ANNE HIRST Your Family Counselor -

"Marriage is what I write you about and what we both want more than anything else. When we see a couple so happy in their home we are sad, wishing it were us-and we want as many children as God sees fit to bless us with." This from a 16-year-old who goes on: "The boy is 20, a sophomore in college, and he works afternoons to pay his tuition. We've gone steady for a year, and it was not love at first sight; rather I grew to love him in the tenderest way there is . . . Our parents want us to wait two years: but, we can't, for fear we won't be able to resist belonging to each other although it means so much to start our marriage right. "He will get his associate degree soon, and has two good bs open by which we can live comfortably . . . I matured very young and look almost 18. In grammer-school days, I learned how to budget, cook and run a household, so those things present no problem . . .

"Don't you think we are ready for the responsibilities of marriage now? We know it isn't all roubles greater than we know. ut we can lick them together, together we want to be." HOPEFUL

This girl does not realize • that the couples whose wed-

So simple, a child can help you with this handcraft! Use the gay Swedish designs for quick bazaar items - towels, potholders, mats; larger articles for your own home.

Pattern 566: Charts, directions for Swedish weaving 4 different designs - on anything made of Send THIRTY-FIVE CENTS. ... (stamps cannot be accepted, use postal note for safety) for this pattern to Laura Wheeler, Box 1, 123 Eighteenth St., New Print plainly PATTERN NUMBER, your NAME and ADDRESS.

Two FREE Patterns as a gift to our readers—printed right in our NEW Laura Wheeler Needlecraft Book for 1957! Dozens of other new designs you'll want to order-easy, fascinating handwork for yourself, your home. Be sure to send 25 cents for your copy of this book now - don't

* the same temptations she fears now. But they were strong and wise; they refused to soil their love by forbidden passion. They waited until their marriage could be blest by * their church and their fami-* lies, and their life together · began clean and sweet, untarnished by any blot on the These two do not realize * that marriage requires a character of the highest order, a faith in each other's fundamental goodness, and the * never-ending practice of restraint. If they are afraid to * be togther now, they are cer-* tainly not fit for the responsibilities of marriage and parent-* TO "HOPEFUL": I repeat to you my advice to the thousands of other youngsters who have * confessed this fear. You can * lessen the temptation to do * wrong by speading your dates * further apart and arranging * that they occur in less afturing circumstances. When you are togther, busy yourself with practical plans for the future; * talk about your fiance's jobs * and the opportunities they present. Don't be alone together · so regularly; double-date with friends, swing with the crowd and keep yourselves in active

You speak of the God-given children you hope for, yet your thoughts are dwelling on the possibility of breaking one of His most solemn commandments. Would you deserve innocent children to guide through life if you contemplate sin as inescapable? Love is not all passion. It is only true love when it brings out the best in each person. This, you two are not doing; you are too concerned with · the physical, not enough with the spiritual side of life. Cul-* tivate that now, so this lad will know he is getting a wife who is strong enough to be good, and worthy to be the mother of his children.

"Dear Anne Hirst: I have been going steady with a soldier who s now overseas. My 17th birthday was a few months ago, but not knowing about it he did not get me anything.

"His own birthday comes soon and I don't know whether to send him something, or just a card. What do you suggest? "I think you are doing a wonderful job for us youngsters, and for my part I thank you."

card may not get there in time; therefore, you want him to know you are thinking of him and looking forward to the time you two can celebrate birthdays together. This will be a gracious gesture, and the more welcome because it is unexpected. trouble, ask Anne Hirst for cour-

Having received few penny short. In due time, the

When she took it to the bank, the teller asked: "How would you like it? Heads or tails?"

PUTTING IN VIS LICKS-Sheer ecstasy is the expression on the face of this 135-pound lion as he licks at an ice cream cone held by Irene Yamato. She was a visitor to New York's new Advertising Center, the city's first permanent exhibit hall for the advertising and publishing fields.

CAMPAIGNS TO "FORGIVE GIRARD" - At Kagohara, Japan, Fukuji Shimitzu, a member of an ultra-nationalistic youth party that has launched a "Forgive Girard" campaign, shows one of his posters to Haru "Candy" Sueyama, sweetheart of U.S. Army Specialist 3/C William Girard, who is accused of accidentally killing a Japanese woman.

patio. A welcome breeze is blowing; robins are singing from the tree-tops a sure sign of rain. Not more than fifty feet from our back door a killdeer is nesting. We are not surprised as ever since we came killdeer have been very busy on our lawnand they are so tame. Have you ever seen a killdeer's nest-that is if you can call what we see a nest? In a slight hollow in the grass the mother bird has laid four speckled eggs - big eggs considering the size of the bird. No attempt has been made to line the nest. It is just a hard, dry hollow on a rough piece of lawn. We would never have known it was there except that the mother and father bird came and chased Partner away when he was mowing the grass. There are very few cats in this neighbourhood so we are hoping the nest will be left undisturbed.

