! Here are several ways to make new fillings with Pineapple: combine ½ cup crushed pineapple with ½ cup

Prune: combine 2 teaspoons lemon juice with 1/2 cup chopped cooked prunes and ½ cup

Raisin: combine 1/3 cup milk or cream with 1/2 cup chopped seeded raisins, ½ cup peanut butter and 2 teaspoons lemon Cranberry: combine 1/2 cup cranberry sauce with ½ cup

Carrot-raisin: combine 1 cup shredded carrots, 1/4 cup chopped seeded raisins, 1/2 cup peanut butter and ¼ cup salad dressing. * * *

For a simple soup with a fancy name, try this combina-

PUREE MONGOLE

1 can condensed tomato soup

1 can condensed green pea

1 cup 1/2-inch bread cubes

2 tablespoons butter Mix soups together in saucepan; add milk, stirring until well blended. Heat thoroughly.

Sauté bread cubes in butter until delicately browned; serve as a garnish. (Thinly sliced celery may also be used as a garnish.

You may also combine canned for an unusual cream sour

CORN CHOWDER

2 cup chopped onion 2 cup chopped green pepper

Cook onion and pepper in butseasonings. Heat to serving tem perature. * *

Here is a colorful corn soup.

1 No. 2 can corn (cream

1 teaspoonful salt received her novice license from the FCC in July. Her cal letters are KNGMTQ.

peanut butter.

23/3 cups milk

Once again, in hundreds of thousands of homes, the probthe housewife. How to fill those school and work lunch boxes nourishing and, at the same time, are a bit different. Perhaps some of the followful. I hope so! ing suggestions may be help-

There are many good sand hard-cooked eggs. These are easy and quick to mix, as the eggs may be hard-cooked at breakfast time and are cold and ready to chop by sandwich making time. HAM-EGG SANDWICH

FILLING 2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped 1/4 cup canned deviled ham 2 tablespoons mayonnaise o salad dressing 2 teaspoons prepared mustard Combine all ingredients.

Makes 4 sandwiches. CHEESE AND EGG SALAD FILLING 1 cup grated process Canadian cheese 2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped 1/4 cup mayonnaise or salad ½ teaspoon vinegar 2 teaspoon grated onion

½ teaspoon prepared mustard % teaspoon salt Combine cheese and chopped eggs: add mayonnaise: add all Makes 5 sandwiches. If you have leftover chicken (or want to open a small can of chicken or turkey), try this filling that makes 8-10 sandwiche CHICKEN OR TURKEY

FILLING 1 cup chopped, cooked chicken or turkey

1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons salad dressing 2 teaspoons chopped parsley 1/4 cup finely chopped celery 1/4 personal colors and color Blend all ingredients. Add more seasonings and salad dressing if desired. To vary this filling, add ½ cup grated carrot and 1 teaspoon finely grated spinech, children," try putting it in the luncheon soup for a CREAM OF SPINACH SOUP

1 cup raw ground or finely chopped spinach 4 cups milk 2 tablespoons flour 2 tablespoons butter 1 teaspoon salt If you grind the spinach catch liquid which runs from grinder and add to spinach Heat milk in double boiler Blend flour and fat and add t hot milk. Add spinach and salt. Cook and stir until thickened about 10 minutes.

If you have a cup of leftover cooked peas, try this savory LUNCHEON SOUP 3 tablespoons butter 4 cup diced onion 4 cups milk 2 teaspoons salt 1 cup cooked peas (partially sauce (optional) Melt butter in saucepan; add diced onion and cook until tender - do not brown. Blend in flour; gradually add milk while til smooth and thickened, stirring constantly. Add seasonings, peas, and sauce. Serve garnished with chopped parsley or grated cheese. Serves 6.

teaspoon pepper

How Can I?

