

The significance of three hockey teams in the local Erie League emerging from the Hockey playoffs...

We remember so well the experience in Jarvis following the installation of floodlights at the local park...

It is encouraging to hear comments on the possibility of a water-lition of floodlights at the local park which, it was thought, would give the avid ball playing every opportunity to exhaust their energies in this particular field.

We have come to the conclusion, therefore, that the answer to the development of ball players and hockey players is not in providing good facilities for these games.

If our May 19th celebration is to be a success it will have to start off with a good parade.