Other species of wild life around mosquitoes. When we are water-do they live on I wonder when

SOLDIER'S BIRTHDAY

WONDERING"

Send the soldier a birthday card by airmail. It may arrive * late, so write a pretty note on

Say you have just learned

There is no substitute for being good; it is as simple as that.
Don't set the stage for temptaion, and if it comes run away from it . . . In any hour of age and the strength to do right. Write her at Box 1, 123 Eighdends, the old lady was irate when the corporation sent her a small cheque which was a company sent a cheque for one

It doesn't seem reasonable but there it is. And think what it

"he was tied to the cows' tail." Last Friday we spent the day on a farm near Shelburne. We were almost in time for breakfast! The weather was grand when we left here but north of Orangeville we drove through heavy rain. We thought it was oming as the lovely Caledon hills were shrouded in mist. Partner managed to milk three cows before we came home and found he hadn't forgotten the art. The cows were registered

I am sitting out on our back | Jerseys - and the calves like little fawns - without any spots of course. During the day the skies cleared and we were able to feast our eyes on the lovely scenery. But then the humidity closed in and the drive home was not too pleasant. We got back soon after eight, meeting a considerable amount of traffic heading north, presumably to summer cottages, which I hope they found less stifling than our house when we got back. With unsettled weather in the offing

we left the place shut up and while to cool the place as there wasn't a breath of air anywhere.

Suddenly, it is summer.

the curtains drawn. It took a

Another interesting event was a W.I. meeting at a lovely farm home not far from Ginger Farm. It was a striking example of what can be done with old farm houses if one is prepared to spend the money. Much the same could have been done at our place. We knew it but what would have been the use with the new highway right at the here are a family of cotton tails, a couple of grass snakes-and front door? So we have gone modern instead and have aling the plants we think there ready discovered that modern are plenty but compared with the conveniences can be very infarm we know they are not convenient. At Ginger Farm we over-abundant. Any time we had an old-fashioned roll-edge drop in at the farm to look bathtub - easy to get out of by grabbing the edges. we have a full-length streamin swarms. They get a good meal while we are there but what lined affair which Partner finds is not the safest thing for arthrithere are no people around? tic joints. The first thing I did Quite apart from the result was to buy a suction rubber bath mat but even that isn't the anof the Federal Election (!) last week was quite interesting - in swer. What he needs is somethe places we went and the thing to hang on to to raise himself up. There is a big tap, people we met. One visit was near here, to a home where of course, but how can one be sure the tap wouldn't come away they kep white rabbits, chinchilfrom the wall? Has anyone any las and a dog like Rusty. Some of the chinchillas are worth suggestions to offer? Seems to me this is something that might $500 a piece. Lovely little things with fur like chiffonbe taken up by Good Housevelvet. Apparently they are easy keeping or a Welfare Agency There is no doubt about it to feed and keep clean-much less work than rabbits. But imastream-lined bathtubs are a gine one of those wee things menace to elderly or partially disabled persons, irrespective of being worth as much as many age. Too often broken bones a highly bred registered cow!

have been the result of slipping in the bathtub. Somebody to the rescue, please.

Modern Etiquette by Roberta Lee

A generous tipper at a recort hotel found a new waiter serving him at breakfast one morning and said: "Where's my regular waiter, that boy called Lew!"

The new waiter replied, "Son.

ry, sir, Lew won't be serving you any more. I won you in Week's

Sew-Thrifty

30

PRINTED PATTERN

Just TWO main pattern parts

plus facings — what could be easier to sew than this PRINTE

Pattern! We know this cool summer dress just couldn't be mon flattering—those sheath - slin lines are pure magic for you

figure! Printed Pattern 4609: Misse

Sizes 10, 12, 14, 16, 18. Size II requires 3 yards 39-inch fabrit.

Printed directions on each pittern part. Easier, faster, accil.

Send FORTY CENTS (Stamp

cannot be accepted, use post

crap game last night."