Q. How can I remove oil stains from leather?

A. By dabbing the spots with allowing it to remain for a while, wash with clean water, If necessary, repeat the treatment, but be careful not to injure the color of the leather. Q. How can I give myself an nvigorating bath?

A. When one is tired, and every muscle seems to ache, try taking a warm bath at bedtime to which has been added 1 cup of Epsom salts and 2 tablespoons of mustard. Q. How can I separate glasses that have stuck together?

A. Pour cold water into the inner one, and place the outer one in warm water. They will separate readily. Q. How can I save time when cleaning the bird cage?

A. Cut eight or ten thicknesses of heavy white paper and place cage. Every morning a sheet can be removed, leaving a nice much cleaning of the cage. Q. How can I easily remove ink stains from school children's fingers?

Steadily she grew even lovelier - but stayed asleep. A. These stains can be removed by rubbing with a cloth Then it was that the keen eyes of one of the visiting specialists monia, and rinsed in clear wadiagnosed further trouble - an

Waited Years For Sleeping Beaut

tracted pneumonia,

Jimmie Burns) and ele others, none of whom knew a tragic end. In vain they though known to Patricia's m sen after she had acknowled their letters and flowers.

brain was examined by spec ists and it was found to h haps just as well that she have been as simple as a re

Let's Face It. Men

If anybody takes up the it of an American plastic sun nome perm outfits will soon followed by home face-lift

After her death, Patric

Up to the time she was twenty-seven, beautiful Patricia Maguire lived a normal, healthy and athletic life in her Chicago home. Then, in February, 1932, Checking up on her back-ground, the doctors found that Patricia was engaged to be married, was perfectly happy and had had no unusual or disturbing illnesses in her life.

At first the doctors were noncommittal when Patricia's parents and fiance wanted to know when she would wake up. "She may awake soon - or it may be a long time," was the gist their evasive answers. So specialists were called in and merous cures were attempted. Patricia, however, quietly slept on, unaware of the fuss going

After a while, the story of Chicago's "Sleeping Beauty" became widely known. Seeing her picture in the papers, and deepdisturbed that so lovely a girl should be sleeping her life away, many men fell in love passionate letters declaring their devotion, and telling her about aspirations and hopes.

As time went by, Patricia didn't improve except to grow more beautiful as she slept. Occasionally she would open her eyes, but apparently they registered nothing. Once she scribbled a message on a slate, which nobody could decipher. In 1934 she stirred as though she might wake - only to lapse swiftly

To maintain her physical condition and keep her healthy, Patricia was given a special liquid diet which was fed to her six times a day through a tube. She was massaged regularly, and visited once a week by a manicurist and by a hairdresser.

into a coma again.

Lines and wrinkles are n out by stretching the skin They promised to wait until little cloth tabs that are be wih a mcdern adhesive. she was better, and then they would call on her and propose is placed at each side of the marriage. They sent flowers just in front of the ear. The as "pegs" for a facial min frequently, followed by other

But Patricia couldn't read the This is worn for one or t letters or see the beautiful flowers that filled her bedroom, days, then removed by dis ing the adhesive in the kind of solvent used for disp an I so knew nothing of the devotion lavished on her by her ing of nail varnish. After an admirers. Oddly enough the adfor the face, the treatment mirers didn't know Patricia was already engaged, nor that her fiance visited her at least twice worse than curlers! a week, and 'phoned her parents daily to ask how she was good enough for her." "She may be right." "She may be left!"

EXCAVATION

Niagara Falls' Face Gets Beauty Treatment

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont-Niagara Falls is having its face lifted. To make sure that the famous falls will look as magnificent for future honey mooners and world tourists in the years to come, the Cana-1 cup milk 1 can condensed tomato soup dian and United States governments are doing a $17,500,-000 beauty job on the crest of the waterfall. It is expecter. Add corn, soup, milk and ted to be completed by 1957. When the French missionary and explorer, Father Louis Her nepin, first saw the Niagara Falls in 1678 the drop into the Niagara River was almost 1,000 feet further than it is today. Since fall have been kept since 1784 the falls have receded 865 feet, more than half of this in the first 78 years. Use of the falls for hydroelectric power has slowed down the recession considerably. Once the falls was an unbroken line into the Niagara River. Grad ually rocks fell off and two sections were formed, the American Falls and the Horseshoe Falls. The former is in the United international boundary.

