Two of the three towers of radio station CKEY blew down in Scarborough, a Toronto suburb. Windows were shattered in Windsor, St. Catherines, Toronto and other areas. In St. Catherines, the tall brick chimney of the Merritton Junior Public School crashed across a house slicing it in half.

Five greenhouses were destroyed in farms along Highway 24 around Simcoe.

SUDBURY UNION

A 12-man group pledged to seek affiliation with the Canadian Labor Congress won control of the Sudbury local of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers. A slate headed by Don Gillis, reeve of Garson-Neelon Township, scored a virtual clean sweep. The 14,000 member Sudbury local is the biggest Canadian unit in the Mine-Mill union, which was expelled from parent union affiliation 10 years ago for Communist domination.
