England, for a long time, had the responsibility of world leadership and diplomacy. After the last war that responsibility shifted to the United States. It was a terrific responsibility to assume without the benefit of experience. But, there was no alternative. The U.S. Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles, has been shouldering this responsibility in the name of his Government.

As the result of his efforts he has become the most criticized man in the world. The criticism may be entirely justified. We don't know. On the other hand we question very strongly the qualifications of his critics. Others through acts of their own service to mankind, Ivan W. Holmes, have benefited from the team and vigilance of his board of welfare of the community. His will read.—Melfort (Sask.) Journal.

UNITED CHURCH NOTES

The U.C. has a new TV series on Sunday afternoon entitled "Heritage". This series depicts the work of different Churches in Canada. On Sunday, October 26th, the picture will be "His Crucible" showing the work of the Anglican Church in a small mining town. All the "actors" are local people. It will be shown from 2:30 to 4:00 P.M.