States, the latter straddles the In recent years there have been a number of rock slides which have left more spots in carried away sections of the rock over which the water used to plunge.

Now under an international treaty signed in 1950, Niagara Falls is being given a new ap-pearance, so that the Horseshoe Falls will present an unbroken front of water tumbling 160 feet down from the rapids in the upper Niagara River to the

AERIAL VIEW OF FACE-LIFTING: Diagram med photo shows the work now under way at Niagara Falls to beautify this major tourist attraction. Near top is location of the 13 sluices the will form the control structure, while on both flanks are excavation and fill to be done by 1955. ent down to Lake Ontario. the international border, but it also maintained the natural level The project consists of first building a control structure on the Canadian side above the the flow over the American falls, so that the amount of Falls, enhancing its appearance water falling over the crest can be controlled. Then the rapids near both shores will be ex-When engineers on both sides cavated to make for a more even of the river began studies of flow over the crest, and sections how to obtain more electric power from Niagara Falls and at the same time fight erosion, wa-ter surface and river-bed surnear the shore will be filled in from which to see the plunging veys were so difficult that con-A start on saving the face of Niagara Falls was made during the Second World War when a

The steep clig surfaces and the weir was submerged on the Can-adian side of the river about turbulent waters meant that ky-toon balloons and helicopters had to be used to provide sky-hooks from which to hang sur-1½ miles upstream from the falls. This weir not only pro-vided more water diversion for genious method of survey.

Searchlights with 800 mile candle-power were used and gineers found their figures taking measurements of the reflections from the search.

On both the Canadian be excavated, 4,000 cubic pon the U.S. side, and 64,00 bic yards on the Canadian This will allow the water flow over sections which y distinguished person, res-ted for his great intellectual rers and admired for his so-accomplishments. Actually was a very clever and well cated chimpanzee who died Edinburgh Zoo not long ago advanced age of nearly uldn't do was speak. He was uch a past master of the art of mitating that before he was nitating that before he was cry old he had acquired practi-uly every other human accomnt. When he was only a w months old he was adoptman living in Nigeria For the next eight years he lived as one of Mr. Humphries' tired at the end of the day would unlace and take boots and put on his slip pers or magazines fo to read, and make himself ally useful about the rward to his leisure hours, he was able to sit back njoy a smoke and a drink. imes he decided to go for on the tricycle that had bought for him.

enjoyed all forms of If he was offered an cigarette case and a box tches he would carefully cigarette and put it be his ilps, lighting it with a ette with obvious enknocking off the ash now and again, and finoing out the end, just had seen his master do. also enjoyed cigars when ame his way, but his favsmoke was a pipe. He so it was considered pofill his pipe and light it He would then sit back chair and enjoy it, carefulwhen it was finished. taste in drinks was wide, here, too, he showed dis tion. He would sit down enjoy a glass of beer with and bitters or whisky and ade. Above all he liked zing his essentially gentle character!

his port drinking Philip back to the good old days you drank it by the bottle h capable of putting the e to his lips and draining i draught, if supplied with glass he would despatch purite drink in more manner, repeatedly out the glass for refill the bottle was empty. you may imagine, zoo ani are not usually given to ing and drinking, so when age of eight Philip came nburgh Zoo, bringing his stir. Philip's change of zoo authorities were and a little bewildered new guest. Zoo chimps of course enjoy the same as those living with es, and in any case Philip oaching an age when was likely to become less red. Nevertheless, for time he was allowed to spend art of the day cycling around he zoo, usually with a cigarette His last social function took place some little time after his

