New Floor Will Get

The new hardwood floor in the Jarvis Community Hall will get its first test on Friday night of this week Ministe

In a little more than a week the thirty-five hundred square feet of hardwood flooring was laid through the volunteer efforts of members of the Lions Club and other willing helpers throughout the community. Every day last week the Community Hall was a hive of activity when thousands of nails were driven into the new floor to make it fast for years to come.

The November meeting of the West Haldmand Ministerial Association was held in Wesley United Church, Jarvis, on Monday, with 12 members present. Rev. J. A. Logan conducted the devotions, after which the business was discussed with the Rev.W. J. Qualman presiding. The final waxing was done Tuesday night when a small army of willing workers were on hand and on their knees manually applying the paste wax. The new floor glistens and looks just right for dancing.

The dance on Friday night is the official try-out and it offers a splendid opportunity for citizens of the community to attend—not only for a good time but also as an indication of appreciation to the Lions Club for undertaking to finance and provide this improved facility for our Community Centre.
