THE HAGERSVILLE KINSMEN CLUB sponsored a contest in conjunction with the Arena Cement Block Tickets for the children of Hagersville and District in December 1956, but was cancelled due to lack of interest. The prizes of this contes amounted to $40.00 and the Kinsmen Club decided that this mor ey already earmarked for this contest be taken out in CEMENT BLOCK TICKETS. It was decided that if one of these tickets was drawn the prize should then be sold and the money given to the ARENA FUND.

Tragic Accident Claims Life of Jarvis Youth

Mrs. Etta Priest

One of Rockford's oldest residents
Mrs. Etta Fidelia Priest died at her home on Sunday, following a short illness, in her 89th year.

Miller, of Jarvis, was a vettim of drowning in the Nanticoke Creek last Wednesday afternoon when a homemade raft fell apart in a section of the creek where the water is about five feet deep.

ta Priest

George Miller, 9-year-old son of Mrs. Vera Miler and the late George Miller, of Jarvis, was a victim of illness, in her 89th year.

Born in Woodhouse, she moved to Rockford when a young girl and had lived there all her life. She was a faithful member of Rockford United Church, teaching in the Sunday School for many years and attendance. Situation of the sunday she was a second to the sunday she was a sunda also a member of the W.A. and W.

CHURCH SERVICE

The Oddfellows and Rebekahs of Simcoe District No. 16, will hold their annual church service at St. Paul's Anglican Church, on Sunday, May 5th, at 3 p.m. Members are requested to meet at the Lodge Room at 2.30 p.m.

DIED

BOUSFIELD—At the Nora-Frances Henderson Hospital, Hamilton, on Sunday, April 28th, 1957, Clarence Ensley Bousfield of Hagersville, son of the late Henry Bousfield and Helena Ann Pond, and dear brother of Leona H., Ida V., in his sixtyfourth year.

Resting at the Senn & McKenzie Funeral Home, Hagersville, for service on Thursday, May 2nd, at 2 p.m. Interment in Wesley United Church Cemetery, Jarvis.

Died Shortly after arrival at the Hospital the boy was pronounced dead. There will not be an inquest into the accident. Provincial Constable Sam Way of the Norfolk Detachment of the Provincial Police is in charge of the investigation.

This is the third time within five years that tragedy has visited the Miller home. The first was the unfortunate death of Mrs. Miller's husband. Two years ago the home was destroyed by fire, three of the four children narrowly escaped from an upstairs window with the assistance of the oldest son, Jimmie, who was later awarded with the Boy Scout Silver Medal for his act of bravery. He was invested with this honour by the Governor-General Vincent Massey, at a ceremony in Government House last last year.

Besides his mother, the former Vera Fitzgerald, he is survived by one brother, James 14, and two sisters, Ruth Ann 16, and Mardeen 5.