PUZZLE CROSS 50. Timber tree thout sugar 51. Climbing perennial

Chimpanzee Was Almost Human

paid a visit to the zoo with a friend. With Philip they were entertained in the library by in armchairs smoking cigarettes

When the zoo authorities fin longer safe to give Philip the discovered to their dismay that fine him to a cage. He soon be unlaced, so could wire netwent straight up to a rather scared young lady and proceeded to unlace her shoes. sehold, working as a house though he remained one of the best known personalities at Edinburgh Zoo until his death. finer accomplishments. The time light his own cigarette, though he continued to enjoy one if it was lit for him. Chimps as houseboys and ompanions are not so rare as one would imagine. Many year ago a collector from Natural History Museum had a startling to the interior of Africa, Arriv ing after dark at a remote river landing stage in order to visit a white man, he was just setting through the dense undergrowth towards him. It was swinging scarcely a foot from the ground He thought his host mus have sent a native child to meet him. But guide turned out to who took his hand and led hin to the white man's hut!

This story unforuntaely a tragic sequel. When the ani mal approached maturity there acter, and fits of temper devel-oped. Despite repeated warnings that it was no longer safe for him to keep such a power ful animal at large about the hut, the white man refused to give up his companion. No ur for an infuriated chimp, and found in the hut. He had been overpowered and killed by hi former friend. Cheery Kearton, the famous naturalist and traveller, had a Toto, who was his constant Kearton became as attached to Toto as Toto was to him, and famous book "My Friend Toto." Reading this book one can appreciate the great comfort this affectionate and helpful animal along to stems, leaves and fruit. All this from a simple alone in the wilds of Africa. lump of soil! Toto's extradorinary devotion was shown on one occasion when his master went down give forth what it possesses. I with a severe attack of fever. "Toto made himself my nurse," Kearton records. "All day he rich in nutritive elements, it can produce an abundance of food for man and beast; lacking such would sit beside me, watching reserves, it can only grow weak with a care that seemed almos plants and poor crops. maternal, and anything that would go to the medicine chest venes. It advises improved methen he would fetch a glass and fertilizers it adds to the soil re-

Each afternoon, his would lie down on the bed beside his master, put an arm around him, and fall asleep.

Mount Robson, in B.C., is Canada's best known mountain is nearly a mile and a half piece	52. Terminal 53. Diocese					Am poe Stat	tilde	dve	1. On 2. Make a loan storehouse	DOWN				20.	excessive 43. Salt

CROSSWORD

2. Golf	1. Do without 2. Mistake				fullness 44. Three 24. Deep wagon (prefix)
3. Wing	3. 8	solid!	y			trac
4. Baseball		Explo		4.92				uare	8	6. M	Cre teams	d	levic	es		27.	Enj	oym	ent	Ser.	0. M	etai	855g	THE
5. Take up weapons	1	12	3		4	5	6		7	8	9	10	11
6. Foreign	1		200		10.00	2.022	Luly .	10000	1	100	100	437	100
8. Cables	112	100	12 F (8)	18888	13	200	100	1888	14	35.72	1.00	(33)	15.00
20. Pulled apart	1	200	199.6	₩		19.8	100	1000	8533	175.17	200	100
1. Of an his-	15			1000	16	25.8	1339	17	14	4/33	63.0	130	173 torical period	1	100	100			100			1
22. The pineapple	18		116.	19	739		20	7	57748	92918	388		***
(prefix)	10	l little	1	1.	1980			1559	1520	123		1880
6. Edible bird	21	-	-	-		22			100	38883	23	24	25
28. The soft	151			100			100		3525 palate			100	-	27	-	-		28	29	-		15000
30. Sink	- 1000		26	18.	121	1.35	100		co	100	100	0.00	100 gradually	3000	8	-	-	-	-		32	1-	-	-	-	- 2. Articles of	30	31.					1	36	122	1000		146	100 belief	_		_	_	-		 	-	-	-	-	10000 Minister	33	101	100	3.13	2.2		34	100	200	6-95	198	- 4. French			_		_	8888	_	-	-	-	-	00000	40000 revolutionist	35	3 53.83	1000	1000	36	37	1332	1920		38	100	39	40
35. 24 hours			2:58		63	-			3333			_
M. Entrance	1000	8888	8000	41				1888	42		1000
18. Demonstra-	-	800				1	1 tive pronoun	43	44	45		100000	10760	100	146	1000	3333	47	1 1000	100
41. Utilizer		100	403	3550	100		1888	1000	230			1000	000
Boulptor	48				1000	3333	40	1000	19689	1000	150	1000	2000
48. Specify	1			1000							1	100	100
47. Slower (mus.)	5	-	-	-	+	1	52	1	1	1000	153		1 48, Zeal	1		2.2			1000	-		100				0.00
10. Cotton-seed-		-	-	-		-	20.00				-	-	- ing machine		An	swe	r el	sew	ber	e or	n th	is p	age

