Past Noble Grands Club

The Past Noble Grands Club met on Thursday afternoon, with the president, Mrs. Belle Nichol presiding. The meeting opened with singing, "Soft Be The Tie," and repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. Mrs. Elliott read the scripture lesson, after which a minute of silence in memory of Sister Ethel Leathong was held. The roll call, "Christmas Suggestions," was well responded to. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted, and the treasurer's report showed a goodly increase from the Bazaar. It was decided to send $10.00 to the Oddfellows' Home in Barrie, for treats. Mrs. Marion Butts was elected to act as 1st vice-president for the remaining part of this year. Discussion took place about the usual Christmas dinner party in December, but it was agreed to leave it over until after the New Year. The next meeting will be held on Dec. 12th, in the I.O.O.F. Hall, when all members will please bring or send a gift for their Caputi Friend. The mystery prize was drawn by Mrs. Nellie Stallwood. The meeting closed by singing "The Queen," and a birthday lunch was served by the hostess and her committee.

CHRISTMAS MAY HELP

In these days of stress and strain, which make it difficult for many of us to help ourselves, it is alarming to note the increasing number of impatient horn blowers at corners, the incessant stream of automobiles who are picking up petty grievances and magnifying them out of all proportion. It is good that Christmas is near at hand. Some of that spirit may rub off on the complainers.—Barrie Examiner.

CUBS AND SCOUTS

The Jarvis Cubs defeated Fisherville by a 6 to 4 score in the Fort Dover Arena last Monday night, to remain undefeated in their first four games of the Erie League this far.

The Jarvis team was led by John Edwards who bled the light five times with Jack Nixon getting the sixth tally for Jarvis.

In the first period Edwards tallied three times within one minute and then scored a fourth time when he hit into an early three goal lead. Bill Bacher tallied for Fisherville late in the period.

In the middle period Jack Nixon and Edwards tallied for Jarvis, while Don Shurr scored for Fisherville.

In the third period Edwards picked up his fifth goal of the night, with Grant Nagel and Ross Gee tallying for Fisherville.

There was a grand total of 13 penalties handed out in the game, six in the first period and seven in the second with none in the third.

Jarvis received eight of the thirteen penalties.

Lamb's men defeated Moulton by a 5-1 score, this being a much tamer game than the Jarvis-Fisherville, but well worth seeing as both teams came up with some nice plays.
