Anglican Church Notes

Christmas was well observed in this Parish. Both churches were tastefully decorated and the Christmas Hymns and Carols were sung heartily and with feeling.

At Christ Church the service on Christmas morning was well attended and a number made their Christmas communion. The decorations harmonized well with the style of the building.

At St. Paul's the principal service was the Midnight Eucharist on Christmas Eve, at which both the attendance and the number of communicants was larger than it has ever been. The Choral Service on the 30th was not so well attended as it might have been, but the Choir sang various pieces very beautifully. At the Christmas Eve service Mr. Jack Cooke assisted and Lessons were read also by Mr. R. Lynch and Russell More Jr. Here, also, the decorations harmonized well with the style of the building.

On the "Third Day of Christmas" (27th) St. Paul's Sunday School had their annual pot-lock Supper and Christmas Tree. There was a short programme and then Santa arrived to distribute the gifts piled at the foot of the Tree. Here again there was a record number present, and everyone seemed to enjoy the friendly and somewhat informal gathering.

There will be a meeting of St. Paul's Women's Club at the home of Mrs. DelaPasse on Thursday, Jan. 3, at 8 p.m.