About Those Crazy Marx Brothers

Next he drops them in a mental statutes, and keep my judg ments, and do them. Ezekie Mixmaster, and studies them

One day an officious lady at replied, "No. Are you?" An elderly book clerk in Hollywood is still suffering from the shock sustained when Groucho entered her shop and inquired blandly, "Have you some-$4000 a week these days with but there was a time when all had a difficult job keeping the wolf away from the door. When other their mother. Minnie Marx. dressed them up in short pants and Buster Brown collars so they could ride for half fare. Once, formed Mrs. Marx that her "little boys" were smoking cigars, in the coach ahead, she beamed at him and confided, "They grow

Al Shean, famous as the part-ner of Mr. Gallagher, was also Government transfer pay-ments — that is, money collected by taxation and then paid out to the public in the form of family allowances, old age pensions, welfare payments, etc.

— amounted in 1954 to $2,141 million, as compared million in 1939.

they have done well under the Quality of the mums is betoutside, the stems usually become hard and woody, but uned a desirable softness. With the new shelters, Kenyon figures and market flowers at least a HORSIN' AROUND-Stephan J. Spudic, Jr., quit his job, bought and saddled a six-year-old horse named "Rusty," whistled to his dog, "Frisco," and headed for Los Angeles with a bedroll.

THE FARM FRONT

lieves he has found the answer poythene-roofed shelters. It is the plastic film widely used in This spring. Kenyon used wide material for two large frame structures which were left open tion of air. Under these canopy-like covers he set out about 4,000 couraging. Kenyon reports a 100 per cent increase in growth compared with what could have been expected had the plants been growing unprotected from greenhouses. This is the first carnations out-of-doors, and to this problem in the use the packaging of vegetables.

by John Russell

He's averaged 32 miles a day.

valuable as a simple lump of soil. It is the very core of life from which all organisms emerge, and it is the basis for the prosperity of all nations, writes Georges Maheux in "Farm

A mass of sand or clay, mineral fragments, scraps of plant and animal matter all bound together, a lump of soil absorbs water and solar energy and harbors a swarm of living things.

A tiny seed finds in it the heat ermination. Here, too, is a store-ments from which rootlets derive nourishment that is passed

However, the soil can only guired quantities of the food 'custom made" seeds, brim full of strength and vitality, which enclose all the desirable charac ductivity, early maturity, rapid ty of growth and resistance to disease. Science expands the wonders of the soil, thereby ining the quality of agricultural Picking up a bit of soil, the farmer runs it through his fingers to feel its texture, its body, its resiliency. He sniffs at it and all but tastes it. This handful of earth symbolizes the myriads of others that make up his fields, his vegetable garden and his orchard. He can well lift his eyes heavenward in thanks-giving. Let him be thankful also for the discoveries of Science

* * * *
Flowers are modern farming's most beautiful cash crop They are also the most delicate. Com-mercially grown flowers require devoted attention from the time they are first set until

One of the problems faced by growers is selecting the right time to move young plants from the greenhouse where, as the ceive too much heat for proper development. If set outdoors to early, however, they are expose ture and moisture conditions.