Q. Will you please list some of the expenses of the bride's parents for her wedding? A. The invitations, the bride's rousseau, decorations for the church, soloists and organists at church, transportation for the bridal party, the wedding reception, dinner or breakfast, the bride's presents to her bridesmaids, and a wedding present to the couple.

Q. If one is served a cup of coffee filled to the brim, would it be all right to bend over the cup and take a few sips so as to avoid any danger of spillage when lifting the cup? A. You must not bend over. Take a sufficient number of spoonfuls of coffee and sip these, intil you are sure you can lift the cup without spilling. Q. When having a piece of silver for a baby marked with enly one initial, should it be the first or the last?

A. The first. Q. How does a woman secretary identify herself on the telephone to other business people, as Miss Adams, or as Helen Adams? A. Usually, as Miss Adams. However, if she is well acquainted with the other persons and they know her by her first name, it is quite all right for her to announce herself as Helen Adams.

Q. Is it necessary for a bride-elect to reply to notes of good wishes from friends who have seen her engagement announcement in the newspaper? A. While not necessary to write notes, she may telephone some of her friends and she most certainly should thank all those whom she meets. Q. Is it correct to pour gravy from a gravy pitcher, or must one use a gravy ladle?

A. Either way is correct. Q. When one has received an invitation two weeks in advance of a large dinner party in a friend's home when should one acknowledge this invitation? A. Immediately. There is nothing so inconsiderate as keeping a hostess waiting for a reply to such an invitation. Q. What should a girl do when a man calls at her home unexpectedly, and she has a pre-vious engagement?

A. Tell him immediately that she is sorry, but that she has an engagement. She may, if she wishes, invite him to call again.

note for safety) for this patter Please print plainly S1Z(NAME, ADDRESS, STYLI Q. Our son has just become NUMBER. Send order to ANNE ADAMS engaged, and so far we have not met the family of the girl. Isn't it our son's obligation to take us to meet his flancee's family? Box 1. 123 Eighteenth St., New Toronto, Ont. A. Certainly it is, and as soon as possible.

ISSUE 27 - 1957

AMBULANCE CHASING, ANYONE? - This tiny ambulance makes you think some circus midgets might have been in an accident Actually, it is one of a number of miniature vehicles that took part in a recent traffic contest for Italian high school students, held in St. Peter's Square, Rome.

PERSONAL APPEARANCE - Nurse Adele Day is holding tiny Clifton Truman Daniel, as his grandparents, former President Harry Truman and his wife, Bess, look on. The photo was taken by the baby's father, ng ysman Clifton Daniel.

Wonders Of Great Barrier Reef

The words "coral" and "cora the words "coral" and "coral islands" have generally called up visions of romance and one can remember how they not only formed the background of many stories of boyhood, but made at least one best-seller of recent times. To scientists of the last hundred years they have, however, heen magnets of great atever, been magnets of great atnactive power and this attrac-on has not yet ceased. They we provided the most fascinatems for the marine ied scenery both coastal land, and one of its worldfamous features is the region of the Great Barrier Reef, which is the greatest coral growth of its kind. This area provides all the beauty and also all the cientific puzzles for which man To land on a reef of the Outer rier and make the visit a success one needs low spring tides, and a flat ocean surface. will be lucky if you have ing you have the lucky it is profitable to leave your across the reef to the edge at once. This is not ighest part of the reef. usually a slight slope rd to the extreme edge and this strip, which may be a hundred and fifty feet or so ride, is often "scalloped," tha to say, cut in here and there

The safest place (keeping a very watchful eye open for an ual swell) to see things on outer steep slope is probat the edge of one of these ys. Here one may look , as it were ,into the abyss, startingly clear and blu water surges up and down, and see some of the branched corals growing. (Professor Stephenson of the Zoology Department, Queensland University, who wed this underwater scene ith goggles, described it as "a purvellous sight — the most impressive of all 'views' I have ver seen.").

