HOPEFUL THOUGHT

Motorists received a "break" Monday morning following the ice storm. The meters around town were encased in ice and had to be de-iced by the meter repair man. —Lindsay (Ont.) Watchman-Warner.

HOPEFUL THOUGHT

A thought that must be in the minds of everyone is, will this year see the end of the cold war and the beginning of the period that everyone wants... the era of lasting peace? —Huntington (Que.) Cleaner.

Just got in from a period of De-re-me-ta-so training and the realization suddenly hit us that copy for this column had been completely forgotten under the stress of other events this week. So here it is, once again, away past bedtime and the chores still to be done.

We have just finished a quick glance through the sport pages and are wondering again, as we have frequently wondered before, about the tremendous amount of reporting, type-setting and newspaper space devoted throughout the winter season to the six teams in the National Hockey League.

One further comment about hockey players. We read in the daily columns something about the dress of the visiting Russian Hockey players who arrived in this country last week for a series of games in Canada.

The comment was meant to imply that their taste was something below normal in the matter of attire. The next morning Canada's National Newspaper, The Globe and Mail, had a big picture spread of the players and have yet to lose a game. They tell us this is probably the best team the Cheviots have yet produced even though they have proven in the past to be the best in their class in Ontario. They have strong hopes of repeating that performance again this year.

Last year, if you may recall we were almost successful in booking the Cheviots in a clash with the St. Lawrence Gunners. We had the wholehearted support of Jerry Polling, the Gunners' Publicity Agent, but failed finally to get the contest set up. This year the Gunners are not operating so we will never be able to prove the Cheviots could have beaten them. There is a report, however, that the management of Lee Cheviots are making progress toward a game with the Port Dover Fishermen (O.H.A.) and if this is so we'll bet the rafters in the Port Dover rink will ring with Cheviots supporters on that occasion.

Such a game is just what the Cheviots need. It would provide the stronger opposition they need to adjust themselves for the Ontario O.H.A. playoffs which get underway the middle of next month. In fact we warn Port Dover if they expect to win they will have to let out every stop.

Invest wisely for this year and next! Right now — during this great January you can secure the fur coat, fur jacket, stole you always have wanted... at a wonderful saving!

"Yes, Doctor... Wednesday will be fine!"

When it's time to have the dentist check daughter's teeth, Mrs. Smith naturally reaches for the telephone, that helpful "member-of-the-family" with the habit of getting things done. When you look back over your day, it's sometimes surprising to realize in just how many little ways the telephone has helped you... how it adds so much convenience and comfort to everyday living.

PAYING FOR CBC
There's a lot of nonsense being said about subsidizing advertising on CBC television and network. The point is that they are paying for a television and radio program. Whatever money can be had the sponsors help to pay for the set-up. —Nanton (Alta.) News Home-made street signs with big-city names are one kind of link between the people of the New North and the rest of Canada. Banking service is another.

Canadian banks have, since the earliest days, taken part in the development of new areas, the opening of new frontiers. Today the chartered banks continue to bring banking services to pioneer settlements as the economic map of Canada is rolled back.

They have at the same time greatly increased the number of branches in established areas across Canada — new suburban communities, expanding industrial centres — keeping pace with the country's population and business growth.

To take care of all these varied needs, 1,200 new branches have been opened by the chartered banks in the past ten years.
