

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:
There has been quite a bit said concerning the school question...

As for the Dutch people sending their children past "our schools" (I might be pointed out just here) (unquote) that they are also sent right by the door of the modern Central School too...

DEAR EDITOR:
In regard to a letter published in your paper I would like to ask: when you start living in Russia?

It looks as though we'll finally have to take off the storm windows. We've managed to evade the job so far this season by using the argument that the storm windows keep out the heat...

The Chairman of the Walpole Liberal Association must have really had the pot boiling last Saturday afternoon when it became necessary for him to call out the Jarvis Fire Department...
