Nelles Corners Lady Wins Draw at Lions Jamboree

Mrs. Mildred Heaslip, of Nelles Corners, held the winning ticket on the draw for the grand prize at the annual Lions Club Turkey Jamboree held in the Community Hall on Saturday night. The winning ticket was sold by Lion Bruce Stadder.

The result came as a surprise to Mrs. Heaslip who was not aware her husband had purchased a ticket in her name for the draw. It was a nice surprise, however, and similar to one experienced by the same family two years ago when the prize was a brand new automobile. Mr. Heaslip described it by saying "I guess we are just lucky."

Freddy Montague, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Montague, drew the winning ticket from the big drum.

The door prize, a 20 lb turkey, was won by Mr. Richard Rushton, R.R. 3 Jarvis, Ontario.

There was a good crowd for the turkey draw which saw the wheel spun for 110 birds. The other games and refreshment booth were well patronized and the whole event will go down as another successful Jamboree sponsored by the Jarvis Lions Club. General Chairman for the event was Lion Lea Marshall.

ON THE FARM FRONT

Brief Notes for the Busy Farmer

By Haldimand Harry

According to Dr. Caldwell of the Ontario Agricultural College, farm incomes increased by 13.2 per cent in 1957 as compared with the previous year. This information comes from the records of some 378 farms across the province where careful records of all business activities were kept. As might be expected the "Poultry General" farms had the greatest total receipts, followed rather closely by the "Large Hog Enterprise" farms. However, when the expenses had been taken out the farms with the highest labour income were those in the "Dairy Specialty" group and the "Cash Crop" farms were in second position.

-oOo-

One of the most contentious problems on the farm is the butter fat test of milk. Actually variations in test are the rule rather than the exception, so states the Dairy Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture. When the variations become too wide it is then that the causes need to be studied and corrected where possible. There are several factors which will cause fluctuations in the test. There are breed differences as well as differences in the individuals within the breed. There is quite a wide variation during the lactation period. Cows tested too closely to freshening will often show a decline in the test. These and other causes are discussed in Circular 179 which can be obtained from the office of your agricultural representative.

-oOo-

Blood testing is proceeding in ten counties in Ontario under the Brucellosis Control Area Plan and a total of 244,612 cattle had been tested up to the end of October. There were 2,054 reactors, which is .83 per cent. Out of a total of 9,308 herds that had been tested, infected cattle were found in only 1,003 or 10.77 per cent. In Oxford where the test is well advanced and where 101,796 cattle have been tested there were only 1.32 per cent reactors. In Dundas with the second highest number of cattle tested up to this date the percentage reactors stood at .27 per cent. There is still no word as to when testing may be expected to begin in Haldimand.

-oOo-

There would seem to be ample supplies of good seed of good varieties of grain to be had in the Western and Central areas of the province. The same is not true for some parts of Western Ontario where long periods of wet weather destroyed the quality. A survey has recently been completed by the Ontario Soil and Crop Improvement Association and in addition to this information it has also been reported that the export demand may be expected to be about the same as formerly although the competition may be a little more keen. Farmers with a good sample of oats or barley would be well advised to look after it carefully and prepare it for selling or for their own use.

In connection with these reports on the seed quality, it has just been announced that the Seed Marketing and Publicity Committee of the Ontario Soil and Crop Improvement Association has recommended that the minimum prices for seed grain for the 1959 season should be about the same as last year. It is suggested that Commercial No. 1 grade Oats be not less than $1.50 per bushel; Certified No.1, $1.65 and Registered No. 1, $1.75 per bushel. In the case of barley the suggested prices are $1.80 per bushel for Commercial No. 1 grade and $2.35 per bushel for Registered No. 1 grade.
