Boy Scout Jubilee Amboree Jottings

— By Keith Lynch —
This will be the last letter now to be published after the Amboree is over. Not much has happened since the last time I wrote. On Sunday we went to the Scouts' Own Service held in the big arena. Lord Rowan was the speaker and he gave a terrific address dealing with the Brotherhood of Scouting and the Brotherhood of Christ. It wasn't too long either. In the afternoon Carl and I met two girls who invited us to meet for dinner. We almost accepted until we remembered that we couldn't go as one of us had to be the whole patrol. So they said after a lot of discussion we decided to go. They were wonderful to us and we had a very good time. We met their parents and then washed some kind of dessert. It was really good.
