We hardly need to say that whether our original objective was achieved or not, we at least had one of the greatest orators of our time as the guest speaker at our Board of Trade Banquet.

We recall this incident this work.

THE JABVIS RECUED, JARVIS, ONTAGE

Mrs. W. E. Craddock convened the program in the absence of Mrs. Banks, reading the Scripture lesson from John:6. Mrs. Charles Powell read a letter from Mrs. Moore Gordon, explaining her work as a Missionary in Formosa. Mrs. Howard D. Smith led in prayer. Suitable hymns were sung and the meeting was closed by the Lord's Prayer. The hostess and committee served dainty refreshments.

He told the conference's Sunday church service that "it is important for us to realize and to feel that God neither today nor on the day of judgment will think of a Hindu or a Muslim as being a non-Christian."
