

sort. But, nevertheless, we are opposed to them. Last week we heard a radio announcer urging girls to enter "Miss Portable Radio Contest." Our immediate reaction to this one was "how silly can these things get?" We tried to picture the mentality of a junior miss who would desire to become Miss Portable Radio. If the entries are numerous enough there is no doubt we can look forward to future contests such as "Miss Microwave," or "Miss Juice Squeezer."

These beauty contests, however, take the cake. We haven't seen a beauty contest winner yet that could not be beaten by one of the charming girls right here in the little Village of Jarvis. Another thing. The Toronto Police Association sponsor a beauty contest every year. For some reason or other we sort of lose respect for the big guardians of the law when we think of them spending their time lining up girls in bathing suits. One thing sure you would never catch the O.P.P. officers at Cayuga associating themselves with such endeavors.

RENTON The members of Renton W.I. held their picnic in Lynwood Park, Simcoe, on Thursday afternoon. Miss Jean Lloyd has returned home from spending the past week in St. Catharines, the guest of her aunt and uncle. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lichtenberger and family of Aldershot were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Duncan. Miss Georgina Tiffie has returned home after spending a few holidays at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Allen in New York State. The members of the Renton 4-H Club, along with their leader, Mrs. Lewis Biffe attended the Achievement Day held in Simcoe on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Baguley of Simcoe were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Duncan. Mrs. Orin Fisher and family of Fenwick spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Mitchell, Larry and Jerry Fisher remaining for some holidays. To promote settlement of Nova Scotia when he was granted the territory in 1621, Sir William Alexander founded the order of baronets of Nova Scotia, in return for a barony of thirty square miles and the title of Sir, each baronet provided 1,000 Scottish marks and six men fully armed and equipped for two years. other media of propaganda are partly to blame for these things. Anything unusual in news and the enterprise spirit of propaganda media gives these unusual things full play. If, for example, a man bites a dog, it is splashed all over the front page. But if a dog bites a man it gets no attention whatsoever, unless the dog has rabies. Further proof of how misleading the newspapers can be is illustrated by the heat stirred up prior to the Moore-Park fight in Toronto. The public were really fooled in that one. Everyone looked for a fight and look what happened. And we'll bet the faithful patriots, Canadian gamblers spent plenty on that one. We're for the life as it exists in pleasant, law-abiding places like Jarvis. Places where no fictitiousness exists. They call it the simple life, and we like it.

CHEAPSIDE

A very successful Vacation Bible School closed on Thursday evening. This was an open air meeting of which a large crowd attended. It was held on the lawn of the Brethren-in-Christ Church. A good program was enjoyed. Many thanks goes out to all those who made it a success. The bus drivers and the superintendent and teachers all gave freely of their time and talents, and therefore another Vacation Bible School is now a record of success. Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bentley Brown were Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Newton of Kitchener and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Anderson and Richard of Bealton. Holidaying visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris were grand children John Douglas and Allen Morris of Toronto, also Scott, Jimmy and Douglas Craigie, also of Toronto. Reg. Lothhouse spent Sunday with Mrs. Anna Lothhouse in the village. Miss Barbara Johnson of Simcoe is holidaying at her grandmother's, Mrs. M. Stevart's. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sheppard spent last week holidaying at Manitowish Island and points in Northern Ontario. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Donovan of Lynden spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bartlett. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson of Waterford spent Saturday at the home of Mrs. Doris Parsons. Mr. and Mrs. Levi Murtland of Bradford are holidaying with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bartlett. We are sorry to report that Mr. Donald Mattice had the misfortune to cut a finger seriously while working at the Army Camp.

ERIE

(Intended for last week)

Mr. and Mrs. James Alton of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Fleming and Mrs. Daisy Fleming were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. William Long in Port Dover. Mrs. Leng, a former resident of this place, is quite ill at present. Judy Clark has returned to her home here after spending two weeks at camp. Mrs. David Kett of Hagersville spent some time with her sister, Mrs. Murray Biggar. Mrs. David Kett of Hagersville spent some time with her sister, Mrs. Murray Biggar. Mr. Murray Laidlaw of British Columbia recently spent a short time with his parents here. Mrs. Eva Buchanan of Regina is spending several weeks visiting relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Cairns of Buffalo spent Sunday at the Honeyman Tourist Home. Mr. and Mrs. James Mitchell and family of Guelph spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Leslie Keen. Mrs. Daisy Fleming of Baitry River who is taking a teacher's short course in Hamilton, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Fleming.

DISAPPEARING HEATS

Apparently one of the latest suppliers of seats has gone out of stock after selling the last three pairs to a Montrealer who long cherished their warmth and comfort. We've written the Montrealer offering to trade our car, our apartment and our Aunt Elizabeth's cherished antique tea caddy for just one pair of those precious gaiters.

TOURIST FOOD

Why are visitors served tinned instead of fresh vegetables and why isn't more trouble taken to provide a good selection of fish dishes. Let's admit frankly that the tourist trade is too valuable to ignore any single phase of its maintenance. -Lunenburg (N.S.) Enterprise.
