Turkey Jamboree Is Big Week-end Event

Saturday night, Dec. 6th, is Turkey Jamboree night in Jarvis. Every body will be heading for the Community hall and the excitement of this annual event.

As usual, this is the big turkey given away as a door prize and chance to win this bird cost absolutely nothing but attendance at the Jamboree. Lion George Walker is again in charge of the door prize event.

Tom for someone over this Christmas. Be sure and deposit your chance when you arrive at the Jamboree.

The turkeys this year are like the crops. Better than ever. Every one who gets a bird that has been carefully nurtured to maturity for some better of years.

Of course the really exciting feature of the night will be the drawing of the grand prize of a $2,500.00 Bond or... a weekly cheque of $50.00 extended over a full year. Oh boy! Have you secured your chance yet? Better hurry. There are not many chances left. See you Saturday night.

Surviving besides his wife, is one daughter, Mrs. Frank Whitford (Vera) of Hagersville; two grand-children, one brother, Charles, of Scotland, Ont.

The funeral was held on Saturday at the Mt. Funeral Home, Hagersville. Rev. J. W. Stevens, of Hamilton, officiated.