The boulder zone is quite in teresting and becomes more so as one passes inwards, for the surface of the reef has depres-tions everywhere, and the boul-ders lying in them hide all sorts uaint creatures - starfish,

Drive Carefully

other mollusc shells, which avoid the terrific surf which batters the region near, and at the Gradually as one passes still farther inward (towards launch one has left behind) the water deepens, and here and there are bigger pools with sandy bottom. Very rich growth of coral and soft coral will be seen here. Finally one has to wade deeply and the lagoon of anchorage is reached. Our visit to the real barrier is over. One cannot conclude without saying that to get the appropriate when seeing the above, one ought to have been prev rier on a day when the sea is not calm. This gives a greater respect for the lowly creatures whose growth can withstand such battering of the ocean, and causes one to keep a weather eye whilst inspecting what is usually hidden by the restless sea. —From "Great Barrier sea. —From "Great Barrier Reef," by William J. Darkin,

Didn't Like His Own Company

An urgent radio message from ship sent New York agent John Rumsey rushing down to the docks to meet—just in time his client Freddy Lonsdale. "What have you come over for?" gasped the agent. "I'm darned if I know," replied Freddy. "I think I shall go back again!" And he did—by the Freddy Lonsdale, whose come dies were the London hits of a generation ago, was one of the most restless of men. H would decide, on an impulse, t cross America, then change his mind en route. Once he sailed from Southampton intending to visit Hollywood but left the boat at Cher bourg and returned to London. All he said was that he had sud denly changed his mind. "I was going to Hollywood to make money. I came home to find

Often he would cross to his native Jersey on a last-minute impulse, intending to write there, engaging a luxurious cab-in for himself, a cabin for his chauffeur-valet, Ernest Day, and space for his car. And invariably he would ask his friend Reginald Biddle, a Southampton Docks official, and his wife to dine with him before sailing because he could not bear to be

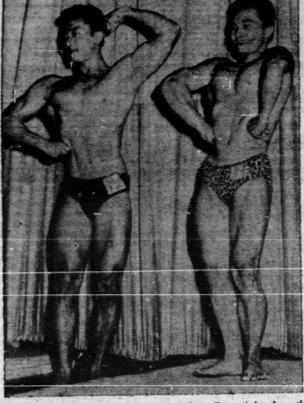

Once when the Biddles could not do so he dined alone, went

MAKING A SPLASH — This looks like an exclusive country club — but it's actually a department

d will be used for swimsuit fashion shows, skin-diving exhibitions and water ballets.

FATHOMS DEEP - Tons of water blow skyward from a charge explosion at five fathoms just astern of Pacific Fleet hunter-killer escort destroyer Philip. Split-second camera timing caught the effect at sea level of the concussion of the 300-pound "ash can".

BEEFCAKE - Malayan muscle man Robert Teo, right, has the bulge on Ronald Low. Teo won a muscles contest in connection with a jungle movie promotion stunt in Singapore.

to his cabin, and Day started to unpack. Then, shortly before the boat sailed, he suddenly told Day

Tales Of Early Sporting Days

In the days when the Pelican

Donaldson, who writes intimately of this perplexing personality in "Freddy Lonsdale", says that Jim Donahue, a Birminghan once he asked her to go with him from London to Liverpool and back by train in one day to see the Grand National. As she was then living in the country she stayed the previous Jim, because he'll try to kick you in the mouth — that's French." night at Claridge's to be ready for the early start. They were walking down the platform in the morning to find their booked seats when he suddenly stopped and asked: "Do you want to see tory for Jim. "No," she replied. "Nor do I," he said. "We'll go back to Claridge's and have a decent breakfast." And that was He had a caustic wit. Accosted in the Garrick Club by a stran-ger who asked, "Aren't you Fred-dy Lonsdale?" he swiftly replied,

"No. Not tonight."
One New Year's Eve actor Seymour Hicks begged him to make up a quarrel he'd previously had with a man, saying: "Go over and wish him a happy Freddy crossed the room and said to his enemy: "I wish you a happy new year . . . but only Asked once if he liked New York, he turned to observe some workmen glorying in the infer-nal racket of their pneumatic

. "I would," he said, "if they'd finish it."

Mrs. Donaldson gives a vivid account not only of her unusual father of the theatre world he conquered.

In Los Angeles, after scram bling in and out of a blazing apartment house helping two mothers and their eleven children to safety, Earl Livingston refused one mother's request that he dash back in once more for her TV set.

In Jupiter Cove, Fla., when mighty cast, his hook, sinker and Sisherman Joe Bal made a with a tremendous roar - snagged on a twin-engine sea-plane, which came over at about 25 ft.

"Then Oi'll bite him in the backsoide — that's Birmingham!"
The contest ended with a vic-

One member of the Pelican Club, recalls Guy Deghy in his lively book, "Noble and Manly", was Squire George Baird, of Stitchel, neor Kelso, who had a retinue of "pug" friends esti-mated to cost him over £1,500 a week in drinks, as well as food, prizes and petty cash, apart from the damage to his town houses, fines and court fees disbursed for them.

