Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Mitchell spent Saturday afternoon attending the Royal Winter Fair.

Several members of the Renton W.L. attended the district Rally for South and North Norfolk Institute held in the Junior Farmer Building at Simcoe on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Duncan, Mrs. Geo. Duncan attended the funeral of the late Mr. E. Madole, held in St. Williams, on Sunday.

Mrs. Ray Farmer and daughter of Georgia, spent a few days visiting hockey game, last Friday night, were a little surprised to discover the Russian boys looked almost exactly like Canadian hockey players.

We dare say many of the viewers for the Russia vs. Whistly Dumlops hockey game, last Friday night, were a little surprised to discover the Russian boys looked almost exactly like Canadian hockey players.

to the processes of democratic government. After all Sam has been loyal to the Mayor these many years and it appeared to be natural to have these two hooked in double harness for a term.

At the risk of being called disloyal we have no hesitation in saying we were cheering for the Russians. For some strange reason we never have any difficulty going along with the under-dog and it seemed to us the odds were against the Russians for their first game since arriving in Canada.

Two days before the game they had a string plane ride. They arrived in Canada's largest city to compete in what we call our National game. It is reasonable to suppose it was the first trip outside the Iron Curtain area for most, if not all, of the players.

All of these factors considered we think the Russians conducted themselves admirably for the beginning of their Canadian tour and feel assured this group will go home with some nice things to say about Canada.

We see by the papers Sam Morris has taken his first step into politics. He was given a nomination for the office of Reeve for the lakeside metropolis of Port Dover last week and he will not allow his name to stand for election. We might remind him it is the duty of every citizen, when called upon by their peers, to consider what whatever talents he may possess

GREY CUP FEVER

Once upon a time East and West met together for an annual football game.

Some of the more rabid western fans travelled East to cheer their team. Usually they didn't have much to cheer about.

Year by year since 1948 Grey Cup fans have infected more and more Canadians. Two years ago it spread to Vancouver when the Canadian football final was played in the West for the first time.

There is no incoherence against it any more. Doubtful anyone is seeking a cure. Grey Cup fever has come around again, to be climaxed in Toronto by what promises to be the biggest and most grandly paraded yet for the fact that most of the stars on both teams are Americans.

There will be reception and dinners and a festival dance at which a queen will be crowned. Prime Minister Diefenbaker will be the list of dignitaries and will kick off the ball to start the game.

Many thousands of dollars will be spent on floats and bands for the parade. Vancouver alone, with more than 20 floats, has budgeted $25,000 to finance the biggest display from any city.

Life will seem a little dull when it's all over, for that's the way the fever leaves you. But no one will deny it's worth it. That in some way it brings Canadians a little closer together, and that next year, in Vancouver, it will be bigger and better than ever.

ROCKET VANISHES

The carrier rocket of the first Russian satellite disappeared last Saturday and presumably had disintegrated somewhere up in the atmosphere.

A. C. Lovell, director of the world's largest telescope in Cheshire, England, said the half-ton rocket casing could not be located anywhere in the sky. The first time it was not tracked in Cheshire since the Russians launched Sputnik I on Oct. 4.

Eight persons, including two children, were killed when a 300-foot landslide swept three homes into a creek on the edge of Prince Rupert, B.C., last Friday.

COLLECTIVE SPENDTHRIFTS

ALL the authorities on financial matters are warning that Canadians as a whole are spending too much and too fast.

As a people, should we not delay for a while some of the things governments are providing, or planning to provide for us out of our taxes? Reducing government spending to a genuine minimum is absolutely necessary if inflation is to be halted.

Your aldermen, your member of the legislature and your member of parliament are always glad to hear from you.
