HRISTMAS DAY & BOXING DAY

Wicket Lobby will be open from 8.00 A.M. to 10.00 A.M.

We always get up with the first rays of dawn on Christmas morning and rush down stairs to see what Santa Claus left for us. We're looking for something really big this year. The family has been going around gaking sly glances at one another for the past week and we seem to be she enly one who isn't in on the section. Usually our reward for getting up at the first rays of dawn on Christmas morning has been a coupting the coupting that the wicket. This has enabled us to keep our mail that this Council make a grant to the sick Children's Hospital of $25.90. The Christmas tree is all worked up again this year. We're aware of those sly glances. We're pretty sure the family has had a conference on what to get the old man and, with the true Christmas spirit, heve agreed that he takes quite a beating throughout the year bringing home abrown which have said "now well just get him something pretty nice this year and really show him how he is appreciated."

With these thoughts in mind well just bet they have something pretty nice for us this year. Now let's see, what could it be? Maybe it will be one of those power lawn mowers with seats on them—you know, the condition of the light of trends in the world moved by Graydon Field and section of those of those