. . .

chrysanthemum and carnatio

Bill Kenyon, who has a large the blooms are harvested.

the results of his labor.

teristics of species, variety, prohouse of food; assimilable el month longer than previously. Big advantages of the plastic roofs are in permitting greater control of soil moisture and in protecting the plants on cold nights. One surprise frost early this year, for example, covered the ground outside, coated the underside of the polythene roof. but did not touch the growing area underneath — the poly-thene had acted as a barrier which retarded loss of grou heat by radiation.

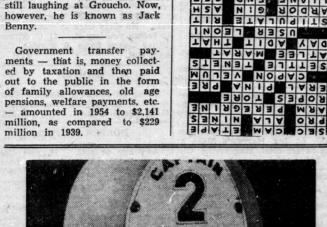

Canada's most important pri-mary industry, only 15 per cent of the total labor force now is directly employed on the farms.

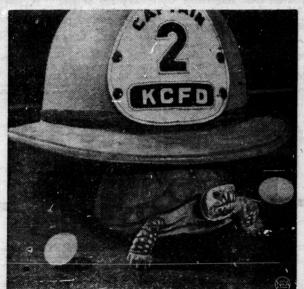

Groucho Marx, explains hi brother Harpo, is infatuated with words. "Groucho," he says, "does not regard words the way the New Respect for God's Law Ezekiel 20:19-20; Nehemiah 9:1-3; 10:32, 35, 37, 39 upside down, backwards, from the middle out to the end, and Memory Selection: I am the Lord your God; walk in my some more. Groucho doesn't look for double meanings. He looks for quadruple meanings. And usually finds them." the Brown Derby, in Hollywood pushed a waiter aside, leveled a finger at Groucho, and demanded, "Are you Harpo Marx?" Groucho raised an eyebrow and

Groucho is said to net over Harpo Marx a silent comedian Shean scripted the first vaudeville act for the then-unknown Marx Brothers, and inadvertently forgot to write in a part for Harpo. When Harpo indig-nantly called the omission to his attention, Shean hastily explained, "I did it on purpose. I want you to play in pantomime. I've got a feeling you'll be terrific."

Mr. Shean didn't know how right he was! Incidentally, one of the first towns to see the new Marx Brothers turn was Waukegan. In the orchestra pit, a kid named Kubelsky played the fiddle, and doubled up with laughter every time Groucho opened his mouth. Today, some

NO SHELL GAME - The turtle's name WAS Henry, but now it's Henrietta, since "he" laid those two eggs. Some firemen made her their mascot when they found her in front of the fire SUSPENSE - Kenneth Collins, six months old holds his breath as he waits for skunk of family, to train her artillery elsewhere. Adopted by "Susie" and her kittens, the baby woods pussy has so far caused not one scent's worth of trouble.

FEMINDAY SCHOOL

R. Barclay Warren B.A. B.D

Under the leadership of Ne hemiah the wall of Jerusalem was speedily built. It was done in fifty-two days. Less than a fore the Water Gate and call ed upon Ezra to bring the book of the law of God. It was an op-by the joyous celebration at its pulpit (or high platform) of wood, which they had made for the purpose. Beside him stood six helpers on his right hand early morn until noon the law people then realized how neg-lectful they had been of the law.

and send something good to the reminded them of the feast o to observe it with great joy.

ing for their sins. They entered into a covenant to observe

Nehemiah returned further re-ceased. At this point Old Testa

Billy Graham preached a series on the Ten Commandments.

steal, murder, commit adultery generation needs to be remind-

Unsidedown to Prevent Peeking must respect God's law ment history ends