The March meeting of the Wesley Happy Doubles Club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Stire. There were eighteen couples present. Doreen Doughty took charge of the worship service which had Easter as its theme. Alma Linklater acted as pianist for the hymns. The scripture reading was taken by Jim Doughty. Bryce Linklater gave a reading on the meaning of Easter. The hymn "In The Cross of Christ I Glory" was sung to end the worship service. Jane Linklater and Judy Doughty sang a duet "Peter Cottontail" which delighted their audience. Joan Linklater then favoured the group with a piano solo. A colour and sound film on the making and uses of Gyproc was then shown by Bob Nelson. Th's was very much enjoyed and was shown in preparation for a tour through the Gyproc Plant at Hagersville in April. Bob offered to answer any questions and was kept busy for some time. Joan and Bill Ionson conducted the business period. Final plans were made for the visit to the Gyproc plant on April 17th. Any couples interested, please not fy the presidents a week in advance in order that enough guides can be procured. It is p'anned to meet at the Sunday School Room at 8.30 P.M. and leave from there in a body. It is also planned to go on to Lea's at Mount Hope for lunch. in March. Rev. Mr. Eliot, of the Indian Reserve was special speaker on this occasion. His account of Missionary work on the Reserve was most interesting. The President Mrs. Robert Doughty, conducted the business period of the meeting when Mrs. J. W. Lindsay read the minutes and Mrs. Reg. Hedges was planist. In response to the roll call, verses of favorite hymns from the hymnary were recited or read.
