

We can say it that Sam Morris must have spiked the moose milk which was our special beverage for the occasion. Be that as it may, we can...

Only the excitement of the elections that have been taking place in Walpole and neighboring Rainham has brought us back to earth.

Notwithstanding the fact we have welcomed in quite a number of New Years, we're ready to admit that our festive occasion was just a bit more colorful than anything we have experienced before.

Being one who never backs away from that enjoyable custom of bus-ing, we had a regular field day with more than a hundred vivacious, beautiful women who, like us, wanted to celebrate the occasion.

If the members of the opposite sex were not in an agreeable frame of mind when New Years was welcomed in at the party we attended them all

On the Farm Front

By Haldimand Harry

Haldimand County is right in line for the new country-wide campaign for the control of Brucellosis or Bang's Disease in cattle.

According to the announcement, the eradication program will be similar to that applied in the virtual elimination of tuberculosis from our Canadian herds.

It is never too late to give up our prejudices—Thoreau.