Although he believed that money could buy everything, he was strangely gullible when his attendant bruisers assured him that his punch excelled theirs, and begged him not to hit them oo hard when they sparred with him.

"You're not an ordinary man, Squire," they protested. "Think what yer did to old 'Arry!" This referred to an impromptu ontest held in the course drunken party at his John Street house, when he was said to have knocked his "pro" opponent unconscious, and was ater told that unfortunate man

To be blackmailed for keeping the incident out of court made him so proud and Deghy says, that he remained blissfully unaware of the deception even when "old 'Arry" reemerged from isolation and went back on his payroll!

The Pelican's founders were William Goldberg, known as 'Shifter" and "Swears' Wells, but after a time it was decided that Swears should buy the Shifter out for £500 Swears invited him to dine at a restaurant, where he duly appeared with a lady friend on his arm, and the money was handed over in £5 notes. Horrified at the idea of his going on his usual nightly round with all that money in his pocket, the girl said, "Let me take care of it for you. Willie dear." and persuaded him to place half of it in her safe

Then she went home, and he and Swears spent the rest of the evolution in true Pelican Not until they were at break fast at Swears' place did Swears refer again to her. Charming. very charming indeed. What might be her name? "Dunno," said the Shifter, "never seen her before." He never saw her again, either! Sporting fans can have a gay

SUGAR added to fruit before freezing will RETARD THE LOSS OF VITAMIN "C" and time with this high' entertain ing book which is liberally iflustrated with photographs and

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

AGENTS WANTED BE YOUR OWN BOSS I MEN or women, can work your own hours, and make profits up to 500% selling exclusive houseware products and appliances. No competition, not available in stores, and they are a necessity in every home. Write at once for free colour catalogue, showing retail prices plus confidential whole-sale price list. Murray Sales, 3822 St. Lawrence Bivd., Montreal. ARTICLES FOR SALE

SALE Fencing games, safe, different and exclusive $1.98. Soccer Football games $2.98. Helicopter, files up to 60 feet $2.98. Small compact portable im-mersion heater with case $1.98. Post-pald. Guaranteed. Romec Sales, $135 Bellechasse, Montreal.

BABY CHICKS PROMPT shipment. Started chicks, pullets, cockerels. In a variety of breeds. For production on all markets. In cluding Ames In-Cross (Egg production at minimum overhead) Bray Hatchery. 120 John N., Hamilton. CHICK time is any time. It used to be that spring was the only time to buy chicks. But, chick buying times have changed. So have chicks. The most important thing when buying chicks is not when you buy them but to buy the right breeds for the job you want the chicks to do. We have Special Egg Breeds, Dual Purpose Breeds, Broller Breeds. Also Turkey Poults, Older Pullets. Catalogue explaining all.
TWEDDLE CHICK HATCHERIES LTD. FERGUS

FARM MACHINERY FOR SALE

FOR SALE

FULLY equipped Welding & Black-smith Shop in sure crop tobacco district, doing excellent business. Five room modern house, garage and garden. Will sell separate or trade for part cash and large house in good condition in City. Reason for selling, ill health. Contact Agent, Martha Reid, 304 R 30, Mount Brydges, Ont., or Coughtrey Real Estate, 141 Dundas, London, Ont. PERSONAL

100 ACRES clay soil; 50 acres bush, rest cleared. Tourist site. Building, live-stock, machinery, etc. $5,500, ½ cash. Henry O'Neill, Sturgeon Falls. SURPLUS EQUIPMENT
ONE Cedarapids 10 x 36 Jaw crusher.
One Cedarapids 18 x 30 Roll crusher.
(Mounted in tandem with discharge conveyor. Screens used only one nonth. Crushers Ai condition. Price month. Crushers Al condition. Price $6,000.

One Laplante Choate Tractor scraper 12 cu. yds. Al condition. Price $5,000.

One Little Giant 34 cu. yd. Crane, dragline, pullshovel and shovel. Price $3,500.

One 6" Jaeger Sure Prime water pump with engine on stand. Price $1,200. pump with engine on $1,200.
Will finance. All prices f.o.b. Windsor yard and can be inspected there.
CENTRAL STONE & AGGREGATE $101 Howard Ave., Windsor, Ont. Sub P.O. 5.

