ple that seemed to have been a request that could have been granted. The fact was Mr. K. knew that it couldn't be arranged quickly and, in fact we suspect he hadn't the slightest interest in visiting Disneyland. But, the point is this. We know about the travelling restrictions in Russia for any tourist. Here was a chance for Mr. K. to imply the fact was there wasn't time to same thing applied in America. But the fact was there wasn't time to simpose security precautions to guarantee protection for the Soviet Leader. In the Soviet Leader. In the Soviet Leader. In the Soviet Leader in America people with tickets to see a private enterprise entertainment simply wouldn't be pushed out of the way so quickly. People with the fact way so quickly. So here we are Rusty! All set for another year! I'll oil the old type-writer and keep you informed of the things that come to my eye. But frankly I'm wondering if the Record would not find it cheaper in the long run to send Laird on another fast finding trip somewhere and let him regale us through the long winter evenings with stories of life in, say Mexico or some other kindly clime. The Record is the only paper I know of that has the influence, sincerity, weight and scope to have a globetrotter on the staff, and, shades of old Bill Fry, a man able to report all that has happened without running out of adjectives.

The estimates include a bridge a cross the main channel and also across the main channel and also across sulphur creek at the Byrg end of the structure. The plan was presented to Council by Garfield Disher, chairman of the Bridge Committee. The old bridge now spanning the Grand at Dunnville is a narrow structure and is said to be inadequate for present day traffic and is a deterrant with its load limits, on the industrial development in the area.

If the plan is approved by the Governments, eightly percent would be paid for by Provincial grants and possibly further grants would be forthcoming from the Seaway author ity.
