The Town be kept in operation. As you must be well aware, there has been much difficulty in doing so during the last year. Teen Town was for a while, closed down and in that short period the kids realized how much they missed it. On the advice of the Hagersville Town Council, a Civil Defence man and two couples must be present to chaperone and dispel any disorder which may arise. We the Teen Town executive have our hands full taking money at the door and looking after records.

The spirit of Christmas can best be summed up in the words of Mary, the Mother of our Lord, "My spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour."
This joy can be ours, not through some striving of our own. Not by strict adherence to a moral code, but by accepting the gift of God's love and forgiveness as revealed in Lesse.