WANTED — EVERY SUFFERER OF RHEUMATIC PAINS OR NEURITIS TO TRY DIXON'S REMEDY. MUNRO'S DRUG STORE $1.25 Express Prepaid

How Can I? By Anne Ashley

A. Keep small bags of sulphur in drawers and boxes. Or dampen a sponge in a solution of sugar and water, put it in a saucer, and place near the haunts. It will soon be full of ants and can then be plunged into boling water. Q. How can I make a good furniture polish? A. Mix equal parts of turpentine, spirits of wine, vinega and linseed oil. Shake well and do not use much at a time. Q. Should the milk be hot or cold when used for mashing

A. It should be hot. Lukewarm or cold milk will make the potatoes pasty and heavy. Q. How can I prevent sun-A. The weakest part of the spine is at the back of the neck. When in danger of sunstroke see that the back of the neck is well protected from the sun's Q. How can I remove the scorched top or bottom of a A. Grate over it lightly with nutmeg grater instead of scraping with a knife. This will leave a smooth surface for the frost-O. How can I make sweet peas bloom well? A. When planting sweet peas they should run north and south to make them bloom well. -Q. How can 1 prevent passersby from seeing into a house through the window screens? A. If the window screens are painted on the inside with a thin white paint, it will not obstruct the view of the persons inside the house, but passersby cannot see within. A. They can be cleaned with lukewarm water and white soap Wipe off with clear water and hang out to dry. Never use benzine or gasoline on rubber.

ITCH STOPPED IN A JIFFY or money back

POST'S ECZEMA SALVE BANISH the torment of dry eczema rashes and weeping skin troubles. Post's Eczema Saive will not disappoint you Itching, scaling and burning eczema; acne, ringworm, pimpieg and foot eczema will respond readily to the stainless odoriess ontment regardless of how stubborn or hopeless they seem. they seem.
Sent Post Free on Receipt of Prior
PRICE $3.00 PER JAR

POST'S REMEDIES
2865 St. Clair Avenue East
TORONTO

100 LETTER size sheets mimeogra; $2.00; 500, $4.50; thousand, $7.00. h sine articles reprinted. Return age paid. Regal Reprint, Box Golden, B.C. BE A HAIRDRESSER ANADA'S LEADING SCHOOL

Write or Call
MARVEL HARDRESSING SCHOOLS
358 Bloor St. W., Toronto 44 King St. W., Hamilton 72 Rideau St., Ottawa

EXCEPTIONAL OPPORTUNITY
OILS, GREASES, PAINTS
AND Colloidal Graphite Additives Dealers wanted to sell to Farmers, Fleet
Owners and Service Stations. Write Warco Grease & Oil Limited. Toronte
3, Ont.

STONHAUGH & Company Attorneys, Established 1890. versity Ave., Toronto. Patents tries.

$1.00 TRIAL offer. Twenty-five deluxe

THERE is some satisfaction in importing, breeding and selling the best. There is only one reason for us selling a lot of Landrace Swine. The answer is Top Quality Landrace that satisfy our customers who come back for more and tell their friends and neighbours about our top quality stock. Many blood lines to choose from. Weanling, four month old, six month old sows and boars, guaranteed in pig sows, serviceable boars, all from imported stock. Catalogue.

FERGUS LANDRACE SWINE FARM

LANDRACE SWINE FARM KINDROCHET Imported Landrace for quality and type, for the new breeder we can supply unrelated stock and for commercial try a Kindrochet Boar and see the difference. Apply: Joseph Bernard, Waterford, Ont.

JUST received a large importation of outstanding in pig sows, picked from some of the best herds in Great Britain. Also received a really outstanding boar to add to our aiready large herd of imported Landrace. Weanling, four month old sows and boars, guaranteed in pig sows. Prices reasonable. Catalogue.

TONRA STOCK FARM R.R.3, Holland Centre, Ont

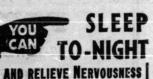

New Stamps

INDEPENDENCE STAMP - Comnemorating the centenary of the 1857 struggle for nation independence, is this colorful dark green stamp issued by the Pakistan Post and Telegraph Department. It is one of two stamps issued to mark the event, the other being a stamp of higher denomination in blue.

STAR STAMP - This striking design, featuring the North Star, has been named the winned of the Minnesota Statehood Designed by Paul Konsterlie of St. Paul, Minn., the stamp will be issued during the weekend of Statehood Day in May, 1958.

ALLDAY TO-MORROW! SEDICIN tablets taken according to directions is a safe way to induce sixe or quiet the nerves when tense. SEDICIN® $1.00-$4.95

ISSUE 27 - 1957