"Relaxing" Pills Can Kill You!

A white age in an Edmonton, Alta. court James E. Short, former DREW line pilot, blamed sleeping pills for loss of his pilot's licence, his driver's licence, and a near-nervous breakdown and blackouts he had suffered while driving his car.

The law must go after that pill and have it removed from the market, he said. "It's terrible; it's ruined me."
 Arrested after his car was seen weaving down a road, bouncing off curbs, Short was fined $10 for careless driving. But the most important result of the trial was that the sleeping pill in question was put on Canada's "prescription only" list.

Dr. Bell at his clinic, has seen the final results of "tranquilizers" administered without competent supervision. "Pill addicts are more difficult to treat than alcoholics," says he—describing them as stupefied zombies. "They can't immediately be cut off the drug, without the likelihood of convulsions or delirium tremens."

Some addicts are so bad, they can't walk past a drugstore window, says Dr. Bell, without stopping and staring in fascination—like an alcoholic in front of a shelf of liquor.

Red Revolution In Rubber-Making

Although many usable substitutes for rubber have been known in recent years it is not until synthetically now it has been able to make "natural" rubber synthetically. Now it has been done by Firestone Rubber scientists. According to a report in the Scientific American magazine, the synthetic constituent of isoprene, a liquid that can be derived from a number of substances and the metal lith...

There is no simple solution to the growing problem of pill-addiction among Canadians. To begin with, the pills are a useful, necessary part of medical care, properly prescribed.

SILLY QUESTION
 A small boy was dejectedly practicing his piano lesson when a salesman knocked on the door. "Son, is your mother home?" "What do you think?" answered the boy.

OLD-TIMERS MAKE THE HEADLINES - Claimed to be the oldest man in the Middle East is Mohammed Khalil Abu el Hawo, who lives in a village on the Mount of Olives, overlooking Jerusalem, according to his birth certificate (inset), he was born in his Moslem calendar year 1240, which would make him 136 years old. Mohammed, who still has remarkable strength, works in his garden and walks to the local mosque for his daily prayers. He would probably say "I'm a kid" if he could meet the Mary Arnold, right, who lives in the Methodist Sunday Home in Quincy, Ill. She has just celebrated her 104th birthday. Although confined to a wheelchair by a hip broken a few years ago, her health is good and she keeps busy crocheting.

ATE SKATE, FELT REALLY WHEEZY - Skating chimp - if not a skating champ - is two-year-old Vickie Lyn, resident of a pet shop. Vickie, according to her skating instructor, is progressing faster than human pupils of the same age.

Going to School In Shakespeare's Day

Now for the school in Shakespeare's day. Shakespeare was sleeping pills for loss of his pilot's licence, his driver's licence, and a near-nervous breakdown and blackouts he had suffered while driving his car.

WANTS A WIFE
 Dear Anne Hirst, I am a man in my early 40's, with two unhappy memories behind me. I loved two girls (successfully) but both turned me down - the first because I owned no property and was making only a small salary. The other, who pretended to care, left me flat and married somebody else.

WHY DOUBT HIM?
 I suppose it is of little use to remind you that few men stray from home if they find love there, and the companionship they need. In nine years your husband has never sought anyone else, nor been only basis for these doubts is hearsay; don't you know that a jealous "friend's" sometimes cannot resist sowing seeds of suspicion in the mind of a wife who is happier than she?

ANNE HIRST Your Family Counselor

"DEAR ANNE HIRST: "How can I find out if my husband is unfaithful?" cries a distressed wife. "In all our nine years together, I never before doubted him. But now uncertainty is tearing me apart!"

"There is a woman in this town who is notorious; she has broken up two homes, and I am afraid for mine. A friend told me she has seen my husband with her downtown, but how can I prove it? He denies he even knows her."
 I secure him of having an affair, but it is his own fault - where there's smoke there's fire," etc. He has not changed toward me, as is loving and attentive as ever, and my marriage has been beautiful. But I cannot forget what I heard. We have a young son whom we love dearly, love, and he senses I am not myself, and he senses it.
